

BOXING CARD TO BE COMPLETED THIS AFTERNOON

Hanlon Crump has not allowed any time to escape in the signing up of the boxers for the coming tournament in the Scandinavian hall on September 19 and the boxers who are to be used in three events will affix their signatures this afternoon to the contracts.

While the time has been brief to prepare the events, still Promoter Crump has secured, he says some very creditable material to show on the occasion. Letters are beginning to come in, following the announcement that the boxing game is coming on again for regular monthly meetings, and the first event in September is but the forerunner of classy events.

Kid Caveet of Beatty wrote to Mr. Crump in reply to the challenge issued by Bob Allen to meet all comers and is ready and anxious to meet the California mixer. Owing to the time being short on this occasion to get much outside talent, Kid Caveet will be given a chance to demonstrate his ability later if the match with Allen is made. Caveet's letter is on file.

The Herald will have more information to give out tomorrow regarding the boxers signed this afternoon and if possible, the record of each contestant. The fight fans have been hungry for some clean events and with a start in the right direction on September 19, each month the fans will be given a good run for their money, Crump says. Popular prices will prevail on September 19, the promoter also states.

Old Age and Glasses

The gradual decrease of ocular power which accompanies age should not be considered contrary to nature any more than it is for the hair to turn gray, the teeth to become defective or the muscles to weaken.

Besides, as age advances, the other physical faculties are apt to be used less and the eyes more and more.

Artificial aid is therefore to be expected and should always be resorted to at the first indication of falling eyesight. Call and let us fit you with the glasses your eyes require.

CROWDS SEE STRAND'S SHOW

Packed houses, with standing room at a premium, was the favor extended the Galvin World of Follies at the Strand theatre at both performances in this city last night in the comedy, "The Bell Boy." Long before the performance began at 7 o'clock, streams of people wended their way towards the Strand and also, autoists began parking their cars on the south side of the street. A crowd ten deep packed the sidewalk during the first show, waiting their turn for the second performance.

The crowd at each show expressed their approval of the comedy and seemed to enjoy the musical numbers rendered during the act. Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Galvin and "Footsie," delighted the audience with a quaint melody adapted from the "Mother Goose" stories and were recalled a number of times. Johnny and Irene Galvin, in an Italian sketch, "Take Me Back To Sunny Italy," were encored repeatedly at both performances. Mrs. Johnny Galvin particularly pleased her audience with her rendition of the popular classic, "Kiss Me Again." Her voice was sweet and had real melody in it. Her singing stood out from all the rest in clarity and richness.

Tonight starting at 7 o'clock sharp, "The Three Twins" will be shown and it is said to be extremely funny. The second show starts at 9 o'clock. A series of clever musical numbers will be heard tonight in "The Three Twins." Popular prices will continue all week.

VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR STILL HALE AND HEARTY

GEORGE D. SHAW, Springfield, Mass.

"To say that I feel twenty-five years younger, twenty-five years healthier and twenty-five years stronger expresses what Tanlac has done for me better than any other way I can put it," said George D. Shaw, veteran of the Civil War, who now lives at 321 Walnut street, Springfield, Mass.

"I am now seventy-eight years old and I don't hesitate to say I have never known a medicine to equal Tanlac. For fifteen years I was subject to attacks of indigestion that were so bad at times I would have to lay up for a week or two. For a long time I lived on crackers and milk alone as nothing else agreed with me.

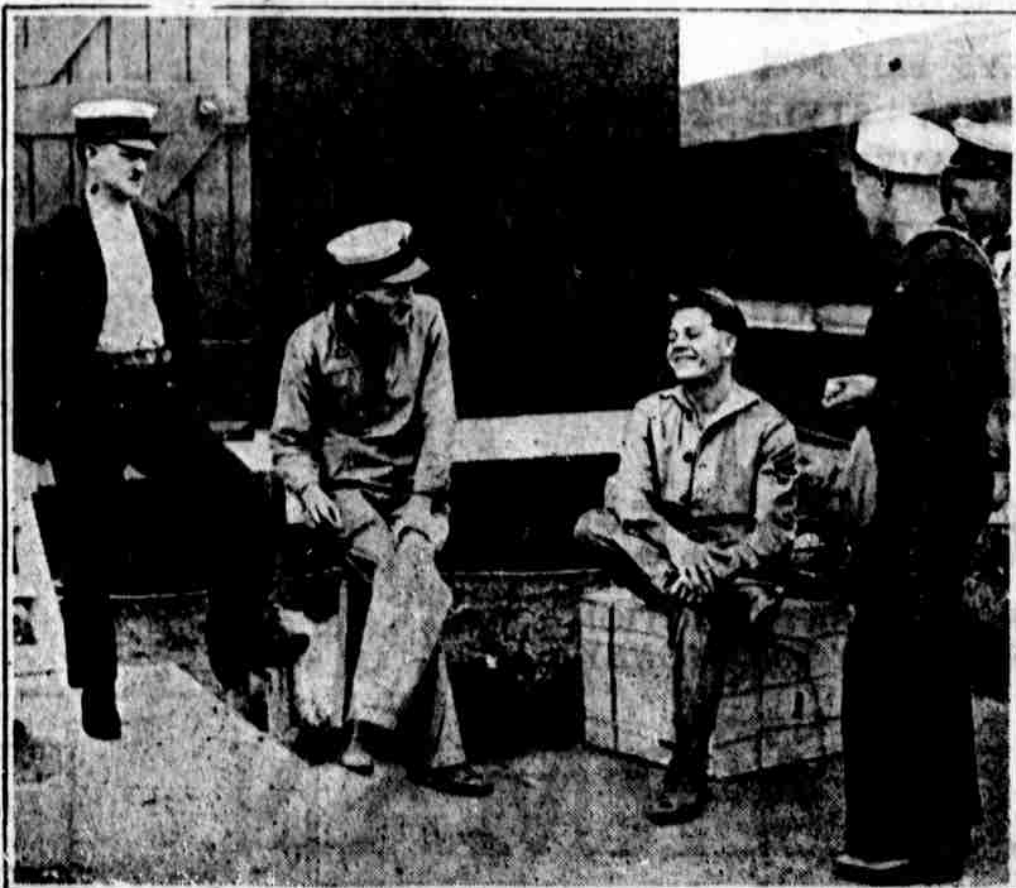

"When I started on Tanlac I weighed only one hundred and seventeen pounds and my days were thought to be numbered. I've been so wonderfully built up, I now weigh one hundred and forty-three pounds and my stomach is as sound as a dollar. In fact I believe I could eat the old army rations again without it hurting me in the least.

"I never miss a chance of saying a good word for Tanlac and I would like to urge the boys of the 'Sixties' who are not feeling right to give it a trial, for I am sure it would put them in line again just as it has me. For a man of my age to have no physical ailment, to be well and strong and enjoy life as he did twenty-five years ago, is certainly something to be thankful for and there is nothing too good that can say for Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold by druggists everywhere. Adv.
