WASHINGTON, Aug. 25—More

OREGON BREVITIES

RAINIER—The Rainier Manufacturing company has begun driving piling for the first of its six unit mills which are contemplated. This company is a co-operative institution.
The promoters are Olympia, Wash., men. They have obtained over a mile of waterfront at Rainier, with 290 acres of fine land lying immediately back of the Columbia river, the greater portion of which is in the city limits of Rainier. Each stockholder has the same amount invested and each draws the same pay. The company is a $1,000,000 concern and if successful will be one of the largest manufacturing enterprises in the northwest.

PORTLAND—Miss Madeline Holmes, a saleswoman living at 308 Main street, was the victim of an astounding attack and burglary, when a burglar entered her bedroom window and, after looting the room of a considerable quantity of jewelry, cut her braided hair, evidently with a sharp knife or razor.

PORTLAND—Hop growers of the state are preparing for the opening of the picking season which they anticipate starting about September 1.
The crop in the state this year is approximately 60,000 bales and it is estimated that $700,000 will be paid out in wages to the harvesters. Upward of 20,000 pickers will be needed throughout the state, it is estimated by the growers.

SALEM—Thousands of new homes and new farms in Oregon are going to be the outstanding result of the state bonus and loan law voted by the people in June, according to George A. White, adjutant-general and member of the Oregon bonus and loan commission. Mr. White returned home from a tour of eastern and central Oregon with Captain Lyman G. Rice of Pendleton, als a member of the commission. Leading towns in Hood River, Wasco, Sherman, Jefferson and Deschutes counties were visited.

MONMOUTH—Though a few years ago Monmouth was served by nearly a dozen trains daily, the home of Oregon's normal school is now without regular passenger service. With the completion of the paving between company to discontinue service and Pacific no longer maintains a regular passenger service from Dalas, using the tracks mostly for hauling logs

SALEM—A short cut from Willamette valley points to central and Southern Oregon points, involving a material saving in mileage, is afforded through the opening up of the road from Eugene to Crescent along the middle fork of the Willamette river, according to Herbert S. Nunn, state highway engineer. Nunn, who has just completed a trip over this road, states that it is in excellent condition, partly macadamized and subject to good going for its entire distance.

PORTLAND—The Rev. J. T. Anderson, pastor of the Marshfield Baptist church, is missing. Nothing has been seen of him since he called on the secretary of the Grovers' association at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.
At that time he stated that he would probably go to Roseburg for a conference with A. C. Marsters, president of the State Merchants' association.

depends on the pockets.

Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching orb, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. It doesn't hurt a bit.

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without a particle of pain.

Name "Bayer" on Genuine

Beware! Unless you see the name "Bayer" on package or on tablets you are not getting genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for twenty-one

Take Aspirin only as told in the Handy tin boxes of twelve Bayer Druggists also sell larger packages.

Boxing Revived
In Albuquerque

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Aug. 25 —Boxing is expected to take on a new life here as a result of a recent city ordinance, reducing the license fee for bouts from $100 to $50 and providing strict regulations for keeping the sport clean.

Boxers less than 18 years of age cannot appear; the kidney blow is barred and physicians must examine the participants and give them a clean bill of health before the bout.
Under the old provisions, most of the bouts went to nearby towns where the cost was not so high.
