

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

Girls, they say,
In a most solemn way,
On a hot summer day,
The reason they wear,
Their stockings turned,
At the knees
Is just because, dear me,
To be cool and comfy,
But how, pray tell,
Is this explained?

A girl we saw, yesterday,
With her stockings turned
But who wore furs.
We reckon how
She wanted to keep
Her little knees cool
And her neck warm,
Or why was it,
The inconsistent dear.

The letters R. S. V. P. are being omitted from dinner invitations in best society these days. Instead of the old request to "respond if you please," dinner invitations of today bear the cabalistic letters B. Y. O. H. It may be explained that B. Y. O. H. stands for "bring your own hootch."

About the only thing no one has tried to make wine out of so far is the radish.

Be nice to people. Remember that the homeliest little pollywog will some day turn into a beautiful butterfly.

The bird that got up the income tax forms was either a bug, a nut, a boob, or a friend of Satan—working on a commission basis.

The most prosperous people do not always have the biggest cars.

Charity often means that we are willing to pass the hat if other people will fill it, opines Ted White.

Cruelty to burglars: Newspaper making announcements of the money they overlooked in the raid.

Roy Fouch bumped against Bill Lee in front of the assessor's office. Lee had a red flesh mark on the top part of his nose, that was just similar to the impression left by wearing glasses.

Roy: "Did you break your glasses, or did you forget them this morning?"

Bill: "I never wore glasses in my life."

Roy: "How about that mark on your nose?"

Bill: "Oh, that's from drinking hootch out of a fruit jar."

Arthur Collins says a woman doesn't necessarily have to be in an auto to knock a man down.

There are some defects in the pleasure and privileges of being a congressman or a senator. These defects include enforced attendance at Washington during the heat-prostration season.

A New Jersey inventor is reported as having invented a device which makes change automatically. With prices as they are, this invention should be almost as useful as that nonrefillable bottle which somebody else recently thought up.

MAKE THAT IDLE DOLLAR WORK.

SACRAMENTO—A burglar who used a fishhook and line to catch his loot last night secured $500 in cash from Charles Erlwein, residing at the Bertus hotel, Third and K streets, while Erlwein was asleep. The money, wrapped in a blue bandana handkerchief, was fished from the coat pocket of Erlwein's clothes by the burglar who reached over a partition in the room with his fishing tackle.

SACRAMENTO—A fine of $75 each imposed on two Chinese is the net result of a raid on a gambling house in Locke July 30th by Deputy sheriffs. The fines were imposed by Justice of the Peace M. F. Shelby when Ah Fong and Sam Lim, who had entered pleas of not guilty, changed their pleas to guilty.

SAN FRANCISCO—Grant Gorman, well known in political circles in Oakland, admitted through his counsel in the United States district court that national prohibition was the cause of his excessive use of liquor, and that "nobody has been able to get me sober since the advent of the Volstead law."

SACRAMENTO—A complete collapse, or practically so, of the watermelon industry in the Turlock and Denair districts of the San Joaquin Valley is foreseen by Harry S. Maddox, state market director, unless means are found immediately for clarifying the present unsatisfactory market situation.

COLUSA—W. S. Denis, farmer, is facing trial in the superior court on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon as a result of a challenge he issued to a Hindu to fight a duel. He was held to answer by Justice of the Peace Moore.

One of the most interesting of recent American inventions is the phonograph safe lock, which will open only when the owner of the safe repeats through the keyhole a phrase that has been recorded previously from his own voice.

Use Red Crown Gasoline for Power & Mileage

QUALITY DOMINATES

Quality is the genius of production; and the dominant characteristic of Red Crown gasoline is quality.

One cannot experience the results of quality unless quality is in the product.

"Red Crown" is an all-refinery gasoline; a product of quality—a perfect stream of power—that makes it possible for you to enjoy the maximum power and the maximum speed your engine was designed to develop.

Look for Standard Oil Service Stations and for the Red Crown sign at garages, service stations, and other dealers. There you will be able to get good service with Red Crown gasoline.

Camels are made for Men who Think for Themselves

Such folks know real quality—and DEMAND it. They prefer Camels because Camels give them the smoothest, mellowest smoke they can buy—because they love the mild, rich flavor of choicest tobaccos, perfectly blended—and because Camels leave NO CIGARETTY AFTERTASTE.

Like every man who does his own thinking, you want fine tobacco in your cigarettes. You'll find it in Camels.

And, mind you, no flashy package just for show. No extra wrappers! No costly frills! These things don't improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons.

But QUALITY! Listen! That's CAMELS!
