The Office Cat

Mary had a little lamb Which drank a case of beer; And every time that Mary talked, That lamb seemed very queer.

Because of that the little lamb Her father shot it dead; Now Mary takes her lamb to school Between two hunks of bread.

The things you intend to do whenever you happen to have time will never help you very much along the road to success.

Nobody wants to go to the dentist when the tooth isn't aching, or make repairs ahead of he need. It is this faculty for procrastination and evasion that enables the human race to get what little pleasure it does out of life.

A Hot Shot From Dorris Dear Office Cat Editor:

"When it becomes necessary in the course of human events to import your liquor from points afar off and your grip reposeth in the car aisle, dream not of toothsome toddles on bot mornings nor of cooling cocktails in mid-afternoon, for verily thou mayest lose it at the next way station; yea, at the next glind siding.

"Should officer enter, claim it not and thou shalt be 'carried on' claim it and thou shallt be 'taken on' claim ried on' with it. Lo! and behold a new day hath dawned, the day of search and seizure—the blanket warrent rompeth over the rights of the citizen and the constitution becometh a scrap of paper. Yell and shout loudly, 'Verily doth prohibition prohibit,' but the moon still shines behind the cow shed and the kitchen stove burnoth brightly.

"Make your liquor with gas and get up an hour earlier.

Specify Style for Teacher's Clothing

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 1 .-- The trustees of one of the school districts of Santa Clara county want a teacher. They have written to the State Board of Education, but she must be willing to "dress suitable Klamath Falls Plumbfor a country school."

The letter, which was received by Dr. Margaret S. McNaught, state

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 .- The right of the federal government to impose restrictions with respect to the profits which wool dealers might make on wool handled by them in 1918, when the government took over the year's clip, has been definitely settled in favor of the government by Judge Sessions in the United States district court for the Western district of Michigan, at Grand Rapids, The defendant's motion to dismiss the government's case was denied.

While this did not involve a large amount, the principle at issue is of great importance in view of many cases yet to be prosecuted by the government, some of them involving large sums of excess profits.

To aid in the prosecution of the war the government, in the spring of 1918, took over the wool clip of the season. To make this purpose effec tive, regulations were issued by the wool division of the war industries board, requiring dealers who wished to handle wool to obtain permits or licenses. When the war industries board was disbanded this work was transferred to the department of agri-

Profits are Limited

These licenses were, in effect, contracts between the dealers and the government. The regulations also limited definitely the profits which wool dealers might make on all domestic wool handled by them. In the case of country dealers or buyers, such as the one decided by Judge Sessions, this profit was limited to 1 % cents a pound, the whole object being to prevent speculation and to stabilize the wool market at a time when it was important to the success of the war that America's army and navy be assured proper clothing.

All except about sixty wool dealers have voluntarily paid over to the government any excess profits made. Among those who did not pay was the defendant in the above case.

Judge Sessions declares in his decision, that in time of war, broad powers are conferred upon the presi; dent both by the constitution and by standing statutory enactments of congress, but the president's powers were not necessarily involved.

Powers Are Upheld

The power of congress to authorize the action of the war industries board the court said, could not be doubted. With the power conferred upon it by congress this governmental agency had entered into a contract with the defendant, and the defendant, the court held, was in no position to challenge the right of the congressional branch of the government to approve and affirm that contract.

Congress, the court declared, had approved and affirmed contracts of "I never give to missions," whis- this kind made by the board through its officers. If the contract was valid "Then take something out of the in behalf of the government, then the tray" whispered the collector, the government certainly had a right to bring suit in its own courts to enforce its terms.

> sets forth the trustees' requirements "Would like a teacher that thus: will dress suitable for a country school with some clothes below the knees and some above the waist and below the elbows."
