Exams. for Annapolis And West Point to Be held October 29

Congressman Nick Sinnott will make his 1922 appointments to the naval academy at Annapolis and the military academy at West Point by means of a competitive examination. This examination will be held for Mr. Sinnott by the U. S. civil commission on October 29, 1921 in Baker, Bend, La Grande, Klamath Falls, Ontario, Pendleton and The Dalles.

Appointments will be made by the congressman according to the grades made by the candidates taking the examination, as reported to him by the examiners of the civil service commission.

The second district of Oregon will have three vacancies at the naval academy, three principalships and nine alternateships; one principalship and two alternateships at the military academy during 1922. The official examinations to Annapolis are held during February and April 1922, and for West Point March 7th, 1922. Mr. Sinnott has set the date for the competitive examination far ahead in order that those successful therein may have plenty of time to prepare for the official examinations.

Any young man of the required age who is a bona fide resident of the second district of Oregon is eligible to take the examination. Full particulars regarding same may be had by writing to Hon. N. J. Sinnott Room 347, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.
