

Patrick Mackinaws, Overcoats, Leather Vests

and woolen wear of all descriptions now ready. We are exclusive agents in this territory for the famous PATRICK-DULUTH woolen mills products. The foremost manufacturers of heavy clothing in America.

We have a wonderful assortment this year including Overcoats, Mackinaws, Sweaters, Leather Vests, Leather Overcoats and numerous other things. The name Patrick on a garment assures you that you have something which cannot be surpassed in quality and durability.

Come in and look over the excellent assortment of winter wear we now have on display. It won't be very long until you will need it. The early purchaser get the first choice of patterns and sizes.

K. K. K. STORE

LEADING CLOTHIERS

Personal Mention

David and John Turner of Langell valley are business visitors today. David Turner, who is proprietor of the Turner Hot Springs, said that he had many guests this summer. Beginning tomorrow a special auto service will be in effect between this city and the hot springs, running every Wednesday, or oftener if there is a demand for it.

Captain O. C. Applegate and Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Applegate Jr., of Sacramento, California, have arrived from a week's outing in Crater lake national park. The party were to have camped at Cascades Springs, but their plans were changed and they stayed only a few miles from headquarters and made their hikes from there. Some of the peaks climbed by the Captain and his son are Garfield, Applegate and Watchman's peaks. Six of the nights of their stay in the mountains Captain Applegate entertained the guests at the Crater lake hotel with "early day" stories of the lake and surrounding country.

Miss Wanda Brown arrived last night to take up her duties as a teacher of science in the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shepherd returned from a month's business and pleasure trip in Lake country and other eastern Oregon points.

C. H. Lippert and son, Leo, have come from Baker City, Oregon, to make a prolonged visit with his mother, Mrs. E. A. Rutherford. Mr. Lippert will join her husband in about two weeks.

Miss Helen Paxon, who has been employed in the postoffice for several years, left Sunday morning for a six weeks visit with friends and relatives in Wauseon, Ohio.

Mrs. A. J. Hazelet and Mrs. J. J. Saint left this morning for their homes in Los Angeles, after a brief visit here and at Crater lake.

Eileen McVeigh, Myler Calkins, Lloyd Porter and George Stevenson drove to Medicine lake Sunday for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Fox were visitors at Hill over the week-end.

Miss Alice McCourt, Geraldine Watt, Vera Thompson, Ray Harlan and Kenneth Perry spent the week-end at Crater lake, leaving here Sunday morning.

Leo Finneran and L. Durbin spent three days at the Lakeview round-up.

Miss Ruth Dixon left this morning on the Ashland stage.

J. H. Wise and daughter are Klamath Falls visitors this week from Fort Klamath.

Miss Loretta Jennings arrived last night from Portland and will assume duties here as teacher in the Riverside school.

Grace Farrand, a teacher in the city schools, is back after a vacation in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Miss Elizabeth Keys, another of the city teachers, came in on last night's train from Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Jenkins and daughter, Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. W. Werner and daughter, Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kemp, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Freytag Jr., made up a party of Klamath folk that journeyed to Crater lake over the week-end. They report a delightful time and that the weather was perfect for an outing. Miss Bernadine Hannon and brothers, Murray and Walter visited with friends and relatives in the Malin country over Saturday and Sunday.

W. C. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Thompson of Pine Ridge were in town yesterday to meet A. M. Thompson of Whittier, California, who arrived for a visit. They stayed over at the White Pelican hotel last night.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Houston and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Withrow took advantage of the holiday Monday and spent three days in the lava beds.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Johnson are home after an extended vacation in California.

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Humbird of Sandpoint, Idaho, are stopping at the White Pelican hotel for a few days.

M. Cunningham arrived last night from Corvallis and is a guest at the White Pelican hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Shive were at Crater lake for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McAuliffe and family are in town today from their home at Fort Klamath.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wells and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Colvin spent three days on a deer hunting expedition, returning Monday night without a kill.

Earl H. Schrader, of Portland, as assistant purchasing agent for the Spokane, Portland and Seattle railway, is here for a visit to Crater lake and to see the Klamath country.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen V. Wimberly and small son, returned last night from a two weeks vacation to their old home in Roseburg. They visited in Grants Pass and Medford while away.

Mrs. Everett Griffith was in town this morning from her home on the Merrill road making arrangements for her daughter's school year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Klingenburg and family have returned from a two months trip east. Mr. Klingenburg is manager of the Big Basin Lumber company's plant in this city.

Mrs. Orville Elliott is in town from the Klamath agency today with her two daughters, Florence and Clarice, arranging for their attendance at the Catholic academy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Goeller, Mrs. Roy Orem, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Meadows and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goeller motored to Crater lake Saturday and returned home by way of Medford Monday.

R. C. Spink is in the city on business today from his summer camp at Idierest on Spring creek.

Mrs. Charles Woodard is here from Portland for an extended visit.

