SHE DREADED TO SEE NIGHT COME

MISS MAUDE WILKINS OF PORTLAND SAYS LIFE WAS A BURDEN. NOW LIKE DIFFERENT PERSON.

"I'm only on my second bottle of Tanlac, but the relief I have already received has been so wonderful I want to let everybody who suffers like I did know about this good medicine," said Miss Maude Wilkins, 1016 Glenn Ave., Portland, Ore.

"For years I didn't eat a meal without suffering agonies afterwards, and at times I had awful spells of nausea and was unable to retain even a glass of water on my stomach. I had raging headaches nearly every day and often such blinding spells of dizziness that I would have to grab hold of something to steady myself. I used to dread to see night come as I knew it meant hours of restlessness for me, and I was so worried and miserable the best of all medicines" just a burden.

"I'm just like a different person now, though Tanlac has benefitted me in every way. My appetite is ravenous and I never have a touch of indigestion. In fact my health now seems to be perfect, but I'm going to take a little more Tanlac just to be sure that my recovery is complete. Tanlac is certainly 50 per cent under the 1920 price. Tanlac is sold by druggists everywhere.—Adv.

THE STRAND

The historical events of 1836, when Texas won her fight for independence from the yoke of Santa Anna, then dictator of Mexico, furnish the inspiration for "Martyrs of the Alamo," supervised by D. W. Griffith, which will be shown Tuesday and Wednesday at the Strand. In producing this spectacle the director has taken a leaf from Thomas A. Edison's book and has set out to "teach more history in 15 minutes with a motion picture than teachers and text-books can drill into scholars in a month."

Famous pioneers of the Alamo days are reproduced with fidelity. The story of the slaughter which where.—Adv.

AN INVESTMENT

I have several blocks of lots surrounding the Malin high school that I will sell for business and residential purposes, thus offering to the people of Klamath county an opportunity to make a real investment. I will sell these lots for $75 and up, on the installment plan, the terms to suit the purchaser. No interest will be charged and I will pay the taxes until deed is delivered to buyer.

Malin is situated in the center of one of the richest districts in the world. It is backed by progressive and conservative citizens. It has a future that assures development to a degree that will make this property worth many times the price I am selling it for. When oil is discovered, Malin will be found to be in the very heart of the field and the biggest producers will be at its door.

If you are looking for something that will pay you big returns, you can make no mistake in buying Malin property.
