CALIFORNIA NEWS

WILLOWS.—Grain and fruit suffered heavily in the recent north winds, says Farm Adviser George A. Gostley, but he makes no estimate in percentage of the damage. Plums and peaches suffered most, altho pears were badly shattered.

OLETA.—"The Coyotes Are Getting Our Goats!"

This is the cry of the farmers of this district, and in this case the cry has a real and not a metaphorical significance.

SACRAMENTO.—Within a few minutes after his wife had filed suit for divorce, Emanuel Dandarett brought a similar action against Mrs. Pearl Dandarett in the Superior Court. The two cases will be fought out before Superior Judge Peter J. Shields.

WILLOWS.—Edward Carberry, a sheepherder, who recently was lost seven days in the wilds of the Snow Mountain country of the Coast Ranges, died in the hospital here. He had been seven days without food when he wandered into the first settlement he had encountered not far from Ukiah. Carberry was 65 years old.

SACRAMENTO.—Jack Rupley, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Rupley of Georgetown, El Dorado County, was saved from death after doctors in Georgetown had been unable to do anything for him, when he was brought to Sacramento recently and half of a peanut was removed from his lung.

NAPA.—When Henry Guigni of St. Helena dosed to sleep while driving his new car, the machine soon found it was master of the situation and went over into a ditch a few miles north of Napa. Guigni was uninjured but the machine was completely wrecked.

SACRAMENTO.—Vigorous protest was made by Mrs. David Kana, a Hawaiian of 117 O Street, against the action of a woman attendant at the Riverside Baths in refusing to sell a plunge ticket to her 12-year-old daughter, Lillian, because she was dark complexioned.

SACRAMENTO.—The Guayule rubber plantation on the farm of H. O. Jenkins, near Davis, is in excellent condition and is making satisfactory growth. This is according to William McCallum, a representative of a rubber company of Arizona who inspected the plantation.

"NOW-A-DAYS" says the Good Judge

A man can get a heap more satisfaction from a small chew of this class of tobacco, than he ever could get from a big chew of the old kind. He finds it costs less, too. The good tobacco taste lasts so much longer he doesn't need to have a fresh chew nearly as often. Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