Mrs. H. B. Loosley is a county seat visitor today from Fort Klamath.

Clay Radcliff is in town from his home at Merrill purchasing fruit and other supplies for the coming months.

L. Hoagland accompanied by his sister, Miss Grace Hoagland, returned Saturday from San Francisco where they went in their car on a combined business and pleasure trip.

A marriage license was issued Saturday to Walter Canfield Smith and Miss Helen Bertha Klem. Both are residents of this city.

Paul Foster came into town last night from the dredger, Klamath Queen, and will go on to Swan lake valley for a visit with his sister, Mrs. Alfred Collier.

Miss Annie I. Wight, of Lawrence, Kansas, left this morning for California. Miss Wight is making a tour of six national parks, the first of which is Crater lake.

Mrs. Schulz and daughter, Margaret, left this morning for Kelso, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Chilcote and Miss Mollie and Zena Donaldson spent Monday at Round lake.

R. E. Wright who left Sunday on a hunting trip in the Eagle Ridge country, sent in word this morning that he desired to prolong his stay there in the hope that another day would see him with a fine buck.

Sheriff Lloyd Low is confined to his home with a severe case of tonsillitis contracted Saturday night when assisting the firemen in their duties at the Lakeside Lumber company fire.

Musical Show is Coming to Strand

The "Galvin World of Follies," a New York Musical comedy show consisting of 22 people will appear at the Strand Theatre, Tuesday September 13, with a clever two act musical skit entitled, "The Bell Boy," in which Johnny and Irene Galvin will be featured in some very catchy and clever songs and dances. "Dainty Tootsie," a 15 year old girl, will also appear in classical dances, Italian, French and Russian folk dances as well as buck and wing steps.

The Galvin shows carry their own wardrobe, orchestra and scenery. Mr. Galvin states that it is a bona fide $10,000 display of the latest creations. He adds that a different wardrobe is used in each play. The show will appear Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in a new show each night.

BIDS FOR WOOD WANTED.

Sealed bids will be received by the undersigned for ten cords of 16-inch live body wood, dry, delivered at the school house in district 37, Midland. All bids must be received by the undersigned before 12 o'clock, noon, September 15, 1921. The school board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

THEODORE YOUNG, Clerk, School District No. 37, Midland, Oregon. 6-8

Let's Talk Piano with Earl Shepherd.

COOLEST THEATRE IN TOWN

The Strand

THEATRE TONIGHT

Exceptionally strong feature

Seena Owen

—IN—

"A WOMAN'S AWAKENING"

A stirring experience that taught a young wife to turn from the lure of social follies to the simple joys of life.

COMING SUNDAY—Maurice Tourneur's big sensation picture called "WOMAN"

Formerly the Mondak

1190 Main St.

The little house with big shows.

175 Couples Enjoy First Masonic Ball

The Masonic ball held last night at the Scandinavian hall was one of the pre-winter seasons' social events which attracted 175 couples and to the strains of Cochran's orchestra, the evening was pleasantly spent.

The Patrons and Patronesses of the Eastern Star, also the Masters and Past Masters of Klamath lodge of Masons were the entertainment and reception committee who greeted the guests at the hall. They were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Van Emon, Mr. and Mrs. George Burton, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dezell, Messrs Oscar Peyton, Frank Ward, Art Leavitt and L. L. Gaghagen.

The ball was informal in character and so satisfactorily conducted, that it is the plan of the Masons to hold one every 60 days.

MALIN DANCE.

Arrangements are being made for a dance to be given by residents of Malin as a benefit for the Union High school. The date has been set for Saturday, September 10, and it is hoped a big attendance from Klamath Falls will be out for the good time that is promised. Those in charge guarantee good music by a jazz orchestra which will be engaged for the occasion.

CALLED BACK FROM

OUTING BY BAD NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Rounsevell, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Robertson, Mrs. and Mrs. H. W. Henderson and Mrs. Ida E. Lake, Mrs. Rounsevell's mother, who is here visiting her from Clarksville, Iowa, were at Rocky

Point for the weekend. They all came home Sunday when they heard of the fire at the Lakeside Lumber company's plant, in which all three men were interested, except Mrs. Rounsevell and her mother, who had started on a horseback trip to Four Mile lake and did not hear of the fire until late in the day.

flavor's the thing

The flavor of coffee largely determines its value. The better the flavor, the better you like it. If you enjoy good coffee you will enjoy the flavor of HILL'S BROS. "RED CAN" COFFEE

LET'S TALK PIANO

Schools are opening and this is the time of all times to start the children in music. Special prices and lower terms at the Shepherd store enable you to purchase now. Don't say "next year will do" but "let's talk piano."

EARL SHEPHERD
ONE BUSINESS—MUSIC EXCLUSIVELY
507 Main St. Phone 282-J