

The Strand

THEATRE
 Finest Picture Projection in Southern Oregon
SUNDAY
 The greatest combination Picture and Vaudeville Show ever seen in Klamath Falls.
4 Acts of Vaudeville

The Lewis Family of Lyceum Players
 Singers, Dancers, Musicians, Comedians, Magicians, Ventriloquists, Comedy Plays and Sketches
 One of the best families of entertainers before the public today. Guaranteed to please; and the season's most sensational picture—
Arthur Hornblow's most successful, soul-absorbing story,
"The Mask"
 FEATURING
Hedda Nova, Jack Holt and Everybody's Darling
Little Mickey Moore
 ALSO
Ford Weekly and Comedy

Personal Mention

J. W. Haskins of Merrill is a business visitor in town today.
 E. R. Reames arrived last night from San Francisco to look after business interests in this city.
 William Hadley, Frank Hedrick and William Corum were business visitors from Merrill today.
 Mrs. G. W. Mason and Mrs. A. E. Albert from Pelican city were shoppers in town yesterday.
 Mrs. Tom McDonald has returned from San Francisco, where she has been for the past three weeks visiting friends and relatives. She accompanied her son, Joe McDonald Jr., who has been enrolled as a student at St. Mary's College, Oakland, for the coming year.
 William J. Owsley of Silver Lake left this morning for Eugene to enter the University for the year.
 C. S. Bldman, a government employe from Boise, Idaho, who was sent here in regard to the construction of the cement flume on the Merrill road, left this morning for Boise, after spending several weeks here.
 Mrs. C. H. Anderson and little daughter of this place were passengers on this morning's train for Silverton, to visit her sister, Mrs. T. F. Rahn. They expect to return in a few days.
 Ward A. Dwight, a lumberman of San Francisco, returned this morning, after spending a few days with local lumbermen.

A GUARANTEED SHOW
Continuous Shows Sunday, starts 1, 3, 5, 7, 9.
Come Early

This show will be hard to beat

TONIGHT

The World's Champion
 Lady Rifle Shot
Texas Guinan
 — IN —
"The Gun Woman"
 A cyclone of riding, shooting, fighting and real cowboys and westerners. A great picture.

WHAT WILL YOU TAKE TO THE FAIR
 OCTOBER 6, 7, 8?

Mail Orders Promptly Filled

Our Fall Display of New Apparel Modes

IS GRATIFYINGLY FILLING THE NEEDS OF ECONOMICAL SHOPPERS. SHOPPERS WITH A KEEN SENSE OF ECONOMY, THOUGH DEMANDING STYLE GARMENTS, ARE FINDING THEIR WISHES FILLED BY THE NEW DRESSES, COATS AND SUITS DISPLAYED HERE NOW.

Autumn Suits

The low price does not indicate the real worth of these extremely modish garments. There is nothing newer shown in the fashion world, and many are copies of the most exclusive models as designed by the greatest modistes of Europe and America. You may select from Autumn's favored colors offered in all the new materials.

Prices:
$19.50 to $65.00

New Autumn Coats

If you are familiar with Moe's Coat values you know that this season they have stood out beyond all others. We regard today's offerings as perhaps the most important contribution the Fashion Salons have made to date. Materials include Pollyana, Bolivia, Velours and Broadcloth. Many fur-trimmed are shown in the new Fall shades. Prices:

$19.50 to $95.00

Dresses

The fashions of the hour, smart, distinctive, correct.

Street Dresses of Twill, Tricotine and Picotine; navy and black, with beautiful embroidered and beaded effects. Also plain-tailored styles with self-fabric trimmings or braid.

The Dresses of Silk feature the straight silhouette with the loose, low waistline. Most of the skirts favor the side drapings. Bugles, cabochons and cut-steel beads as well as fringes are favorite trimmings. There is no disputing the continued vogue of black. Trimmings of red and white are in the predominance. Evening and dinner dresses have great color charm, such as lilac, goldenrod, jade, etc.

Prices $19.50 to $65.00

Modart Corsets

Poise—When a woman possesses the quality of carrying herself to advantage she is said to have poise. Modart Corsets give perfect poise to the figure, tends to distribute the bodily weight properly; a graceful carriage is the result. Our expert Corsetiere will be glad to give you a trial fitting.

Blouses

of rare charm

In rich autumn colors, Boise rose, navy, brown, canard, Yellowstone, fungi, blossom, rust, Mohawk of Crepe de Chine, Canton Crepe, Georgette Crepe and Kittensear. Many embellished with beads or fagotting.

Our present display of Blouses shows a stimulating assortment in design, fabric and color combinations; styles that are most appealing as well as reasonable in price.

Prices $6.00 to $20.00

Bathrobes

Of warm Flannels prettily trimmed in scores of becoming ways in many modes of originality.

Forrest Mills Underwear
 Prepare for the cold mornings and evenings by getting the right weight Underwear. Stocks now complete of the famous brand.

Queen Quality SHOES

TRIPPING gaily along the Boulevards of Fashion you will see more Queen Quality shoes than ever this season.

For the distinction of Queen Quality style is more than ever sought after; their glove-like fit and perfect freedom are nationally recognized, and their prices—mostly $8 to $12—are just where you want them for the quality and style essential to the well-dressed woman.

And in buying, look for the famous trade mark. You will find it stamped on every pair.

THE BOOTERY
CHAS. P. MAGUIRE

713 Main St. KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

P. Pillan of Weed left this morning after a two-day stay here.
 Nathan Durkee returned to Yreka this morning after spending several days here on business. Mr. Durkee has been in poor health for some time, and his many friends will be glad to know he is recovering. He still has a nurse in attendance.
 Emil Ellvanden of San Francisco left this morning after spending several days here looking for a business location. Mr. Ellvanden is a merchant tailor.
 J. M. Coin of Philadelphia, and associated with the Sterling Lumber company, is journeying to the Bay City after spending a couple of days here with the local lumbermen. Mr. Coin is a lumber buyer, and this is one of his first trips to this country.
 L. R. Woodhull, a wheat buyer for the Sperry flour mills of Sacramento, left this morning after spending several days here with J. W. Kerns.
 C. J. McCollum, a farmer of the Worden district, was in town yesterday afternoon on matters of business.
 N. H. Martin of the Tule Lake district is in town for the day attending to business.
 Miss Mildred Oleson of Seattle has returned home after spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Ganong. Miss Oleson will resume her studies in the University of Washington for the term.
 Mrs. C. J. Ferguson, county superintendent of schools, left this morning with an industrial exhibit from the different schools to be entered at the State Fair at Salem.
 George B. Chandler, advance man for the Sells-Floto circus, is in town.
 Mrs. Chas. G. Twoby of Dorris is on a shopping tour here for a day or two.
 Clarence Miller of Kirkford is in town on business.
 Mrs. C. H. Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Huffman and Mrs. L. C. Griffith compose a party of tourists who are stopping here for a few days.
 Miss Grace Sears of Oakland, Calif., arrived here on last night's train, and will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Barrett for an extended visit.
 J. Steiger, a lumberman of Chillicothe, is in town in regard to business matters.
 T. J. Jackson, a merchant of Fort Klamath, is registered at one of the local hotels. He is on one of his regular business trips.
 J. E. Campbell, a resident of Lakeview, is spending a few days in town.

The Price of BREAD
 Is Cut from 10c
 to 8c
 AT THE
SIXTH ST. BAKERY