

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

We're Starting Something! Dear Junius:—An intellectual giant of the male species called at our house yesterday and in conversation with a female of the species made the remark that "woman possessed no intellect." Not having a "safety valve" department in your paper and the writer being all ready to blow up with indignation, I am asking your column to tell your readers what sort of punishment should be given to a man who would dare to speak thusly to or about us. I would also like to have other women air their views through your interesting column.

Reformed I was quick to seize on your "Number please?" As a butt for my thoughts with you and your kind I got congested. To the flames of the deepest pit I have stormed, I have cursed and—by far the worst—Have intemperately asked flirtation. But you've kept your head and have calmly said, "I will give you information." I'm the kind of bloke who once saw a joke in the pointless "Central" whence, but, all the same, now I bless your name And your cheery "Number, please?" For when Son, thirteen ate the apples green And needed a doctor's care.— Or the house caught fire, you were on the wire— You were there, you bet, you were there.

Just a regular guy of the mob and I— A roughneck? I say you said it! But you've seen me through when I needed you. An I'm here to give you credit. And I pray for grace that I may erase My errors and my sins— I used to scoff, but my hat is off To the voice with a smile that wins.

Utter Repose. "This human statuary is remarkable. How can a man remain perfectly motionless that long?" "I got a hired man kin beat him," declared Bill Flingley. We heard a lady telling news To friends who did not heed'er. O lady, that's the stuff we use. We want it for the reader.

Phonetic. Doctor Winters—(pointing to the eye test board on which are the letters P X Y X X O Q X, etc.)—"Can you read that?" Patient—"Lumme— I can read it, but I'm blest if I can pronounce it." Goat Glands Perhaps. Idealist (with newspaper)—"Just think of it! A couple get married a few days ago after a courtship which lasted fifty years."

BONANZA NEWS Mrs. Maude Hottinger who has been away for a few months returned Sunday for an extended visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Bechholdt. On Tuesday evening, September 27, members of the Methodist church gave a farewell reception in honor of the pastor the Rev. Mr. Chapman.

who is leaving this week to attend conference. Music and games were enjoyed by all. One of the features of the evening was the singing by the Junior choir which Mr. Chapman has been training since he began his work here. The organist, Miss Birdie Hamaker, furnished music for the occasion.

INFLUENCED BY SON'S RECOVERY

AFTER SUFFERING FOR FIFTEEN YEARS PORTLAND WOMAN IS SOON RESTORED

"When I saw how wonderfully my son was helped by taking Tanlac I began taking it, too, and I have been benefited in every way," said Mrs. Jelsmine Conal, 307 Sheridan street, Portland, Oregon. "When anybody has suffered like I did for fifteen years then they know how to appreciate good health, and I believe I am the happiest woman in the state today. My trouble began with my stomach, and during all these years I never knew what it was to sit down and eat what I wanted. Although I lived on a strict diet, never eating any fruits or starchy food, I still had violent attacks of indigestion at times. I had awful headaches, too, and was so nervous I rarely got a good night's rest. Tanlac has made me feel the way I have wanted to feel for so many years, and I have not a trace of any of my old troubles. It certainly is the grandest medicine in the world." Tanlac and Tanlac Vegetable Pills are sold by druggists everywhere.

DORRIS PERSONALS DORRIS, Calif., Oct. 1.— Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. William G. Hagelstein are attending the county fair this weekend at Yreka. They drove to the county seat in Mr. McDonald's car. George F. Dexter of Montague, large stockman of that section, was business visitor in Dorris yesterday. Mrs. R. B. Pass has departed for Oakland, where she will make her home this winter. She will be followed soon by Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wilkins. Mrs. Wilkins is her stepdaughter. Mrs. Gerald F. Warren is visiting with her parents in San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Chandler of Oklahoma were Dorris visitors yesterday on business. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Marshall of Bayard, Nebraska, have been visiting with Mrs. Marshall's brother, who operates the local barber shop. They drove through by automobile visiting the principal scenic points enroute. After a trip north to Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall will return to Dorris.

Mrs. Jennie Lang is in San Francisco for a short business trip.

Several threshers are at work in the valley harvesting the crop of rye, wheat and oats. The principal grain crop raised here is rye, although some wheat is grown as well as other grains. Rye is being shipped almost daily from the local warehouse to San Francisco markets.

Mrs. Margaret Kerwin has purchased the Mt. Shasta rooming house from Mr. and Mrs. William Dexter. Her plans for the future conduct of the place are not fully decided.

The epidemic of measles which visited Dorris last week and was instrumental in closing the grammar school for ten days has somewhat abated. No serious cases have been reported, the only disturbing effect being sore throats.

H. J. Goff, manager of the Associated Lumber & Box plant here, has just returned from San Francisco, where he spent a few days on business.

W. F. Hipps of Macdoel was a business visitor in town Wednesday.

H. C. Young of Macdoel spent yesterday morning in Dorris attending to matters of business. He conducts the hotel at Macdoel.

Hot Water Each Morning Puts Roses in Your Cheeks.

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of insubstantial material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, forms toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body. If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire
