COAST ROADS IN FAIR CONDITION

Road conditions in Coos and Curry counties are now in better condition than they have been at any time this season. The most interesting trip offered for Sunday auto travelers is out the middle fork road from Myrtle Point to Roseburg.

The road from Coquille to Bandon is open. The Coos Bay wagon road is now in very fair shape for those who want to come in from Roseburg but more repairs are to be made during the summer.

The route from Drain to Allegany is rough in some places but is a fairly trip and is attracting quite a number from the outside, and many of those going from here to the interior.

The Seven Devils road from Coos Bay to Bandon is in about as good shape as it will be this season and better than later when the dust will be deeper. It takes about the same length of time to go by way of Coquille and the river road.

The road from Glasgow to Lake-side is in good condition and is used by the jitney stage. Roads to the beaches are in fairly good shape—Coos Bay Times.

A VICIOUS RED ROOSTER BELONGING TO ADRIAN SACKETT BROKE UP THE MEETING OF THE LADIES' THIMBLE CLUB THIS AFTERNOON.

SOCIETY

With society events at a premium in the city this past week it was quite the contrary at Diamond lake, 110 miles from here, and far from all sign of civilization. The first bridge party in the history of that famous outing place was held by Mrs. E. B. Hall and Mrs. Fred Schallcock. Sardines, cantalopes and like fare were served as refreshments, each lady guest brought her own camp stool and table linen was nothing more pretentious than old newspapers. Those present were: Mesdames Leslie Rogers, Charles Martin, Mabel Anderson, Charles Moore, L. G. Van Bellen, and Golden Lincoln and G. A. Massey.

Mrs. Charles Martin was hostess to the same ladies at another bridge party upon another day and Mrs. Leslie Rogers entertained with a most delightful tea the day before she left with her family for home. Some of the ladies attended in Hawaiian costumes. Stuffed eggs, cookies and sandwiches and tea were served throughout the afternoon by the hostess.

Miss Katherine Ulrich entertained with a dancing party honoring her cousin, Miss Katherine Linley of Medford who is her house guest this summer, on Monday at the home of her parents on Conger avenue. Ices were served during the evening to those present, who were: Misses Frances McLain, Marjan Wortley, Elizabeth Manning, Lena and Letha Miller and Rebecca Humphrey and Masters James Manning, Buford Hargus, Frank Peyton, Leslie Peyton, Jack Stout, of Tucson, Arizona, Harold Wortley, John Kuykendall and Charles Grove.

Mrs. George C. Ulrich, Mrs. Martin Green, Mrs. L. M. Martin, Misses Katherine Ulrich, Katherine Linley and Elizabeth Manning made up a party of picnickers who spent Wednesday afternoon and part of the evening at Lost river dam where swimming was indulged in and a delightful luncheon served.

Picnics were the fashion this past week and one of the happiest of them was that given by the Graduate Nurses club as a farewell for Mrs. M. A. Callaghan, who left this week for Ashland. The party was held above the Link river dam site and after the supper was served the nurses and their guests returned to town and spent the remainder of the evening dancing at the home of Mrs. Callaghan.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Burke were hosts Thursday evening at a picnic on Spencer Creek. They took their guests to the creek in cars, where a big bon fire was made and well-ies were toasted in the coals. Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Burke, Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Burke, Miss Mary Pfeuger, Misses Ruth and Hazel Chapin, of York, Nebraska, who are here as the guests of Mrs. Percy Burke, and Oliver Williams. Sunday the same party with the addition of Mr. and Mrs. L. Hoagland, to the personnel will make a trip to Crater lake.

The younger social set of the city is looking forward with pleasure to the dance to be given at Dreamland pavilion next Thursday by Lodge 1277 of the B. P. O. E. The open air dance given there last week was so successful that it acted as an incentive to the lodge to again give a dance in the open air in preference to one in the ball room of the temple.

The nearing departure of Miss Waive Drew, Miss Anna May Johnston and Miss Jennie Johnston for the Hawaiian Islands to accept positions as teachers, has been the inspiration for several parties in their honor. Miss Eva Hanks and Miss Esther McAndrews entertained at the McAndrews home on High street Thursday evening for the three girls. The guests on this occasion were: Misses Nellie McAndrews, Florence Porter, Bernadine Hannon, Waive Drew, Anna May and Jennie Johnston, Fern Hanks and Esther McAndrews, Messrs C. F. Porter, J. Bell, D. N. Clemens, Charles Patterson, Edward Sha, Kenneth Puckett, Theodore Case, Lloyd Porter and Frank Mills. Yesterday afternoon P. E. O. Fraternity entertained for Miss Drew and the Misses Johnstons at Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck's home. Friday evening the Kedron club gave a party for them at Mrs. Phillip's home.

Society folk have done far less this week than at any time this season. The big event was the college dance sponsored by several of the University of Oregon students who are spending their vacation days in Klamath Falls. The dance was held Friday night in the Moose hall and was a most successful affair. Besides the college people who were there a number of invitations were sent out to people interested in higher education.

Several interesting features were arranged by the committee in charge to liven up the party. As the dance Friday was only the first of a series of dances to be given by the younger college group they are looking forward to much future entertainment of like nature.

Miss Marie Rambo, before her departure Wednesday for Medford, was hostess Tuesday evening at a dinner

Those present were: Mrs. S. E. Martin, Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. H. W. Bridgford, Miss Geraldine Watt and Miss Cutting.

At the Theaters

THE STAR The long-heralded production, 'Peck's Bad Boy,' with lovable little Jackie Googan in the stellar role, will be the feature offering at the Star on Sunday and Monday. As the mischievous lad who makes a lot of trouble for his 'Pa' and sets a whole town 'by the ears,' Jackie Googan is said to give an even more delightful and amusing impersonation than that which brought him fame and fortune in Chaplin's 'The Kid.' 'Peck's Bad Boy' is an adaptation of the works of the late Governor George Peck. The subtitles were written by that inimitable humorist, Irvin S. Cobb.

THE STRAND

Charles Ray will appear at the Strand theater Sunday in the widely heralded Triangle play, 'Sudden Jim,' a picturization of the Saturday Evening Post story by Clarence Budington Kelland, which is now the fifth best seller on the fiction market.

Ray is said not only to act 'Sudden Jim,' but to be himself a counterpart of the square-jawed, determined young fighter who takes over a clothes pin factory in 'a town of about a dozen people and five hundred folks.'
