NATIONAL and STATE SERVICE ON SPORTS

PLUMBOBS AND COPCOS VICTORS

It took an hour and thirty five minutes of time for the Plumbobs to convince the Jewels that the great American national game was one that they knew from start to finish and at the end of seven innings, the Jewels picked up their bats and retired from the field, victory falling to the Plumbobs by the score of 8 to 7.

The hairtrimmers had no easy time wresting the victory from the boys who know "service" and it was only when the Plumbobs came to the bat in their half of the last inning, after three runners of the Jewels had crossed the plate tying the score, that the winning run was scored. Three errors cost the Jewels the game in that inning.

Houston of the Plumbobs was the star batter in this game securing three hits out of four times at bat and also scored three of the runs. McCollum and Moody were also batters each securing two hits. Sluggers Noel secured his usual three bagger. H. Foster and Condry were the individual batters of the Jewels, each collecting two bingles out of four times at bat. Both Bears and Fitch pitched good ball, issuing no passes to first, breaking even on strikeouts, four apiece. Errors were the features which handicapped them in pitching classy ball.

The Copcos kept up their winning streak and annexed an easy victory from the Ewaunas yesterday, almost running their players to death covering the four bases, in fact, a runner did not have time to catch his breath before he was started on another mad chase around the diamond, the score standing at the close of the seven innings 16 to 7. And the Copcos breathed a sigh of relief for their legs would never have carried them around two more innings the way they had been performing.

This game was more of a butchery than anything else and the Copcos lived up to the Indian pseudonym they bear—they were run mad and no matter what Loper, Sharkey Clark or Hilton shoved over the plate, their batters simply reached out and connected with them—at the right times. This game was replete with brilliant errors despite the summary for only the grossest ones were charged by Scorer Archer.

Carson and Gerges each secured two hits out of three times up while Cody and Wilson connected safely twice up four times at bat. The Copcos batters were Noel, Bearns and Moody, with Noel the star, slamming out a homer in this contest and securing two bingles when up four times. Bearns and Moody each secured two hits out of four times up. The Ewaunas as a team batted better than the Copcos but never bunched their hits. Hilton passed seven Copcos with first base tickets and Loper issued 1, while Sharkey Hutchins only granted one lonely ticket to first. Hilton and Sharkey Clark, the latter pitching several innings, each fanned three Copcos while Hutchins made 8 Ewaunas swing wide of their mark. One of the features of the game was a neat double play by Bodenhamer to Clark.

Jazz Wedding Rites

the Latest; Revised Version of Old Form

COLUMBIA, Mo., July 11.—Jazz is the order of the day. And now comes the jazz wedding ceremony, all revised to fit conditions of the Twentieth Century modernity.

Rev. G. W. Hatcher, Columbia's "marring parson," who has tied 447 knots of wedlock, is the provider of the new ceremony. Made public today, it provides that the groom shall reply to the following questions:

"Wilt thou take her for thy pard, for better or for worse; to have, to hold, to fondly guard, till hauled off in the hearse?"

"Wilt thou let her have her way, consult her many wishes, make the fire every day and help her with the dishes?"

"Wilt thou soothe her in her woes; keep her spirit bright and gay? Wilt thou turn the wringer, hang the clothes and trust her for the pay?"

"Wilt thou give her all the stuff her little purse will pack, buy a monkey board, a muff, a little seal-skin sack?"

"Wilt thou comfort and support her father and mother, Aunt Jemina Uncle John, thirteen sisters and a brother?"

"Wilt thou tell her to her face that she is sweet, and kind; that the like of her in all the race would be difficult to find?"

"Wilt thou be to her the same and never shirk nor falter, as she shall wear thy name and thou shall wear the halter?"

To break the monotony of the questionnaire on matrimonial promises, Rev. Dr. Hatcher supplies the result on the groom: "His face grows pale and blinks; it is too late to jilt. As to the floor he sadly sinks, he quickly says: 'I will.'"

Bride Has Questionnaire, Too.

Oh yes—The bride must have her set of questions. They're supplied by the genial marrying parson who admits that Walt Mason hasn't a thing on him:

"Wilt thou take him for thy pard, for better or for worse; to have, to hold, to fondly guard his person and his purse?"

"Wilt thou make him mind and show him every fault and, then, in spite of groan or whine, make him walk the calk?"

"Wilt thou make him eat the scraps that belong to days of yore, so you'll get your midday naps and over novels pore?"

"Wilt thou be quick to take control of all that's on the place and say to him in language bold: 'You're not my boss in any case?'"

"Wilt thou make him sweep the floor, fetch the wood and water, pick up things—or whatever else you order?"

"Wilt thou make him darn his socks, sew buttons on his britches and get your fingers in his locks every time he misses?"

"Wilt thou make of him a carry-all for handbox, grip and bundle; make

Gordon Willing to Meet Blue Again

Sammy Gordon has notified local admirers that he is more than willing to have a return match signed up with Babe Blue at any time that such can be arranged. This announcement was contained in a letter sent from Portland on Friday and Gordon states that he will follow the lead set by Blue—will be on the ground at least two weeks ahead of time to get into perfect trim and "be thoroughly acclimated."

Babe Blue is still in the city and is doing light training daily pending the arrangement of the bout. Blue states that the longer he remains here, the better he likes it. Jack Burns is in Sacramento and in a letter to one of his friends announces that he is also doing light training in that city and will be on hand should a match be arranged for him on the tentative program for next month that is now under consideration.

Points the Way

This wooden-headed young lady is pointing the way to Atlantic City. For that matter she's all wood. She's a sign-board—one of the features of the newly opened "White Horse Pike." Dedication ceremonies were held in Atlantic City, Egg Harbor and other New Jersey towns. The bathing girl below gives an idea of the size of the poster girl.

At the Theaters

THE STAR

With Conway Tearle in the stellar role there is never any doubt in the minds of the audience that the entertainment will be a good one, and in "Bucking the Tiger" the Selsaick picture now showing at the Star theatre, the role of Ritchie MacDonald gives him every opportunity to display the personality which has made him one of the most popular stars of the screen.

As the ne'er-do-well, living in exile from his aristocratic family, as the nonchalantly generous soldier of fortune willing to sacrifice his life for a whimsical impulse, and as the courageous lover who fights for his life against an infuriated antagonist, Conway Tearle acts with a conviction and realism which anchors the sympathies of the audience throughout the entire picture.

THE LIBERTY

Seldom is the heroine of a picture anything but a quiet and virtuous young person, but in "The Woman of Lies," Olive Sherman, the leading character is portrayed as a woman seeking revenge for a terrible wrong done her in her earlier life. The picture is fast-moving, and tense situations follow each other in rapid succession. June Elvidge plays the role of Olive Sherman, while Earl Metcalfe is at his best in the part of Jim Waldron, a reformed crook.

"The Woman of Lies" is the attraction at the Liberty theatre tonight.

A decision rendered last April by Federal Judge Bean of Portland declared the will valid, and dismissed the action on the part of the relatives which was instituted through Veasie & Veasie, attorneys of Portland. It was thought that this might possibly end the case insofar as the relatives are concerned, but evidently this conclusion was wrong.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back Hurts or Headaches Bothers You, Drink Lots of Water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grams of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with bicarbonate and has been used for generations

Hot Water Each Morning Puts Roses in Your Cheeks

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of combustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Girls and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

Women who desire to enhance the beauty of their complexion should try this for a week and notice results.

Broadway's Diving Champ

Broadway chorus girls met in the Madison Square Garden pool to decide the swimming championship. Here's Gertrude MacDonald, who won the diving title.
