

CENTRAL FIGURES IN ARBUCKLE CASE

Arbuckle

Witnesses in Arbuckle Case

Miss Zey Prevon, left, and Miss Jeanne Dolly Clark, right, are important witnesses in the case of "Fatty" Arbuckle, movie comedian, facing trial in connection with the death of Virginia Rappe, film actress and model, following a booze party in Arbuckle's rooms.

Party Guest

Miss Alice Blake is one of the witnesses in the case of "Fatty" Arbuckle, who is awaiting trial in San Francisco as a result of the death of Virginia Rappe, following a booze party in Arbuckle's rooms. Miss Blake was a guest at the party.

"Fatty" Arbuckle's attorneys, left to right: Milton M. Cohen of Los Angeles, Frank H. Dominguez of Los Angeles and Charles H. Brennan of San Francisco. They will defend the movie comedian at his trial, outgrowing the death of Virginia Rappe.

U'Ren

Milton U'Ren, assistant district attorney of San Francisco, who will probably be in direct charge of the prosecution of "Fatty" Arbuckle, movie comedian, in connection with the death of Virginia Rappe, film actress.

It isn't always the strongest person who has the best hold on life.

NOTICE OF CONTEST.

Serial No. 010475 Contest No. 1212 Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Lakeview, Oregon.

Sept., 1, 1921 To Heirs-If-any of Edwin Johnson, Deceased, of Unknown address, Contestee: You are hereby notified that Joseph W. Noonchester, who gives Bend, Oregon, as his postoffice address, did on September 1, 1921, file in this office his duly corroborated application to contest and secure the cancellation of your Homestead Entry No. 010475, Serial No. 010475 made August 22, 1917, for SW 1/4 NE 1/4 of Section 11; W 1/2 NE 1/4 and NE 1/4 SE 1/4 of Section 14, Township 24, South, Range 8, East of the Willamette Meridian, and 1/2 acre grounds for his contest he alleges that said Edwin Johnson died about November 1920 and that the heirs-if-any- of said deceased have wholly failed to cultivate said homestead or any part thereof since the death of said entryman, but have wholly abandoned said tract for more than six months last past. That said failure to cultivate said tract was not due to their employment in the army or navy of the United States in time of war or otherwise.

You are, therefore, further notified that the said allegations will be taken as confessed, and your said entry will be cancelled without further right to be heard, either before this office or on appeal, if you fail to file in this office within twenty days after the FOURTH publication of this notice, as shown below, your answer, under oath, specifically responding to these allegations of contest, together with due proof that you served a copy of your answer on the said contestant either in person or by registered mail.

You should state in your answer the name of the post-office to which you desire future notices to be sent to you.

JAS. F. BURGESS, Register.

Witness

Miss Betty Campbell, one of the guests at the "Fatty" Arbuckle booze party in San Francisco. She says she was annoyed at the party by one of the men guests.

LONE PINE NEWS

Maggie Tallman is attending high school at Klamath Falls.

Agnes and Chester Enman had an accident Thursday morning while on their way to school, when their horse got frightened at a burro being driven with some sheep, and ran into a wire fence and was pretty badly cut. Fortunately neither of the children were seriously hurt.

Lone Pine is pretty well represented at Merrill high school, there being eleven from here attending this year. They are: Elmer Buesing, Phyrne Corum, Rolf and Charlotte Geertson, Agnes and Chester Enman, Estin and Kenneth Kiger, Loise and Joyce Sigford and Bessie Tallman.

J. E. Enman and family visited A. E. Bensinger at Swan Lake Sunday.

Grandpa Tallman of Slasson is visiting at Mrs. June Tallman's home.

The Kiger family took in the circus at Klamath Falls Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Enman and Wm. Nieman went to the Bryant Mt. sawmill Sunday.

Carl Kiger started to the Lone Pine school Tuesday.
