SOCIETY

The Ladies club of the B. P. O. E., will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in the temple. Hostesses for the occasion will be Mrs. E. D. Lamb and Mrs. Charles Martin.

Miss Ellen McVeigh, who resides on the Merrill road with her mother, Mrs. N. H. Bogue, will be hostess tonight to a large number of her young friends who expect to motor out from town for the evening. Dancing will claim the attention of Miss McVeigh's guests during the evening.

Saturday night Miss Eleanor Torrey entertained a number of the younger set with a dancing party at her home in Hot Springs. Those present were Misses Vera Thompson, Geraldine Watt, Grace Hoagland, Jean Perry, Cornelia Robertson, who is visiting here from Lakeview, Myler Calkins, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Foster, The Messers Wilfred Henry, Walter Weisendanger, Stanley Halk, George Stevenson, Kenneth Perry, Raymond Harland, and Wesley Fraters.

Mrs. George Merryman was hostess Wednesday to the Bridge club, at her home in Hot Springs. The porch was made bright and gay with mixed nasturtiums, the living room with its tasteful furniture was made more attractive with a perfusion of sweetpeas and the dining room, which also shared in the decorations was effective in deep blue canterbury-bells. High score was made by Mrs. Charles I. Roberts. At the close of the day refreshing ices were served by the hostess.

Members present were: Mesdames E. B. Hall, Sarah Gowen, George Wright, Oscar Shive, Charles I. Roberts, G. A. Krause, E. R. Reams, W. O. Smith, and H. N. Moe. Inevitable guests were: Mesdames Jack Elliott, Wm. Immel and A. M. Worden.

Miss Jean Perry was hostess for a number of friends at a small dinner party Friday, at her home on Pine street. Her guests were Misses Geraldine Watt, Eleanor Torrey, Ellen McVeigh and Cornelia Robertson.

One of the charming affairs of the week was the party given by Mrs. Oscar Shive, honoring her mother, Mrs. G. W. White, who is home from an extended stay in Pasadena. Many old friends of Mrs. White enjoyed the afternoon at the close of which dainty refreshments were served. The guests were: Mesdames R. E. Wattenburg, S. E. Martin, Charles Martin, C. M. Ramsby, E. S. Phillips, Loring, K. G. Cummings, Sarah Gowen, W. T. Shive, Charles I. Roberts, William Immel, George Chastain, Jennie Hurn, and the hostess.

On Tuesday Mrs. Jack Elliott entertained the Leisure Hour club at bridge. Her home on Pacific Terrace was beautifully decorated with sweetpeas and roses. Club members who attended were Mesdames Fred Baker, C. Brookins, T. Campbell, Charles Collier, F. B. Dunbar, B. W. Gregory, Thomas Hampton, E. B. Hall, Jackson Kimball, Wm. Ganong, Guy Manning, Henrietta Melhase, H. N. Moe, Jack Slater, Kip Van Riper, M. S. West and Leslie Terwilliger. Mrs. Golden Lincoln was the guest of the club. High score went to Mrs. Moe.

Miss Marie Rambo, Miss Dorothea Martin and Miss Josephine Fink, of Oakland, California, are the guests this week of Miss Martin's grandfather, Tom Martin, at his camp on Recreation creek.

A pleasant week-end party was that enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. George Stephenson, Mrs. Estell Carrier, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Albertson, Miss Mary Pfeuger, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brockebrough, at Klamath Hot Springs.

A birthday party for Zofield Bean was the occasion of a jolly time for nine little Klamath Falls people, Thursday afternoon. Game took up a great part of the afternoon and the remainder was devoted to a near-banquet. Favors with prizes for each little guest were presented at the table. Present were: Lawrence Kelley, Harry Bean, Buddy Bean, Ralph Peyton, Vivian Sheets, Hazel Richardson, Helen Richardson and Billy Thompson.

The benefit concert for the Mt. Laki church will take place tonight. Many of the talented men and women of this city will take part in the program. The opening number will begin at 8:30 o'clock and visitors will be heartily welcomed.

members and guests of the club who were present; and late in the afternoon Mrs. Richardson served a dainty luncheon. Members of the club were: Mesdames R. A. Emmitt, E. Propst, W. P. Johnson, William Steinmetz, O. M. Hector, W. Temple, Rex Renner, R. J. Sheets, George Humphrey, S. Summers and the hostess. Guests on this occasion were Mesdames K. G. Cummings, H. Gallagher, C. P. Mason, L. M. Bean, Fred Garrett, G. Van Riper, Everett Geary and mother, E. McColium and Herbert Savage, of California.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Dresser and son, spent three days at the local camp grounds this week, leaving Wednesday for Crater Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Dresser were residents of Klamath Falls about twelve years ago. While here the Dressers were entertained by Mrs. R. J. Sheets.

Mrs. Basil W. Gregory entertained at bridge yesterday for a number of friends. Her home was decorated with old fashioned bouquets of seasonal flowers, which were effective about the pretty rooms. Those who were at Mrs. Gregory's Friday were: Mesdames E. B. Hall, Earl Whitlock, Fred Schallock, Oscar Shive, Byron Hardenbrook, Golden Lincoln, G. A. Krause, C. M. Brookins, H. N. Moe, T. C. Campbell, L. S. Hansen, and J. C. Brockebrough.

Another charming affair of the week, for bridge lovers, was the party at the home of Mrs. F. U. Patrick the first of the week. The guests were Mesdames Charles Collier, Leslie Terwilliger, H. W. Henderson, E. H. Martin, C. M. Ramsby, C. M. Brookins, Jack Slater, Charles Martin, Charles Moore, J. S. Elliott, H. D. Lloyd Stewart, Fred Dunbar, J. A. Gordon, Golden Lincoln and Mrs. Basil Gregory.
