

Personal Mention

Two cars bore a group of Klamath Falls folk to Glass mountain and Medicine lake Sunday for an outing. They were C. V. Holmes of the Klamath Cash grocery, and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Fox and son, Miss Maud Reed, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Hansen and daughter, Dorothy, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Brookins, Mr. Holmes said today, that Klamath county would have no cause to find fault with the tourist trade if all the roads were like the Medicine lake road. The party left town at 7:30 and arrived at the lake at 10:30, a distance of about 73 miles.

A. W. Stevens, who suffered an unfortunate accident a few weeks ago when an accidentally discharged rifle injured his leg, is reported so much improved that he will be moved from the hospital to his home today.

Clarence Montgomery, who has been at the Big Huckleberry mountain for the past week returned home yesterday with a fine lot of berries.

Mrs. F. Heilbronner is a visitor at the Rueck ranch near Bonanza for an indefinite length of time. Mr. Heilbronner is enroute to Stuttgart, Germany, where he will visit with relatives for some time.

The Buick Sales and Service company reports the sale of a new five passenger 1922 Buick to Matt Eagan of the Algoma Lumber company. This is Mr. Eagan's third Buick.

Mrs. Hazel Mechem was in town yesterday afternoon from her home in Poe valley attending to matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Elliott of the Mt. Laki district were business visitors in town yesterday.

Mrs. L. B. Hague, who has been very ill at her home on the Keno road for over a week, was able to be in town for a couple of hours yesterday.

Ray Hicks came in yesterday from Olene to arrange for the harvesting of his crop.

Mr. and Mrs. John Martin left this morning for San Francisco on a combined business and pleasure trip. They did not state just how long they would be in the bay city.

R. C. Spink was in town yesterday from Idlerest on Spring creek attending to business matters.

Lee Dotten of Keno transacted business here yesterday with Klamath Falls merchants.

Mr. Bramhall was a county seat visitor this morning from his ranch at Malin.

Bird Loosley, a prominent stockman from the Fort Klamath country was in town yesterday closing up business transactions preparatory to leaving in the near future for Seattle. From there Mr. Loosley expects to go east for an indefinite visit with relatives and friends whom he has not seen for years.

M. R. Anderson and family made a trip to the Huckleberry mountain Sunday returning Monday night with their winter's supply of huckleberries and wild blackberries.

Paul Borgardus has returned from Medford where he has been for several week's vacation.

Mr. Holbrook, a Malin rancher, was in town yesterday on matters of business.

Richard Hannon is in town today from Malin on matters of business connected with the store there, of which he is manager.

Mrs. A. H. McCollum and baby left this morning for Weed where she will spend a week or two.

J. A. Maddox a prosperous rancher of Klamath county, was in town yesterday from his ranch near Malin.

Miss Erma Ager was in town this morning from her home on the Keno road after supplies.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Obenchain and Miss Miriam Martin were in town this morning from the Obenchain ranch south of town.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mayer and small daughter, Esther Josephine, departed on this morning's train for their new home in Fort Collins, Colorado. The Mayers have been residents of Klamath Falls for several years. Both taught in the schools here before their marriage and for the past few years Mr. Mayer has been engaged in the automobile business. He will teach manual training work in the college at Fort Collins, which he attended as a student. Before taking up his work Mr. and Mrs. Mayer will visit his relatives in Pueblo.

W. C. Thompson of Pine Ridge is a business visitor here this week.

R. B. Williamson and wife are tourists who stopped over here last night on their way to Crater lake from Los Angeles.

While in town Mr. and Mrs. George Nickerson, who arrived night before last from Sacramento, will visit with Mr. Nickerson's sister, Mrs. Elmer French and family, as well as many other friends and relatives.

Moe's

THE WOMEN'S STORE

ADVANCE FALL STYLES
AT A SALE PRICE
NEW SILK FROCKS

CREPE DE CHINE, CANTON CREPE.

$29.50

REDUCED? INDEED NO! SMART, NEW AND AS LOW PRICED AS THE REDUCED
SUMER SILK FROCKS

WE TOOK ADVANTAGE OF THE PRESENT
LOW COST OF MATERIALS TO MAKE UP
THIS GROUP OF FROCKS IN THE STYLES
THAT WILL BE WORN THIS FALL

NEW STYLE POINTS ARE EXPRESSED IN THE SILHOUETTES AND TRIMMING;
AMONG THE LATTER ARE VELVET
BANDINGS, IRIDESCENT SILK BRAID,
SIDE PLEATED DRAPING AND SILK
CORD LACE INSERTING

ALSO SHOWING NEW LINE OF EVENING FROCKS

COOLEST THEATRE IN TOWN

The Strand

THEATRE
Formerly the Moudele
1180 Main St.
The little house with big shows.

Tonight
Chicken Casey is in Town
Dorothy Dalton in "CHICKEN CASEY"

Miss Dalton's character as the Bowersky tough is wonderful. See this picture, it's full of surprises.

—ALSO—
Gumps Cartoons and A Good Comedy
Coming Friday—MAE MURRAY
IN "TWIN PAWNS."

N.C.O.

Phone 577-J and our Sales Mgr.,
MR. WRIGHT will call on you with full details of our Stock offering.

OFFICE: 532 MAIN

C. D. Herbert of San Francisco arrived last night and is registered at the White Pelican hotel.

Miss Lucile Stewart was in town yesterday from her home at Merrill doing some shopping.

Miss Elizabeth Manning has returned from her vacation which she spent with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller and family on their ranch south of town.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Tingley were in the county seat yesterday from their ranch in the Miller Hill district purchasing supplies.

Clyde Ratcliffe, who has been in town for the past four or five days, returned last night to his home in Merrill.

Miss Effie Duke spent the weekend here from Portland as the guest of Miss Elizabeth Sullivan. Sunday evening she left with her parents for Lakeview where she will visit for some time.

Martin Green and two sons were in town this afternoon from their ranch home in the Henley district.

W. D. Barnes, who operates a ranch on the Algoma road drove into town this afternoon for supplies.

Miss Helena Riddle, who has been here for several days as the guest of Miss Dona Mack at her home in the Miller Hill district, returned this morning to her home in Riddle, Oregon.

Make that idle dollar work! Put it in the bank.

New Fall and Winter Suits and Overcoats Arriving Daily

The public have been looking forward to a substantial decline in prices and they want lower prices.

We have done it—the result of the combined effort on the part of and ourselves—through the operation of the closest margin of profit in production and retailing.

THE HOUSE OF KUPPENHEIMER

When you come here for your fall suit—you will find prices down to where they should be. You will find real style and fit, fabrics of pure wool, the most durable weaves, finest tailoring, the kind of quality it pays to wear.

We have provided for your interests in the matter of prices without losing sight of quality and service.

New FALL HATS now here. New Shapes and colors

Ed. V. Price & Co. fall samples now ready. COME IN AND LOOK THEM OVER

K.K.K. STORE

LEADING CLOTHIERS

