DESERTED POET FOR EARL Shakespeare's Lady Love Missed the Opportunity of Sharing in His Fame.

Shakespeare, writer of a hundred romances, had but one in his life, and that was an unhappy one. It was with a certain Mary Fitton, a lady in waiting to Queen Elizabeth, who, according to all accounts, must have been a most unworthy young minx. She was beautiful enough, with large black eyes and a wealth of black hair that framed a face of healthy pallor, and gave excuse for Shakespeare's reference to her as the "dark lady."

Shakespeare loved her with all his heart, and she returned his love for a little space, and then became attracted to the earl of Pembroke. Shakespeare's dearest friend and patron. Probably because she feared what the poet might say, she proceeded to lure him away from Shakespeare and the young writer sunk in gloom and despair. This was about the year 1601, and his sonnets written between 1598 and that date tell the story clear enough. However, lovers of the bard may have the satisfaction of knowing that the earl and the lady were caught in their amour, and she was dismissed from the court, while the earl was sent to the Tower of London. She was the daughter of Sir Edward Fitton, and at the time of her affair with the dramatist was 20 years old. She afterward married a mere army captain, and history promptly lost sight of her.

Local Theater Men Will Have Model House at Dorris

George Humphrey, ex-sheriff of this county has returned from Dorris, where he has been superintending the construction of the new Star theatre for F. S. Terwilliger and F. U. Patrick of this city.

Mr. Humphrey stated that between $10,000 and $12,000 was being expended on the old "Rose Marie" opera house to make it a model up-to-date combination motion picture and playhouse. The seating capacity under the new arrangement will be between 600 and 700 people and all the latest novelties to make this theatre "up to the minute" were being used. The lessees, Terwilliger and Patrick, will name it, "The Star" and it is expected to be ready for occupancy by August 15.

Perhaps, after all, a man isn't to blame if he thinks more of his stenographer than he does his wife; he can dictate to his stenographer.

Advertising pays. Try it and see.

AN INVESTMENT

I have several blocks of lots surrounding the Malin high school that I will sell for business and residential purposes, thus offering to the people of Klamath county an opportunity to make a real investment. I will sell these lots for $75 and up, on the installment plan, the terms to suit the purchaser. No interest will be charged and I will pay the taxes until deed is delivered to buyer.

Malin is situated in the center of one of the richest districts in the world. It is backed by progressive and conservative citizens. It has a future that assures development to a degree that will make this property worth many times the price I am selling it for. When oil is discovered, Malin will be found to be in the very heart of the field and the biggest producers will be at its door.

If you are looking for something that will pay you big returns, you can make no mistake in buying Malin property. For further information, write or see
