

Personal Mention

Miss B. R. Jewett and E. K. Jewett, brother and sister of Mrs. Paul B. McKee, who are here from San Francisco this week left by car this morning on a trip to Copco, Medford and back into Klamath Falls by way of Crater lake.

Bill Uhrmann was in town over the week-end from his home near Algoma.

James Jory, a Midland rancher, was in the city Saturday after supplies.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester DeLap were county seat visitors this week-end from their ranch home at Round Lake.

Harry Ackley, John Foster and Judge A. L. Leavitt returned last night from the Huckleberry mountain. They report a hard trip and lots of berries. They are not given credit by their friends for having picked the 40 gallons they brought back with them.

Charles F. DeLap and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd DeLap left yesterday for the berry patch expecting to stay for a couple of weeks.

Ivan Houston, Wesley Fraters and Max Schaffer were at Crater lake yesterday. Mr. Fraters was at the lake for the first time yesterday, and he says he wouldn't have missed it for anything. Wednesday Mr. Fraters will leave for Portland preparatory to going east in time to enter Columbia university this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Lester, Mrs. Minnie Henry, Mrs. Gertrude Moore and Miss Claudia Splink were out yesterday enjoying a picnic on the Lower Klamath river.

Warren Patterson, who has been appointed superintendent of cattle for the county fair, was in town on business Saturday.

Miss Ida B. Momyer was in the Malin country yesterday and upon her return brought a sample of rye for exhibition in the First National bank. The rye stands nearly seven feet high and is, according to experts, a fine showing for that kind of grain.

O. M. Hector left yesterday by car for San Francisco where he will spend the remainder of the week attending to matters of business.

A letter from E. M. Chilcote and family who are on a tour of Washington and Oregon, brings the news that they are in Yakima. Mr. Chilcote said also that he had seen some prize mosquitoes in Washington and that wind storms they had encountered were far from pleasant.

Marvin Lucas was a visitor at Spring creek yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Walton and family of Merrill were at Medicine lake Sunday with a group of Klamath Falls people.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bean and family were Crater lake visitors over the week-end.

Bernard, and Robert Hacklan and parents and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Holden enjoyed a fine outing at the Lake o' the Woods Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Agee, Miss Mollie Donaldson and Mr. and Mrs. Max Chilcote spent Sunday in the Malin section. Mr. Agee stayed over with friends there and the rest of the party returned to town last night.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Smith and family and Mrs. Smith's father and mother, motored to Crater lake yesterday. Mrs. Smith's parents returned to their home in Salem by way of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Withrow spent the week-end with friends in Upper Langell valley.

Will Houston, of the Houston Insurance company, is the owner of a new 1923 seven-passenger Buick automobile. The Buick Sales and Service company made the sale.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Hoagland, Miss Madge Dixon and Lawrence Wright drove to Fort Klamath for the day yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger E. Dewoese and family were in the Fort Klamath country yesterday.

Miss Alvira Friszen, of the First National bank staff, was at Eagle Ridge and Williamson river yesterday with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Peyton and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jay made a trip to the lava beds yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McCullum and Mrs. J. N. Givan returned Saturday from Lake o' the Woods where they have been for some time after berries. Mrs. Givan reports quite a few huckleberries at the lake, but she said it was necessary to walk several miles for them. Mr. Givan is spending a few weeks at the ranch in Bly helping put the hay crop up. Mrs. A. M. Collier has returned from a three weeks visit in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Durant and children are in town today from their ranch on the Merrill road.

Miss Emily Jarrett is back from Huckleberry mountain where she spent a month camping with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nickerson accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Bertha Nickerson Bowman arrived Sunday night from California. Their other daughter Mrs. Mable Nickerson Bailey, has been here for several weeks as the guest of her cousin, Mrs. C. E. Solomon. Mr. and Mrs. Nickerson took an active part in the business and social life of Klamath Falls in the earlier days, but for some time have made their home in Sacramento. Mrs. Bowman's home is in Berkeley.

P. S. Puckett is in town today from Odessa attending to matters of business.
