

STAGE IS SET FOR MONDAY NIGHT'S BOUTS

Monday night at the Scandinavian hall, starting at 8:30 o'clock sharp, the first bout in the program for the evening will be started when Kid North and Kid Hall, two local boxers meet to settle the supremacy of this city. Both boys have improved wonderfully since the Fourth of July event and at that time, a very fair preliminary was staged. Both boxers have given their pledge that they will put up a clean contest and assert that a distinct advantage will be shown clearly over the other.

The second event on the program will be a semi-windup between the Montana whirlwind Pug Walters, and Kid Chavez from the sunny state of California. Pug Walters has been training regularly previous to his affixing his signature to a contract yesterday and says that he feels like a bear cat—full of pep and ginger, and ready to demonstrate that he is all wool and a yard wide. Walters announces that he desires to make a good impression with the local sports for he would like to appear in a number of bouts this winter in this city and eventually appear in some of the prominent bouts in Frisco and Portland. Kid Chavez is expected to appear tonight from the south and as he has sent word that he has been in training regularly, the only handicap he will experience will be the altitude. He wrote that he had been training in a mile high altitude, which is greater than the altitude here, so he should really be more than fit to box here.

The main event, however, between the two "Bobs," should be a whirlwind affair as both Bob Allen and Bob Ross are in fine trim. Conscientious training has been done by both men and while the match was made with the understanding that they should fight at catchweights, the fans can look forward to a mill that has not been seen here for many days, despite the overweight of the one battler.

Both Allen and Ross say that they will dispose of the other in a few rounds but unbiased opinion received from a sport who is a good gauge of ability states that he expects the bout to go the full ten rounds as both men are in such good trim. The sport frankly admits he is playing a hunch that the Bob boys will put up a battle equally as good as Sammy Gordon and Babe Blue staged here July Fourth. Ross asserts however that he will polish off Allen and by doing so, be enabled to challenge Billy Huff of Chilquin for a match. Ross says that he can accomplish this desire by disposing of Allen in the first few rounds, while Allen maintains he will have to "go some" to even get a draw decision. The fans can judge the merits of the men best Monday night. Tickets go on sale Monday.

Chanute Pastor Despite Protests Referees Fights

CHANUTE, Kan., Sept. 17.—The Rev. Earl A. Blackman's annual resignation again has been rejected by the congregation of the Christian church of Chanute.

Once a year, regularly, since the war, the Rev. Mr. Blackman has given his parishioners the choice of accepting his advocacy of boxing bouts, dancing and pool, or of hiring a new pastor. While the vote each year has been heavily in his favor, it is by no means unanimous. "You will find me in the boxing ring, the dance halls, and lodge halls, the pool halls, perhaps in the alleys, or wherever men congregate, if I continue to preach to the Christian church of Chanute," was the ultimatum contained in the ministers' recent resignation.

Not only was the resignation rejected, the congregation voted its pastor an increase in salary. This he refused to accept, declaring he was amply paid, and that he earns something in addition to his salary by refereeing boxing bouts. He makes no secret of the fact. Furthermore, he declares he has a "double reason for enhancing his earning capacity."

"Twins recently came to our house," he said. "If some person is to be paid for refereeing and I do the work satisfactorily, I sure to have the money to help support those twins."

His services as a referee are today in much demand in Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma. His presence in the ring is regarded as a guarantee of a clean fight. His influence in making boxing a popular sport has been felt throughout this section.

It was while he was chaplain of the 137th infantry of the 35th division in France that the Rev. Mr. Blackman became a devotee of the fistie game. He was known as "the fighting parson of the 35th" and justly so, for he not only supervised but engaged in many boxing bouts.

In his own church the Chanute minister has put into practice his theory that the church should sponsor both boxing and dancing in the church.

Delightful and interesting was the party given Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Newell, honoring Miss Betty Grey, who will leave in the near future for Boston and other eastern points for an indefinite stay. Miss Grey was the recipient of many beautiful flowers the occasion also being that of her birthday. Mrs. Newell, is a charming hostess and her home was made lovely with great bowls of gay flowers. About 11:30 a long table appeared before the guests laden with all sorts of elaborate refreshments and the card tables were deserted for the dining table. The guests on this occasion were: Misses Alice McCourt, Jaunita Howe, Ellen McVeigh, Ger-

The Scandia Society was host last night for another of its successful dancing parties at the Scandinavian hall. The 75 couples present were members and their guests enjoyed what they insist was the finest affair of the sort ever held here. A program earlier in the evening was participated in by little Miss Thompson, who danced two numbers, the Butterfly dance and the Scottish Highland fling; Mr. Fylling was presented in a violin solo accompanied by Mrs. Melby. After the program the refreshment committee received the guests in the dining room at tables laden with refreshments and decorated with home grown roses and greens. From the dining room everybody returned to the dance floor and tripped the light fantastic until almost morning.

A social afternoon was enjoyed by a number of ladies yesterday at the home of Mrs. L. G. Van Miss Elizabeth Igl and Miss Margaret Zimmerman, both of Minneapolis, who have been here for ten days visiting at the home of Miss Igl's brother, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl, left Friday morning for Portland. While here the two young ladies were entertained at a number of interesting social affairs. Among them were an afternoon on Tuesday given by Mrs. E. G. Dreher, honoring the Misses Igl and Zimmerman, Wednesday of last week and on Thursday of this week Mrs. G. C. Lorenz was hostess at two lovely dinner parties for the visitors and on Monday night Mrs. Igl entertained for her guests.

Other affairs honoring Mrs. Pankey and Mrs. Haldie were given on Thursday at the home of Mrs. C. F. Setzer on High street. In the afternoon Mrs. Setzer was hostess for a number of ladies who spent the afternoon sewing. The house was adorned with asters and moun-
