OIL FLOW IS DISCOVERED IN EUREKA FIELD

EUREKA, Cal., Aug. 6.—F. M. Reynolds, president of the Northern Counties Oil company, has announced that an oil well has been brought in south of Eureka in what is known as the Mattole fields.

The flow was struck, he claims, at a depth of 2000 feet, but all work has ceased until storage facilities can be provided and a control cap secured so that the flow can be stopped during the course of further drilling.

Reynolds stated that when the flow was first struck thirty-five gallons of oil were taken from the sand in two hours and that the last several shells penetrated showed increasing signs of oil.

Considerable excitement was manifested in Klamath Falls yesterday afternoon over reports that a gusher had been struck in the Eureka field. The Eureka oil find was the topic of conversation in many different circles.

Workers of various classes were planning to rush to the new oil fields, embryo business men saw possibilities of developing new industries there, and local oil men took a deep interest because, while drilling has been underway in Humboldt county for a number of years, the indications of an oil strike were no different than in the Klamath fields.

While the press dispatches explode the gusher rumor, they indicate the presence of oil in sufficient quantity to encourage hope that a paying new field has been discovered.

NAPA, Cal., Aug. 6.—W. B. Griffiths, former assemblyman and realty dealer of Napa, announces oil has been found in the southwestern part of Berryessa valley, this county. He states that oil can be pumped out of two tunnels and that in one shaft, at a depth of 22 feet, oil and gas spurted up through a drill hole at the rate of five gallons every 15 minutes.

In this same shaft, Griffiths also states, paraffine oil can be baled out by the barrel.

Forgotten Check for $100 Got Abraham Charley in Trouble

An overdrawn account, due to losing sight of a $100 check, was responsible for the grand jury indictment against Abraham Charley for issuing a check without sufficient funds. The charge has been dismissed by the circuit court and Charley wants the public to know that he had no intent to defraud.

Charley checked against $1000 until it was too nearly exhausted to pay a $28.95 check given the Mallors garage. Having forgotten the $100 check he thought he had still funds to pay the garage check.

He explained the circumstances to the district attorney, he says, and the officer told him to straighten the matter out with the garage man. He did so and was surprised later to find he had been indicted by the grand jury.

In moving for a dismissal of the case the district attorney told the court he had investigated the details, including the defendant's account at the bank, and was satisfied that the defendant had drawn the check under honest misapprehension as to the amount of his balance in the bank.

Four children won a month's free admission to the theatre for bringing the largest spuds. They are Hazel Stansby, Gertrude Don Bethelsdorf, N. A. Hilton, and Margaret E. Felson.

ST. CLOUD DANCE TONIGHT

A large crowd of dancers will attend the dance at St. Cloud near Shippington tonight, said Ray Moore, who drives for the Central Auto service. The dance is away from the city in a nice quiet place and the cost is so small about 50 cents to dance all night long. If the dancers care to, I know lots who are going because the Central Auto Service is making a very low rate to haul people out there, so will the rest of the jitney drivers. Klamath Falls people had better go where there is high class band music to dance to.—Adv.

WHAT THE GOVERNMENT IS DOING FOR YOU

We are all proud of our country. Yet most of us know comparatively little of the activities of our government and what they mean to us. That is why we have secured the exclusive right to distribute locally a series of attractively illustrated folders and booklets containing most interesting accounts of the work of our various governmental departments. Send us your name and address and we will gladly send you one of these articles each month with our compliments. There is no obligation entailed.

SOME FACTS ABOUT OUR GOVERNMENT

LOCAL FINANCIAL INSTITUTION TO DISTRIBUTE INTERESTING INFORMATION

Not for years has there been such evident unrest as exists in the world today. Even the casual reader of the daily newspaper sees that the world is sick and needs a doctor. The way to social health is through an awakened interest in the affairs of our government and an increased feeling of our responsibility in its welfare and administration. Not until we understand the magnitude and efficiency of the United States government do we feel the respect for it and the pride in participating in it that it deserves.

At the present moment, in spite of all our unrest, the United States is the most favored of the world's nations. We have enjoyed a century and a half of the "government of the people, for the people, by the people." It is not perfect, but it is the strongest, most substantial and most efficient government in the world today.

The First National bank is contemplating the free distribution among its friends and patrons of a series of highly illustrated articles on the government of the United States. The articles, although written in popular form, will be of real educational value. They are to be mailed directly to the homes of this community without charge. This plan is in keeping with the new idea that every progressive financial institution owes a broader service to its community.

The modern bank is no longer only a place where money is deposited at one window and drawn at another. It is rather a center of constructive and helpful information to which any one may bring his financial problems with some confidence of finding a solution for them.

These stories are designed to show the benefits that each of us derives from the service of the government. They have been brought up to the minute, and however well informed the reader may be, he is sure to find something new in them. They have a particular appeal to new citizens, foreigners and school children, as well as furnishing interesting and instructive reading to practically everyone. The community is sure to benefit from this distribution and every home should have a complete set. Never before have Americans taken such an intense interest in their government. The extension of income taxes and the widespread purchase of liberty bonds have made us all financial partners in its welfare. We all want to know more about it, and we have a right to know. That is why the publication of this material comes at precisely the right moment and why it may be expected to be so welcome. This public interest in governmental affairs is a healthy and natural interest. It will lead to increased knowledge, a more intelligent understanding and a long, strong stride ahead. This community is to be congratulated on the foresight and enterprise that brings this material within the reach of everyone. It is the desire of this institution to make this distribution as wide as possible. Some, however, are sure to be overlooked, and as the supply of articles is necessarily limited, it is suggested that everyone who wishes to receive them call at the bank and leave their names for inclusion in the mailing list. It has been anticipated that many will wish to keep each number of the series of governmental articles as received, as each will deal with a different department of the government. For this purpose there is available a limited number of beautiful containers, one of which can be obtained by any person desiring it by calling during business hours for it.

LIVESTOCK LOANS IN SIGHT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—Senator Stanfield is hopeful that the livestock interests of the west will be amply financed on long time loans by the $50,000,000 bankers' pool which is beginning to function and by the operators of the war finance corporation and the new livestock finance corporation which is provided in the amended bill passed by the senate. The difficulty is not a question of collateral but one of long time loans, declares Senator Stanfield. With conditions as they are livestock men cannot give three months' and six months' paper and guarantee to meet it at maturity.
