"Jack, you don't look like much of a musician but you certainly can make that player-piano sing." "You're behind the times, Frank. A fellow doesn't need long hair to play a Gulbransen well. Learned it in a couple of weeks."

Any Man Can Get Real Music Out of a Gulbransen

Why do men hunt, fish, swim, skate, play ball, golf, tennis, pool, cards? Something to do. Why do they smoke when quiet? Something to do. It's part of the secret of Gulbransen, success—something interesting for men to do at home.

Thousands of men, who wouldn't willingly LISTEN to music 15 minutes, will play the Gulbransen for hours. Something to do. A few just pedal, and let it go at that; there are poor players at all games. But most men try to play the Gulbransen well—and succeed with astonishing satisfaction.

It's certainly the best single handed indoor game. Something new every minute. Real skill to develop. Pleasure in entertaining friends. Solace for the soul when things go wrong. The Gulbransen comes to you with instruction rolls that teach you how to play.
