WHY ACCIDENTAL INJURIES DEMAND CHIROPRACTIC

MONDAY HEALTH TALK No. 8

The spinal column being composed of segments is necessarily flexible. A fall on the slippery pavement, down stairs, or any distance from a few inches to many feet, it is almost inevitable, will cause some degree of disturbance to the twenty-four movable bones of the spine to the correct alignment of spinal column.

W. G. Mainorise, Midale, Sask., Canada, reports the following instances in a contribution to the American Journal of Clinical Medicine:

While a man was using a crowbar, a wheel fell on it, giving him a severe jolt. He came to me for relief from an intense pain in the head. Palpation showed tenderness at the fourth cervical (spinal bone in the neck). I reduced it with immediate relief of pain.

"A woman, three years before coming to me, had fallen striking the back of her neck. Since she has had seizures resembling epilepsy. I found the second cervical displaced. After its reduction the seizures stopped."

"Other cases have shown me that adjustment of the spinal column is potent in neuritis, lumbago, sciatica, neuralgia, and headache."

In case of accident, get immediate attention for the spine from a chiropractor. For the correction of diseases already established, it is equally efficient.
