VALUE OF CLEAN BOXING

(From Sacramento Union) This agitation against boxing by the International Reform Bureau, personified more or less by Dr. Wilbur F. Crafts, does not appear exactly logical.

Crafts affirms that boxing is debauching and demoralizing, that it consists of an assault by one person on another and thus is unlawful. Strange it is that during the war famous pugilists and well-known amateurs appeared throughout the United States on behalf of the Y. M. C. A., the Red Cross and the Salvation Army.

The moral status of a sport does not change over night and furthermore boxing is an exercise tending to develop the most desirable qualities in a youth. Ability to take a stinging right hander on the jaw and still smile; will power to continue a fight when the birdies are beginning to chirp or generosity toward a defeated opponent, are qualities which are invaluable in every activity of life and form the basis of a true chivalry.

That there are pug-nuglies, ruffians and various disreputables connected with the boxing game is admitted. These gentry must be discarded. However, the presence of such individuals no more constitutes an argument for the abolishment of boxing than the membership of an occasional undesirable in the court-house, for instance, justifies condemnation of the entire personnel. Good, clean boxing is a health and character asset of the first degree.

MEMENTO OF GALLANT FIGHT

Herald Washington Bureau WASHINGTON, July 18.—A battered brass speaking trumpet taken from the hand of Captain J. Mayhew Wainwright as he lay dead on the deck of his ship, the U. S. gunboat "Harriett Lane" in Galveston harbor Jan. 1, 1862, has just been presented to Assistant Secretary Wainwright of the war department, descendant and namesake of the gallant officer, by R. C. Duff of Houston, Tex., in whose family it has been preserved as a war relic for half a century.

In recalling to Secretary Wainwright the tale of the old battle, when the Lane, shot pounded by two confederate vessels at short range, surrendered. Mr. Duff told also of another tragic incident on the deck of the battered craft. Captain Wainwright's executive officer, he said, was Lieutenant Lea, whose father, Major A. M. Lea, commanded the confederate force which retook Galveston in the counter attack. Major Lea was first to step aboard the Lane, he said, adding: "It is said that one of the first objects that met his sight was the body of his son, lying on the deck of the Lane mortally wounded. The lieutenant died in the arms of his father a few moments later and the next day he and Captain Wainwright were buried in the same grave, Major Lea conducting the funeral service."

Stockings

Flushing beige is the very newest effect in silk hosiery. No wonder the stockings blush, you say, the way they are exposed to the public gaze. But be that as it may the very latest thing in beige with the faint blush which gives the stockings, when in action, the effect of flesh. Every woman knows that she cannot be well dressed unless her feet are properly shod and stockinged. The black satin sandal pumps and thin black silk hose in the picture are always good form, for afternoon and evening wear.

WEATHER RECORD

Hereafter The Herald will publish the mean and maximum temperatures and precipitation record as taken by the U. S. Reclamation service station. Publication will cover the day previous to the paper's issue, up to 5 o'clock of the day.

NEEDED HELP TO EVEN MOVE

PORTLAND WOMAN WAS DOWN IN BED WITH RHEUMATISM—IS NOW IN PERFECT HEALTH.

"I am now going on sixty-six years of age and for a long time I was hardly able to walk; but by the time I finished my second bottle of Tanlac I was out in my garden hoeing," said Mrs. Jennie Root, 1409 Powers St. Portland, Oregon. "For years I suffered terribly with rheumatism and would often be down in bed for days at a time. In the last five years there was never a time that I didn't feel those rheumatic pains all through my body. About two months ago, however, I got very much worse, and my arms and legs were so bad I was almost helpless and couldn't even hold a pen to sign my name. I had no appetite at all, was so weak I couldn't do any housework, and even to walk a few steps would tire me out completely. I couldn't even sleep, and for a week before I got Tanlac I was so bad off I couldn't move at all without help.

"My son got me to try Tanlac and before I had taken one bottle I hardly felt like the same person and now I feel just fine. Why, I even walked up four flights of stairs in an office building where the elevator was out of order not long ago and stood it fine. The fact is what Tanlac has done for me seems almost a miracle. I have gained fourteen pounds in weight and all my strength has come back to me and those aches and pains have disappeared. I will praise Tanlac as long as I live." Adv.

Half the people in the world are unhappy because they can't afford the things that make the other half miserable.

Can Count Only One Bank Failure

SALEM, Or., July 18.—Although Oregon has had three banks close in recent months, the state really belongs in the same class with six other states that have had but one bank failure each since November 22, 1920, according to a report received by Frank C. Bramwell, state superintendent of banks, from the federal reserve bank at San Francisco.

Mr. Bramwell explains that the closing of the Crook county bank at Prineville was a real failure. The closing of the Bank of Jacksonville is attributed to mismanagement and the First State & Savings bank of Klamath Falls was reopened March 14 last.
