

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

A Big Difficulty

One of the difficulties about the present styles is that in observing women coming down the streets, you can't tell whether its your little sister or your grandmother.

Roy Durbin says an efficiency expert is a man who gets that fat salary for telling $8 a week clerks how to save money.

A feller tells us that he saw some wheezes from the colyum quoted in the Literary Digest fillum the other day. We must be getting rotten.

The more nearly square the foundation of your business, the longer it will stand up and the taller it will grow.

"How old are you?" asked the Judge of a woman witness.

"Thirty," she replied.

"Thirty!" exclaimed the Judge. I've heard you give the same age in this court for three years."

"Yes," returned the witness, I am one of those persons who say one thing today and another thing to-morrow."

Jim Milne asks why do so many pretty girls have such freckled-faced little brothers?

Very Spiffy. Thank You!

In all my travels over the earth, in this or any other nation. Of comic pages I've found a dearth. Except for the Office Cat—my inspiration.

This poem, short though it may seem, is filled chuck full of real devotion. Believe me, Junius you're a scream. At least such is my ardent notion.

Our idea of no place to make love is over a telephone on the city editor's desk.

Are silver dollars losing their popularity, one of our enterprising reporters writes? Well, of course they are, but no wonder they don't stick around long enough to even get friendly.

A band of girls, early risers and full of joy, joined the crowd. Women appeared, some fully dressed, others with shawls over their heads.

If epidemics follow the styles, you may look for an outbreak of knee-monia this winter.

How Heavenly.

Dear Ed. Office Cat—Would you care to know that Pearl E. Gates lives at Kenosha, Wis., I made this startling discovery during a recent visit to that city.

"Are those who use such great big words,

And always use 'em wrong."

The Iowa farmer who hanged himself with a log chain wasn't taking any chances on not completing the job.

EUGENE—The work of canning Bartlett pears will begin at the cannery of the Eugene Growers' association this week. Tons of pears have arrived at the plant during the last week and are rapidly ripening in storage. It is expected that between 300 and 400 women and girls will be employed peeling pears.

PENDLETON RESIDENT SAYS SHE COULD SHOUT FOR JOY OVER RESTORATION TO HEALTH.

"When I realize what this wonderful Tanlac has done for me I could just shout for joy," said Mrs. Minnie Davidson, 514 Market St., Pendleton, Oregon.

"I had an awful attack of the 'flu' two years ago, and it left me almost as weak and helpless as a baby. I had no appetite and ate barely enough to keep body and soul together and was so weak I couldn't even sweep the floor of my room. I was on a nervous tension all the time and finally got so I could hardly close my eyes at night and in the morning felt worn out and miserable. I suffered so much from neuralgia in the face that I would almost go distracted at times.

"In a short time after I began taking Tanlac I was feeling like a different person. I have a splendid appetite now, sleep all night long without waking once and get up in the morning feeling fresh and happy. I never have neuralgia and, in fact, am just in perfect health. I know a medicine that could help me in the awful condition I was in can help anybody else, and I just wish I could put a bottle of Tanlac in the hands of every sick man, woman and child."

Tanlac sold by druggists everywhere.—Adv.

SAN FRANCISCO—Edwin E. Grant, President of the California Law Enforcement League has telegraphed Wayne B. Wheeler, Legislative Counsel of the Anti-Saloon League at Washington, D. C., urging abandonment of efforts to pass the Anti-Beer Bill if to pass the measure it was necessary to accept House amendments concerning issuance of search warrants.

AN INVESTMENT

I have several blocks of lots surrounding the Mallin high school that I will sell for business and residential purposes, thus offering to the people of Klamath county an opportunity to make a real investment. I will sell these lots for $75 and up, on the installment plan, the terms to suit the purchaser. No interest will be charged and I will pay the taxes until deed is delivered to buyer.

Mallin is situated in the center of one of the richest districts in the world. It is backed by progressive and conservative citizens. It has a future that assures development to a degree that will make this property worth many times the price I am selling it for. When oil is discovered, Mallin will be found to be in the very heart of the field and the biggest producers will be at its door.

If you are looking for something that will pay you big returns, you can make no mistake in buying Mallin property.
