

The Office Cat

BY JUNIOR

In a Tight Place

A man went hunting in a deserted forest. A terrible storm came up. The hunter ran for shelter. But there was none. It began to rain. He crawled into a hollow log. It fitted snugly. It rained and rained. Then it rained some more. The water soaked through the wood. The log began to swell. When the storm was over, the hunter could not get out. He strained till he was blue in the face. But the log held tight. Exhausted, he gave up. He knew that he would starve to death. Like a drowning man, he saw his whole life flash before him, especially his mistakes. He suddenly remembered that he had never started a bank account, and that his wife and baby, penniless, would starve. It made him feel so small that he was able to crawl out of the log without difficulty.

PUNCTURED VISIONS

At The Theatres

THE STRAND Large crowds witnessed the Strand performance yesterday afternoon and evening and greatly enjoyed the big gypsy feature "The Oakley Affair," and the Charley Chaplin comedy scream. "One A. M." The Chaplin picture runs a hearty laugh to every inch. The big gypsy film is a close second to Burroughs other big success "Tarsan of the Apes," according to spectators. The same bill will be repeated tonight for the benefit of those who did not see yesterday's performances.

THE LIBERTY Another success has been scored by Jack Hoxie in his latest Arrow release entitled "Cyclone Bliss." This is the second of the series of Jack Hoxie features and will be shown at the Liberty theatre Tuesday. "Cyclone Bliss" is an unusual western feature and affords Jack Hoxie numerous opportunities to display his ability as a horse-man and as a fighter. In addition to Jack Hoxie, "Cyclone Bliss" has a cast of characters who are all well known to the fans here. After scoring a big bit in "A Man from Nowhere," Jack Hoxie has outdone himself in "Cyclone Bliss." This picture is a worthy vehicle for Jack Hoxie, his riding is unusually daring and there are several thrills that he gives the spectators in this picture. In addition to his riding, Hoxie is called upon to stage a big fight which is one of the punches in this feature.

Fishing and Hunting Are Reported Fine In Keno District

Fine bags of quail were secured yesterday in the Keno district by a number of Klamath Falls sportsmen and, incidentally, some of the nicest strings of Dolly Varden trout caught this year were also hooked. The catch of trout made by Prof. Robert Goetz and his son Robert Jr., was freely commented upon by visitors at the Keno dam powerhouse for the trout ran about 12 inches each and between the two fishermen, 15 trout were taken.

Three buck deer were killed near Keno by hunters, and employees of the power company report that kills have been made nearly every day this week in that vicinity.

Painters at Work In Many Places

The spirit of clean up, paint up and dress up seems to have taken hold of many merchants and property owners in this city and at the present time, painters are seen at work on the establishments of C. F. W. Werner, K. Sugarman, American National Bank, Army and Navy store and Hippodrome Dance Hall. Work on the Pastime Billiard parlor will start within the coming week, Mr. Alnutt says. Painting as a general rule, the painters say, starts in the spring months and well up into summer but this spurt now by the progressive firms mentioned seems to indicate that the owners feel that prices are right now and the present time is the best to have the work done. Other building owners are considering the possibility of having painting done before winter sets in, painting contractors say.

MARKET AND GROCERY EMPLOYEES IN PICNIC

The first annual picnic of the employees of the Lincoln market and Lincoln grocery took place yesterday when four carloads of employees and friends drove to the California Oregon Power company dam at Keno and spent the day.

Proprietors H. H. Jenkins and C. F. W. Werner provided a splendid breakfast, dinner and supper for their guests. The picnic will be an annual affair each year during October and is said to be the first one given this year by any of the smaller local establishments. Get results by using class ads.

What Can be Done for Chronic Throat Trouble Monday Health Talk No. 6 The technical name for sore throat is pharyngitis. It is another name for cold in the throat or catarrh of the throat. The attack when of the acute variety begins with dryness and soreness of the throat, slight chilliness and fever. The fever may not run over 102 degrees. There is a constant desire to clear the throat. When the trouble is chronic there is a constant cough, clearing of the throat and hoarseness. The chiropractor finds tenderness of spinal nerves in the lower neck region. This tenderness is traceable from the spine around to the region of the throat where tenderness is general. Chiropractic spinal adjustments to lift the pressure of bone upon nerve tissue at the spinal nerve opening are usually followed by a feeling of relief almost immediately. In the following news item, what happened by accident, is what the chiropractor is bringing about constantly by science and skill. VOICE LOST IN BLAST IS RECOVERED IN A DIVE... LONDON—Thomas Clanwaring, of Silvertown, who lost his speech in the Silvertown explosion, which killed his mother's sister and brother, came to Baldock to search for work. A poor swimmer, Clanwaring went in at Letchworth and dived into the deep end by mistake. Finding himself in danger, he shouted and became violently active. He was helped out and found he had recovered his speech.—Chicago Herald and Examiner, August 2, 1921. WHEN HEALTH BEGINS depends on when you telephone 539-J for an appointment.
