

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. King accompanied by their daughter, Dorothy, who have been visiting with their other daughters, Elizabeth and Muriel at the Klamath Agency since June, left this morning on their return journey to Wabash, Indiana. Misses Elizabeth and Muriel accompanied them into town last evening and were at the train this morning for a last farewell.

Mrs. H. E. Wood, who has been here visiting Miss Madge Dixon, returned this morning to her home in Portland.

Theodore Young, merchant and postmaster of Midland was a county seat visitor this morning attending to business matters. Mr. Young is looking forward to the opening of the duck season; and he has provided a lot of extra shells for hunters who run out of ammunition when they are far from home.

Percy A. Cupper, Oregon state engineer, is again in town on irrigation matters from Salem.

M. E. Silliman arrived in town last night from the Klamath Agency and will be here today on matters of business.

E. N. Hurd, Mr. and Mrs. Leighton, Elliott Hurd, Douglas Hurd and Carrol Hurd, made up a party of Seaside autoists that stopped over in Klamath Falls last night at the White Pelican hotel, on their way from Crater lake.

Miss Francis Beatty came into town yesterday from Crater lake national park, where she has been passing several months with her mother and father who are stationed at the Klamath gate way into the park. She will return today.

Miss Olive Carlton has returned from an extended vacation visit in Eugene, Portland and other valley points.

Miss Lorinda Sauber, an employe at the Klamath Agency, is spending a few days in town having dental work done.

Mrs. B. Turner is in town for a few days from Medford, Oregon.

Paul T. O'Dowd left this morning for Medford, where he is a member of the "Clarion" staff, after several days spent here with his sisters and mother. Mrs. T. P. O'Dowd and daughters, Lucilla and Mary left for Crater lake today and from there they will go to Medford to visit for a few days more before returning to their home in San Francisco.

Mrs. Ed Leever left this morning for her home in Fort Klamath after a night spent here on her return from Oakland, California where she went to enter her son in college.

W. T. Garrett is in town today from Bly purchasing supplies and attending to other matters of business.
