RUTH HITS ANOTHER
CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Babe Ruth hit his 46th homer today.

WOMEN GET INNING.
VENICE, Cal., Aug. 18.—The tradition of naming public school buildings after George Washington, Theodore Roosevelt and other men of American history has gone temporarily, at least, out of vogue in Venice to permit an honoring of famous women. Accordingly, the three newest schools in this city are to be christened soon the Betsy Ross, Florence Nightingale and Martha Washington.
