

CARPENTERS! CONTRACTORS! BUILDERS!

and all persons contemplating building or construction work should be interested in this table of

Comparative Building Costs

ITEM	Price April, 1920	Price June, 1921	Price Today
2x4 Common	$ 50.00 per 1,000	$ 35.00 per 1,000	$ 29.00 per 1,000
1x12	53.00 per 1,000	37.00 per 1,000	31.00 per 1,000
Douglas Fir Timbers	63.00 per 1,000	42.00 per 1,000	35.00 per 1,000
Shiplap	57.00 per 1,000	40.00 per 1,000	30.00 per 1,000
Pine Lath	25.00 per 1,000	10.00 per 1,000	8.00 per 1,000
Cedar Shingles	9.00 per 1,000	5.00 per 1,000	4.25 per 1,000
Clear Finish and Trim	130.00 per 1,000	110.00 per 1,000	60.00 per 1,000
No. 2 V. G. Flooring	115.00 per 1,000	80.00 per 1,000	65.00 per 1,000
Clear Ceiling	110.00 per 1,000	65.00 per 1,000	45.00 per 1,000
Clear Rustic	110.00 per 1,000	65.00 per 1,000	45.00 per 1,000
2"x6" Panel Door	5.25 each	4.20 each	3.50 each
2"x6" One Light Door	7.45 each	6.00 each	5.00 each
24x28 Windows	4.25 each	3.50 each	3.00 each
Amiwood Well Board	.6 1/2 per foot	.05 per foot	.04 per foot
Maple Flooring	325.00 per 1,000	225.00 per 1,000	150.00 per 1,000
Hardwood Finish	.75 per foot	.60 per foot	.50 per foot
Quarter Round	1.25 per 100 feet	1.00 per 100 feet	.75 per 100 feet
3-Ply Certainteed Roofing	4.50 per roll	4.00 per roll	3.25 per roll
1-Ply Guard Roofing	3.00 per roll	2.50 per roll	1.75 per roll

LAKESIDE LUMBER CO.

Personal Mention

A. F. Glover, of the Glover jewelry store, has made an addition to Main street in front of his place of business by the erection of a big electric clock that can be seen from either side for several blocks down the street.

Clyde Fox, of the Klamath Cash grocery, suffered a sprained ankle that will confine him to his home for several days, while on a picnic at Rock creek Sunday.

Charles Drew who operates a ranch near the Lost River dam, was a county seat visitor yesterday on business.

W. E. Lamm is a business visitor here today from his mill at Modoc Point.

J. Ross left yesterday for Medford where he will spend several days attending to business affairs.

W. C. Esell was a county seat visitor yesterday afternoon from his ranch on the Merrill road.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Linsey are visiting here this week from their home at Fort Klamath. They report that the hay crop is somewhat later in the Fort country than in the Klamath valley.

Mrs. Arthur Frazier came into town yesterday from Merrill on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hanks accompanied by their daughters, Eva and Fern, left yesterday for a camping trip to Spring creek.

Mrs. George Palmer and daughter, Viola, are city visitors from Pine Ridge.

Miss Frances Beatty left for Crater lake this morning where she will visit for some time.

Miss Elizabeth Lanskey, Miss E. Harvey and Miss Jarrett, nurses left yesterday for Kirk to join Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Hamilton and go on to Union creek for a two weeks outing.

Miss Petra Ludwig trained nurse, arrived the first of the week from San Francisco and will take a position here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Otto were in town yesterday from their ranch on the Merrill road to purchase supplies.

Mr. Voss of the Highway garage at Malis, was in town yesterday after a tractor for the Bryant Mountain Sawmill company.

G. W. White accompanied by Mrs. White left in their car this morning for Marshfield where they will visit for several weeks with their son, Dr. White, before going to California for the winter.

L. W. Hardin, who recently sold his home at Fifth and Grant streets, has accepted a position as foreman of the Klamath Packing company's ranch number 1.

