Slow Progress.

It is going on twenty-one centuries since the beginning of the Christian era. Yet there are people of both sexes who will occupy four seats in a day-coach and permit a woman to stand in the aisle with a baby in her arms.

How Can You Ask

Sir:
My landlord likes to be addressed as "Colonel" but, in view of the fact that he has hoisted my rent three times in the last four months, it strikes me that "Lieutenant" would be a more appropriate title.

Are you with me or ag'in me?

Showing Off.

The young man and his best girl go to the show.

What the young man thinks that the others think: "Say, but I gotta peach of a girl tonight; bet every guy in the house is wishin' he was here in his shoes by her side. I guess she ain't tickled with her little self to have me bring her here and get seats right up in front. Maybe I ain't no Adonis but I fit this suit like it was made for me. Gotta to get me one some day."

What the best girl thinks that the others think: "I have to hand it to Bill for knowing enough to get the orchestra seats when he's got a good-looking girl with him. Gee, but I bet these dames would like to have my good looks. I guess I made a big hit with Bill tonight, but I'm not going to accept him, then maybe I can land a man with a million or two. Nobody has got anything on me in the ways of looks, and they know it, too. I'll bet a lot of them are raving about my complexion, too."

What the audience thought about them?
"Not a dawgone thing."

Patron: (critically). Waiter, this plate you brought me has a spot on it.

Waiter: (apologetically). That isn't a spot, sir, that is the half portion of steak you ordered.

WEED PATCHES pean, Weeds in the flat and in the Hot Springs Addition are still a source of trouble to the fire department, and as they belong to absent owners despite all the precautions that the department can take to safeguard adjacent property, there is no way to prevent fire from getting into these patches.

Chief Ambrose stated that the blaze last Saturday forenoon was of a sort which may occur in the infested districts at any time and that the Saturday blaze might have been disastrous had a wind been blowing.
The city council have been unable to provide relief. The matter was placed in the hands of the fire committee for a report about three weeks ago. "Ask people to be careful about throwing away lighted matches and cigar stubs when in that section," said Fire Chief Ambrose while discussing this matter.

CYCLES OF LIFE AND DEATH

Interesting Speculation Concerning Possible Composition of Corporeal Atoms of the Body.

Did you know that perhaps somewhere in your body is a bit of Julius Caesar, or perhaps King Solomon.
John Phin, scientist, in his "Seven Follies of Science," says: "From birth to death we have been continually borrowing, continually paying back. Part of our physical organization may have come from the fruit of the tropics, part from the mosses of the frozen North. We may hold in our bone, muscles and brains materials which once formed parts of sheep, wolves, and in all the millions of years during which composition and decomposition of organic matter has gone on, it is quite probable that some portion of our physical system may have formed part of the material organization of thousands of other animals, men included. The imbecile may have in his body atoms which once formed part of Homer, of Plato and of Archimedes.
In the frame of the beggar may be built material which once formed part of Solomon, and some atoms which enabled Alexander or Bruce to achieve their fame, may now form part of the body of a leazar. Even among the corporeal atoms which now make up our own bodies may be particles which helped to incarnate the person of Jesus Christ, or which lent physical energy to the burning eloquence of St. Paul. Organic life has gone on unceasingly for untold ages in ever-recurring cycles. We cannot move a muscle, or give way to an emotion, or even think a thought without burning up some part of our corporeal frame, and the used-up material is speedily ejected and then transformed into the clothing of a new life."

NO OLD MAIDS IN BABYLON

Ancient City Had a System Which Assured the Marriage of All the Females.

The first known auctions of the world were held in Babylon many centuries before Christ. The articles auctioned consisted of all the virgins in the city, and the sale was held once a year. On the day selected the girls were brought to the market place and there ordered to remove their garments. All the young men of the city were also gathered and the maidens, one by one, were led to a block where the youth of the city could inspect them. The beautiful girls were sold first and every effort made to get as much as possible for their charms.

The young men of those days were as eager to win the fairest maid possible by bidding as men of a later age were to win them by brave deeds or plendings. As a result fortunes were in the hands of the auctioneer by the time the homely girls were reached.
This fortune was then divided up and the auctioneering took a new life. The hottest girl was given the largest part of the money collected from beauty and many a poor man found himself with a very homely wife but a comfortable start in business. The system at least did away with old maids and bachelors and insured a steady growth of population and few dependents on the state.

When Diners Ate Their Plates.

The word fritter, which with cooler weather will become popular once more, originates from an old French word meaning to fry, which comes from the Latin past participle of the verb frigere, frictus.

Similarly, fricassee takes its name from the same Latin verb or from the French "fricasser," meaning to break into pieces, or, as some experts believe, from the Latin "fricare," to rub.
Any meat fried in a pan is fricasseed, according to French culinary definition.

Another word of French and Latin birth is tart. Tart is a culinary corruption of the word "tourte" (French), derived from "tortine," a slice of bread. This comes from the Latin "torqueo," to twist, hence the word "tortia" means a twist or roll of bread.

In the middle ages there was a deficiency in plates, and so, for a substitute, an undercrust of bread served as a plate. For a long time in France this undercrust of the "tourte," or "tarte," was the most common of plates. After everything had been served diners ate even their "plates."

In time these dinner plates, made of dinner rolls, came to be prepared specially and developed into a cake-like batter, which was filled with delicious food. And so they were called tarts and tartlets, and were served as a distinct dish.—Gas Logic.

Stradivarius Violins.

Stradivarius was born in 1644 and died in 1737. He worked until he was over 90 years of age and turned out a large number of violins and violoncellos. Altogether it has been estimated that about one thousand violins are attributed to him and about three hundred other instruments, among them different kinds of viols, some bass viols and also some lutes, guitars and mandorins, very exquisitely wrought.
Eugene Ysaey and Jan Kubelik are both the owners of genuine Stradivarius violins. The label in a genuine instrument is supposed to have been made of paper.

DORRIS PERSONALS.

DORRIS, Cal., 30—Mr. and Mrs.
F. U. Patrick of Klamath Falls were in Dorris yesterday inspecting the new Star theatre which will give its first show to the local cinema fans this evening.

Claude Norman, formerly in charge of the California-Oregon Power company here and interested in a local pool hall, was a visitor in town Sunday. Mr. Norman is now with the Power Company in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Clayton arrived Sunday evening from Pacific Grove, Cal., where they have made their home since leaving Dorris last spring.

Dr. J. P. Bowman of the Dorris Hospital was a passenger on yesterday mornings train for San Francisco where he was called suddenly on business.

Charles Messick, merchant of Mac-doel, was a business visitor in Dorris yesterday.

William G. Hagelstein, cashier of the Butte Valley State Bank, with Mrs. Hagelstein returned yesterday from a week-end visit at the Hagelstein Ranch near Algoma. Harvesting of the bumper rye crop on the Hagelstein marsh tract is in full progress. Mr. Hagelstein states that his rye will thresh between fifty and sixty bushels per acre.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Twoby spent Saturday and Sunday in Klamath Falls.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.—Adv.

J. F. Ethridge has secured a partnership in a threshing outfit and will depart soon for the grain fields where he will spend the threshing season. Mr. Ethridge is proprietor of the Happy Home pool and billiard hall.

Make that idle dollar work! Put it in the bank.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful
Lustre At Once

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't stay gray! Look young!
Either prepare the recipe at home, or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored, and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Adv.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat too Much Meat Which Clogs Kidneys, Then the Back
Hurts

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.
A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.
