Legend of the Lotus.

The lotus is closely identified with the ancient Egyptian religion, and was dedicated to Osiris, no Egyptian thinking of approaching a temple without three of the blossoms in his hand. The name was given it, according to mythology, when a beautiful nymph of the same name, heartbroken over the coldness of Hercules, went to Hebe for sympathy, and by her was transformed into a flower. The Greek hero taking ship shortly afterward with Hylas, a youth he loved as his own son, came to an island where the latter landed, and searched for a spring. He found one in the center of a pool, the pool being covered with beautiful blossoms. As Hylas stared at them, Lotus in her nymph form, emerged from the blossom and drew him to her arms, and then to the depths of the pool, where he drowned.
