

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUM

Poem

Forty-year-old Maizie Blocks Went nutty and cut off her locks Then she took off her skirt And shortened her skirt And rolled down her forty-cent socks

There may be arguments about what is the greatest word in the English language, but Geo. Ulrich says for a phrase, you can't beat "Enclosed find check."

Not the Name

"No, no, you mustn't kiss me," she said, as he drew her close to him. "Mother objects to kissing."
"Well, dear, I'm not going to kiss her."

To See Kessler

Fred Baker said yesterday men's collars were being cut lower in accordance with the shortening of women's skirts—to give plenty of freedom to the neck.

Guilty

A youth once loved a modern miss; well versed in law was she;
She charged him when he stole a kiss, with petit larceny.
A moment he was quite abashed and then he squeezed her hand "You're wrong, quite wrong, dear," he replied, "Not petit. That was grand."

Good evening! Have you a little mosquito in your home?

Easy

"My dear," said the eminent surgeon's wife, "I shall need a new fur coat this year."
"All right," said the great man, "I'll look over my list and find some one who can afford an operation for appendicitis."

The same energy used to get even with somebody, properly applied, would put you where you wouldn't care.

Dolly Varden II complains to the health hater of a Gotham paper that her "Feet hurt from the ankles down" whenever she goes to a dance. Helping her mother wash the dishes and scrub the kitchen floor occasionally might prove helpful.

Poem

Alas, for poor Bonnie S. Lee, Who lighted a match just to see Where the gas pipe was leaking.
When his wife began shrieking "Oh, bring back my Bonnie to me!"

The Wapanucka World has dug up another reason for staying at home with a headache Sunday morning. A big rattlesnake has been killed right bang up against the Methodist church in that town.—Mc-Alester (Okla.) Guardian.

What He Understood

Lawyer—"So you want a divorce from your wife. Aren't your relations pleasant?" Client—"Mine are, but here's are most unpleasant lot I ever met."

Contrary Minded

"The men are always legislating against peekaboo waists and short skirts, yet the women keep on wearing them."
"I guess the men know their business."

FEWER STREET ORGANS
NEW YORK Aug 10.—Thirty years ago there were so many street pianos and hurdy-gurdies in New York that a thrifty Italian found it profitable to convert a saloon on a side street near Brooklyn bridge, into an organ "garage."

But the lure of the street pianos has largely lost its potency for the girls and boys who once danced gaily to the strains of "east side, west side, all around the town." Now most of the garage is occupied at night by push carts. The rental is $1.50 a month.

is his razor.

Hot Water Each Morning
Puts Roses in Your Cheeks

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.
If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleaning, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.
Girls and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.
A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.
Women who desire to enhance the beauty of their complexion should just try this for a week and notice results.