Tom Newton was down from his sheep camp at Cherry creek yesterday attending to business matters.

Walter G. West, Klamath Indian agent, and R. H. Radcliff, forestry supervisor for the reservation are both business visitors here today from the Agency.

Bill Skeen is here from Chiloquin for a few days on business.

Mrs. S. E. Icenbice was in town shopping yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pelton and Mrs. Pelton's niece, the Misses Orth of Medford are in town for the day from the Pelton ranch near Fort Klamath.

Dan Ryan was a business visitor here today from Fort Klamath.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collier returned last night from a week's vacation trip to Eugene.

Henry Schmor, a prosperous farmer of the Dairy country was transacting business with the banks this morning.

J. B. Mitchell is in town from his cattle ranch in the Bly country today attending to business affairs.

F. C. High returned to Dorris this morning after several days spent in town.

Dr. W. R. Boyd and Dr. L. D. Gass returned last night from three days of successful fishing north of here.

J. S. Walsh, who has been suffering from a severe attack of typhoid fever was out yesterday for the first time in weeks.

Sheriff Lloyd Low is at Fort Klamath today on business.

L. F. Geertson a rancher south of here, was in the county seat yesterday afternoon.

Major L. S. Hopfield, special agent for the Pacific States Fire Insurance company, accompanied by W. A. Williams, president of the Williams Investment and loan company, is here today. The two Portlanders are combining pleasure with business having come from Medford to Crater lake and then on down here.

Mr. Hopfield is not a stranger in Klamath Falls and he numbers many of the city's business men among his acquaintances.

C. D. Plum, who is connected with the Cotton-Peppers lumber company is in town for a few days on business.

Jimmie Bodenhammer, who made his home in Klamath Falls about six years ago, is back again, this time from Sacramento, with the intention, perhaps, of settling here again.

Mrs. A. S. Davis who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Joe Albutt, left this morning for her home in California.

D. B. Campbell is in town from his summer camp on Spring creek.

The Misses Ruth and Hazel Chapin of York, Nebraska, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Percy Burke for a couple of weeks. They are delighted with the scenery of Klamath county, which they say excels any they have seen in extensive travels through the west.

W. C. Thompson is a county seat visitor today from Chiloquin.

Mrs. C. H. Howe is in town on business this week from Rocky point.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Goddard are city visitors from Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Thornton, Mrs. George Wharton and Carl Steinmetz are here for a few days enroute to Crater lake. They are the guests of G. V. Wimberly.

A. W. Mackin was in town yesterday on business from his ranch in the Malin country.

Henry Seimon was a county seat visitor today from Stukle bridge.

NO REGULAR MEETINGS FOR BAPTIST WOMEN THIS MONTH

No regular meetings will be held by the Women's Missionary society of Emmanuel Baptist church in August, which is the last month of the vacation period. Beginning September 1st the regular work will be resumed. Mrs. J. H. Dickson will be the leader for September and Mrs. R. H. Bunnell, Merrill road, will be hostess. Missions will be the study for the remainder of the year and the work will be White Cross aid in the Baptist hospitals.

If a man could read his own biography, it would surprise him more than anybody else.

If you have a dollar to spare

HELP DRILL A WELL

BUY N. C. O.

If you believe there is Oil in Klamath

HELP DRILL A WELL

BUY N. C. O.

If you want to "cash in" when Oil is struck

Help Drill a Well

BUY N. C. O.

If you feel lucky and want to gamble

HELP DRILL A WELL

BUY N. C. O.

MAIL US A CHECK TODAY

Northern Cal. Oil Co., Klamath Falls Ore.

Enclosed check $_____ for which please reserve for me _____ shares N. C. O. Stock at $1.00 per share, for which I agree to subscribe upon receipt of subscription blank.

Name

Address

Date

Phone 577-J
or call at 532
Main St.