HONORS FOR THE ASHLAND ELKS

The thriving city of Ashland will receive the surprise of its existence tomorrow when the Ashland Elks baseball team and rooters arrive here for a social ball game and friendly visit. At least all the delegation which phoned Manager Tom Watters that they were coming will be the ones who will be given something to remember in the way of Elk treatment and Klamath Falls spirit.

A telephone message received at noon today from Ashland stated that a "herd of Elks" were bound for this city to take it by storm and, as that was the plan of Ashland, the local Elks planned a counter-attack. Klamath Falls will be Ashland's host, and that bunch can run this—and get the greatest "kick" possible out of the visit.

Delegations from the Elk lodge will meet the Ashland visitors when they arrive and will escort them to the clubrooms where they can refresh themselves and prepare for the afternoon.

The Klamath Falls Military band has been engaged to play the most stirring tunes in its repertoire for the visitors and at 2 o'clock, a parade will be formed in front of the Elks club, headed by the band and from there, the march to the ball grounds will be made. At the grounds Mayor W. S. Wiley will deliver an address of welcome to the visitors and the "slaughter of the tender herd from Ashland completed on the diamond" by the bull Elks of Klamath Falls.

The Elks are extending a general invitation to the citizens and lodges of this city to join in the parade and show what Klamath Falls really can do in the way of hospitality.

Cheer Leader W. H. A. Renner will act as grand marshal of the parade and will lead the locals in the cheers for the Klamath Falls team at the ball grounds. Tomorrow promises to be a "peppy day" here.

LONDON PAPERS SAY GENERAL AMNESTY ASKED

LONDON, Aug. 13—Some newspapers here take a serious view of De Valera's reply to Lloyd George, saying he demanded amnesty for all Irish republicans imprisoned or interned, about 60,000, as a condition for further negotiations. It is also said he asked monetary indemnity for losses occasioned by warfare, estimated at several million pounds.

Davis at Lunch

Jim Davis, secretary of labor, has a little fruit and that's all for his lunch. He gets it at a street fruit stand near his office.

More Than Sixty Kiddies Entertained

More than three score of youngsters were on hand for the story hour at the city library this morning at 10 o'clock. Mrs. D. M. Smith told stories to the older ones, while Miss Margaret entertained the children of the first, second and third grades in the park.

All appeared to thoroughly enjoy themselves and they were all invited to return next Saturday morning at 10, when another entertaining hour will be in store for them. The story hour is open to all children and adults as well pre-welcome.
