

The Office Cat

How Time Scoots!

Are you thirty-four years old? If so, you were a year old when the first electric street car got everybody wondering. Now, look at 'em!

An empty wagon's rattle is heard farther than a full one.

Spooning O. K. in K. C.

Kansas City, Mo.—Outdoor spooning was officially recognized as legitimate summer sport today by Chief of Police Edwards. He said police will let love alone.—Assoc. Press Dispatch.

We are getting back to normalcy.

Owing to shortness of ladies' draperies fewer women have been victims of street accidents during the past year than formerly. And in the same period the number of accidents to men has increased. The men have been rendered absentminded by the street scenes, apparently.

"I don't like these photographs at all," he said. "I look like an ape."

The photographer favoured him with a glance of lofty disdain.

"You should have thought of that before you had them taken," was his reply.

A plumber at Pierce City (Mo.) has a sign reading—

"I am in a dirty business but I do clean work."

A Little Surprise

A Mt. Laki farmer wore his old suit until everybody was tired of it, and his estimable wife was ashamed of him. But one day when selling produce, in Klamath Falls he determined to buy a new suit and a happy thought struck him. He would surprise Eliza. So he bundled a new suit into the wagon and hurried toward home and at the bridge he stood up in the wagon and "Peeled Off" the despised old suit and threw it into the river. Then he reached for his new clothes.

They were gone—had jolted out of the wagon.

The night was dark and cold and his teeth chattered as he scurried home.

And he sure did surprise Eliza.

Exception is taken by a Missouri Editor to that clause in life insurance policies which reads: "Do you drink liquor, and if so, to what extent?" He thinks it is irrelevant and impudent. Nobody drinks liquor now. One may imbibe "hootch," but the liquor of other days is practically exhausted.

After an absence of four years a certain man came back to Klamath Falls his old home town. The first four people he met didn't remember him and the next three didn't know he had been away.

Sign At Anderson's Groceries

"Boy wanted to Work partly inside and partly out."

Tuffy Anderson gazed at the sign and muttered—"What if somebody'd slam the door while he was at work? Huh? Not me, the risk is too great."

"It," says a press agent—referring to what might be a four column story but most likely won't—"is not a publicity story, but a frank, straight-forward statement of facts and figures." Emphasis on the word frank.

"Did you ever," he goes on to ask, "consider the vast number of people the motion picture reaches?" "No, we haven't, but judging by the number of m. p. press agents who keep the janitorial staff busy dumping waste baskets there must be quite a goodly number.

Saw a lovely red mosquito yesterday evening. Had just come, (that is the mosquito had come) from the cheek of a 14-year-old girl.

He's Ours, Too!

"Who's your favorite artist," asked Arthur Collins.

"The guy that designs the $100 bills," replied Fred English.

Former President Taft is big enough for the supreme bench. It takes a whole seat to hold him on a trolley car.

MEXICO PLANS FOR STUDY IN U. S. COLLEGES

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 28.—Exchange of students between universities in Mexico and the United States, a plan fostered by business and educational workers in both countries, is being encouraged and recommended by President Obregon as a means of bringing about a better understanding between the two nations, according to advices received here.

In a communication from the Mexican president to Nelson O. Rhoades of Los Angeles, member of the committee having the plan in charge, it is said 150 offers from American universities to Mexican scholars have been received, that many of the opportunities already have been accepted, and that the young Mexicans have been sent to this country to study.

Recognizing the value of complete reciprocity, however, and the advantage of familiarizing the United States' representatives with Mexico, the Mexican President has asked that twelve professors from American universities visit Mexico to study archeology, Spanish, geology, Mexican history and other subjects. The visitors are to have their fare paid by the Mexican government and to receive the sum of 2000 pesos annually.

"The Mexican government," the letter adds, "will authorize these privileges in exchange for the scholarships which the United States will give to our students. We will work in complete harmony with the committee that has been formed in furtherance of the exchange plan."

The movement was set on foot by the American Chamber of Commerce in Mexico, and has been placed before the National Foreign trade convention and other commercial organizations in the United States, besides the universities. The executive secretary of the movement in Mexico is O. R. W. Cook, formerly of Los Angeles, a graduate of the University of Southern California.

Your rifle's life is measured by the priming in the cartridges

Every shot has some effect on the barrel. If you use a cartridge with an ordinary priming, the fouling attracts rust and digs little pits in the surface of the barrel. Coarse priming will scratch and wear the barrel.

These destroy accuracy, make the rifle hard to clean and keep clean, and eventually "wear out" the bore.

The U. S. Cartridge Company has developed a priming for cartridges which minimizes the effect on the barrel. This priming is in the famous N. R. A. 22s and all U S Rim-Fires. A rifle lasts longer at the time when it is most valuable—that is, when you have had it long enough to know it and regard it with real affection.

Be good to your rifle. Use only U S Cartridges. We sell them in all popular styles and sizes. Money back if not satisfied.
