Society

Miss Cecilia McMahon and Mrs. Byron Noud were joint hostesses at a delightful sewing bee Tuesday night at the home of the latter. The Spanish supper served at the close of the evening was one of the enjoyable features of the affair. The guests upon this occasion were: Mesdames Fred Wygant, Hattie Hines, A. B. Jones, Grant Nelson, Sydney Abbott, and the Misses Elizabeth Sullivan, Faye West, and Beulah Jarvis.

Wednesday afternoon was the date of an interesting afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. C. Elliott, 421 Oak street. The honor guest on this occasion was Mrs. Everett Keagle. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess in the late afternoon to the following guests: Mesdames William Sandham, Charles J. Bruder, Richard Brown, Ellen Piel, James Foster, W. J. Horbelt, C. R. Clendenning, Mrs. Keagle and the hostess.

Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt was hostess to the Bridge club Thursday, at her home on South Riverside avenue. The house was adorned with bowls of sweetpeas, and a light luncheon was served during the afternoon. Miss Marie McMillan was fortunate in playing and the prize went to her.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schallack, at their lovely home in Hot Springs.

Society turned out with enthusiasm for the "rummage" sale, which was sponsored by the ladies of the St. Paul's Episcopal Guild. The sale was held in the Grand Central Market and was well attended by interested buyers from all parts of the county.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Newell was the scene of a delightful 500 party Friday evening when Miss Loretta Jennings and Miss Grace Farrand entertained for a number of their young friends. The house was gay with sweetpeas and ferns. When the individual scores were counted, it was found that Miss Verda Cozad held high and Mrs. Frank B. Robinson the low score and prizes were awarded accordingly. At the close of the evening the hostesses assisted by Mrs. Newell prepared elaborate refreshments for the guests. Those present follow: Misses Alice Blackford, Minnie Barnum, Clara Calkins, Verda Cozad, Irene Conway, Mary Craig, Marjorie Delzell, Agnes Driscoll, Madge Dixon, Ruth Dixon, Ruby Fenwick, Elizabeth Keys, Florence Pfeuger, Florence Porter, Elizabeth Sullivan, Faye West, Margaret Worden, Maybelle Leavitt, Mesdames H. D. Newell, Horace Manning and Frank B. Robinson.

A dinner honoring Mrs. R. McLeod, who left for her home in Kansas, Thursday, was given by her daughter, Mrs. Sam Smith on Wednesday. The guests were members of the family. Those present follow: Mrs. McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Myron McLeod and family, Mrs. Edward Saunders and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith and son, Gordon.

The members of the Elks lodge were hosts last night at the first dance of a series, which they expect to give throughout the winter season. There was a large attendance of members and their guests and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Herbert D. Newell was hostess at a bridge party for a large number of ladies at her home in Hot Springs addition. The color scheme and decorative effects were carried out with panicles, sweetpeas and greens. An elaborate luncheon was served by the hostess late in the afternoon. The guests on this occasion were: Mesdames E. I. Applegate, P. A. Albertson, J. C. Brockenbrough, George R. Barnhart, H. E. Calkins, T. C. Campbell, R. E. Dewese, George Forge, Everett
