SUPPORT FOR LOCAL BOXING

The boxing fans have made many complimentary remarks about the appointment of a permanent boxing commission for this city and seem more than satisfied that any bout which is vied by the commission will be well worth attending. For a commission to gain such a reputation comes only after a demonstration that they know a "card when they see one" and now the question is being asked, "When do we see another real show—trot out your boxers—we had a good taste, now slip us some more—will the next battles be as interesting as the last—how about that fighting chink—when are we to know?"

But one of the real questions asked which will have quite a bearing upon the progress of the game here is, what kind of prices will be charged at the next bout? Are they going to be reasonable and within our purse limits or do we have to take an airplane to gain admission? "If the blue sky is the limit, count me out as I am not making a fortune at my job like I was last year, but I would like to see some good cards at prices within my reach," has been the statements made by many fans and the last day of the boxing tournament should give the promoters a fair idea of about what prices should be charged to secure attendance.

A number of top notchers can be brought here in the future bouts once the game gets on its feet in the proper manner and as Sammy Gordon has spread the news among Portland boxers that this city is a good field where fine treatment is accorded entrants, Klamath Falls has had some good words said for it where words count for something in the boxing world. Babe Blue has advertised the city in letters to boxers in the east and also all the way from Portland south to Los Angeles.

There has been many questions asked regarding Georgie Lee, the fighting Chinaman of Sacramento, and much local interest is shown in having him brought here before the fans matched up with a boy as fast as he is. Frankie Vierra of Sacramento is another fast boy who has made a name down south as the conqueror of the fighting Chink at the California state fair last year. Eddie Gorman of Portland is another lad who the fans have had their attention directed to. Then in the heavier class, Billy Huff of Chiloquin is just itching for another go with some fast boy. Billy is in the pink of condition and states that he is ready to take on whatever match can be made for him.

From the indications today, it is evident that a card will be proposed within a few days to the commission for their approval but a statement comes from the commission to the sport writer that that "the cards must be first class, and there must be no flukes or poor material selected."

LIVESTOCK LOANS FROM $50,000,000 POOL TO START

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Secretary Mellon announces the $50,000,000 banking pool which has been formed to handle livestock loans will be ready to begin making loans this week.

It is understood that all differences have been satisfactorily adjusted and that many applications for loans have been made and will be acted upon during the week. The committee expects to make advances aggregating at least $1,000,000 the first week. Management of the pool will be under direction of M. L. McClure in the Continental & Commercial National bank building.

GAMES WITH SUSANVILLE ARE BREWING

The city league has had another proffer made them for two games by R. C. Watts, of the Susanville, California team. It is suggested one game be played here and the other in Susanville, some time in August.

The challenge was conveyed to Klamath Falls in a telegram sent yesterday to Field Manager Ray Crawford by Watts, reading, "Advise quickly if possible to arrange two games with you, one here and the other in Klamath Falls some time during August," and it is the hope of Crawford, after a conference with the league managers, to answer in the affirmative to the challenge.

It will be remembered by the ball swatters here that R. C. Watts is a former Klamath Falls ball player who was on two highly successful local teams some years ago and one who is a master at the great national pastime. It will be remembered, too, that Watts bore the reputation of being a good sportsman, and plays the game from the standpoint of clean athletics.

Previous to the Fourth of July games here, Watts in company with the manager of the Susanville mills, made a special trip to this city in an endeavor to arrange games between Susanville and Klamath Falls for the celebration but for some reason the plan fell through. Now, the challenge is again conveyed to this city, and knowing what friendly feeling there are existing between Watts and a number of the local baseball men, it is plain that Watts desires to bring a team to this city which will wallop, or try to, "the old home town." Watts is very proud of his aggregation and for the sake of good sport desires to bring his "boys" over and show the locals some "California style baseball."

For the benefit of the local members, (it might be indiscreet to say so, the writer has strong beliefs that Watts and a number of other ex-Klamath Falls players on the Susanville team are pining to visit home folks as a real matter of fact, but wish to disguise the visit behind the term "business to attend to over in Klamath Falls.")

From a statement made by Field Manager Crawford, the homesick folks over in Susanville will very likely have an opportunity to do as they desire and the proposition is being entered into relative to signing up for the two games.

CASE DISMISSED

Yesterday in Justice Gaghena's court, the case of the State of Oregon against Claire Richie, charged with the theft of a 21 jewel Hamilton watch valued at $60, a gold chain and locket valued at $10, a pocket knife and $30 in currency the property of Alfred Mulo was dismissed by the court on the grounds of insufficient evidence.

KENO ITEMS

Swank Bros. are hauling lumber from the mill near Spencer creek and if the weather remains good they will finish the hauling in record time.
Seavers and sons are cutting hay and have a fine stand as a result of irrigation with an electric pump.
F. T. Nelson has completed his alfalfa cutting and is now busy hauling it to his barns. They have a fine crop and it is a good example of sulphur as a fertilizer.
R. W. Tower and sons are busy cutting rye for hay and have one of the best stands in the community.
C. L. Smith and family of the Keno power plant motored to Klamath Falls Sunday and spent the day there.
The fishing in the river below Keno is not so good as in the past seasons owing to the large amount of fish food this year.
The mountain lilies are in blossom and may be found in the hills near Keno.
The Keno folk need no alarm to awake them as the rattle of the loose plank when cars cross the bridge keep them awake all night.

Can Again Send Money to Central Europe by Cable

The Western Union Telegraph company announces that arrangements have been made to resume direct money transfer service to all points in Austria, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Jugo Slavia, Roumania and Bulgaria on July 15. This service will be supplementary to its present direct cable money transfer service to Great Britain, France and other European countries. This rearranged service is on an entirely new basis in that remittances for persons in Austria and the new states formerly comprised in the Austrian Empire as well as for points in Roumania and Bulgaria, be made in United States legal tender, dollars. In other words $100 cabled to, say Vienna or Prague, will be paid at destination in United States currency instead of an equivalent amount of kronen as is usually the case in these countries. It is pointed out that since the payee abroad will receive American funds he will be in a position to convert them into local currency on the most advantageous terms since the banks in those countries will give a more favorable rate of exchange than is available on this side.

In the event of non-payment at destination the amount to be refunded to the sender on this side will be the same as the principal deposited, which is another advantage in the case of a depreciated foreign currency which is dwindling in value.

The Western Union Telegraph company believes that the opening of this new service should be of considerable convenience to people desiring to send money cheaply, quickly, safely and direct to their friends or relatives abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mitchell were in town from their ranch in the Oklahoma country Monday.

MRS. JOHNSON NOW TESTIFIES

FOR YEARS THIS PORTLAND WOMAN DREADED MEALTIME—BUT SHE NOW EATS ANYTHING.

"The first thing Tania did for me was to give me a perfectly wonderful appetite," said Mrs. G. B. Johnson, 442 E. Sherman St., Portland, Oregon.
"For several years I just dreaded for mealtime to come because I suffered so afterward. Everything I ate would sour and gas formed and kept me bloated and miserable for hours. I had sick headaches and neuralgic pains that would start in the back of my neck and go up into the top of my head. I was so nervous I could hardly stand any noise of any kind, and had neuritis in my left wrist so bad I could hardly use that hand at all.
"Well, Tania has changed things right around for me now. I can hardly eat enough to satisfy my appetite and I enjoy every mouthful, for no matter what I eat or how much I never have a touch of indigestion. In fact, I feel as strong and healthy now as I ever did in my life, and Tania is the cause of it."—Adv.
