Personal Mention

Judge C. B. Watson, of Ashland is here visiting his daughter, Mrs. Jackson Kimball.

Miss Ada Gromberg, of Berkeley, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. W. F. Jinnette and family of Merrill, returned home this morning.

Miss Emma Blehn was a passenger on the train this morning bound for Mt. Hebron.

Mrs. Truby Smith and children, who have been living here for the past two years, left this morning for Marysville to make their future home.

Mrs. Birdy Blair Paisley and son, George Blair, were passengers on this morning's train on their way to Red Bluff, California.

Fred Morley left this morning for San Francisco on business.

Mrs. S. S. Beggs is a vacation visitor here today from Topeka, Kansas. She is registered at the White Pelican hotel.

E. E. Tfigley of Chicago arrived last night and is registered at the White Pelican hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Scott, Mrs. C. P. McCready, Miss L. Hart, Mrs. A. J. Bryant, and Miss Esther Scott make up a party of tourists stopping here from Sacramento. They are guests at the White Pelican hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beckley are in town this week from their home at Fort Klamath.

F. S. B. Fletcher, who has been operating Eagle Ridge tavern this season, is reported to have given over the management of the resort to Dr. Gaddes, owner of the Eagle Ridge property.

Don Zumwalt, city engineer, who has been in the Macdoel country on business for the past week, returned last night. Mr. Zumwalt was accompanied by Kenneth Perry and Edwin Driscoll, who assisted him with some survey work.

Don Colvig returned home late this afternoon from Medford where he attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Clarence Reams.

Bert C. Thomas, United States commissioner, and Austin F. Fiegel Jr., assistant United States attorney, will leave this afternoon for Williamson river to fish for the next two days.

Willard P. Hawley, Jr. is registered at the White Pelican hotel from Portland.

Jim Thrasher, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Thrasher arrived last night from Sycan marsh where he has been employed for some time.

R. E. Wright and E. M. Chilcote deserted the real estate business long enough this week to get a fine catch of mountain trout in Jennie and Keen creeks.

A. E. Bensinger, an orchardist and farmer in the Swan lake district, was in town yesterday on business. Mr. Bensinger told friends here that the apple crop on his place would be a bumper one this year and that it took a great part of his time thinning his numerous trees, to keep the branches from breaking off.

D. B. Campbell returned to town last night from his summer camp on Spring Creek and reports that so far campers there have not been bothered to any great extent with mosquitoes.

Walter Zetzman of Miller Hill made purchases yesterday from Klamath Falls merchants. The Zetzman ranch boasts a big crop of alfalfa, but the sale price is too low to make it a profitable crop, the rancher intimated. Besides the crop grown by the older Zetzman, the children of the family have a fine garden and are planning several exhibits for the county fair, should there be one.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Ulrich returned last night with their family from Medford where they have spent several days. They were accompanied home by Miss Katherine Linley, who will remain as the house guest of her

The Creator
put the Oil in this world in places which are hard to find and are expensive to get at.

Otherwise it would have all been found before most of us were born.

It takes faith, courage, and perseverance to develop a new oil field. Also money, and a gamblers nerve to risk a small losing against a possible big winning.

"N. C. O." Is No Exception

That's why we are urging everybody to Help Drill a Well

We have plenty of faith and courage and perseverance, and we had a lot of money too; but not enough, and we want a lot of people to share the risk with us, and we will share the profits with them. Send us your check today.
