

BOXING SHOW FOR NOVEMBER 12TH PLANNED

D. H. Crump has applied for permission of the boxing commission to stage another boxing tournament on November 12 at McDonald's hall, between Main and Klamath avenue on Sixth street. The card for the occasion will be investigated and the signatures to the contracts vise.

The main event is scheduled to be ten rounds of fast and furious boxing between Bob Ross of this city and Billy Huff of Chiloquin. Of the two boxers, Huff is perhaps better known than his opponent for in nearly every card of importance in this section for the past two years, Huff has been on the program and has acquitted himself well. Ross made his first appearance on September 12 at the Scandinavian hall when he administered a stiff beating to Bobbie Allen, securing a knockout in the fifth round. Peculiar as it may seem, Huff has also fought Allen and secured a knockout in the fifth round. Such a comparison would show that Huff and Ross are apparently evenly matched, both men fighting the same man and winning by the same rout in the fifth round. The men are matched at 150 pounds, weight to be made at 6 o'clock, November 12, before Dr. H. D. L. Stewart, medical examiner.

The six-round semi-final has been signed up for by Bobbie Allen of Klamath Falls, and H. D. Walsh of Medford at catchweights and a good event is expected to result. Allen's showing against Ross on September 12 retrieved the name that he had been given by some critics and spectators at the match stated that he was game all the way through the five rounds until sent to dreamland. Walsh is well known in Medford and has the reputation of being a fast man.

The first number on the card is the four round preliminary between Kid Walsh and Battling North, both lightweights. While Walsh has been given the laurels of victory once over North by a clean knockout, still North says that he now is in better condition than ever before and will win a decision on November 12. Walsh is a little heavier and taller than North but the latter says that he will overcome these disadvantages by fast work and by clever footwork.

November 12 will be a red letter date in the history of the boxing game in this city and unless the sporting-fraternity support the events which are staged for their benefit the game will simply be dropped and become a dead issue. On November 12, the decision will be made and it will be final. The sporting element of this city clamored for the revival of the game and secured permission from the council to have a boxing commission appointed. The council and the boxing commission have performed their share but many of the sports have proved of the "knot-hole type", post climbers, roof birds and fence climbers. In view of the fact that McDonald's Hall denies them the opportunity of any "free privileges," their caliber will be measured by the number who turn out to witness the contest. Tickets will go on sale at the Pastime Billiard parlor, Jewel Cafe, Rex Cafe, Club Cafe, Eagle Pool room, Mecca poolroom and other places.

Promoter Crump states that the coming contest will be one which will not offend any lady who attends and desires to have a large attendance of the fairer sex at the coming event. Under the present boxing commission, no event has been other than a clean show, no profanity nor offensive scenes to annoy the ladies being tolerated.

Witnesses Return From Medford Court

MEDFORD, Oct. 13.—Many of the Klamath Indians who were here the past week attending the United States court session have returned home, but there are still some left. The annual fall term of the federal district court here brings considerable extra money to Medford, as witnesses, attorneys and principals and their relatives in the various cases up for trial come here from various parts of southern Oregon and usually remain at least two days, to say nothing of the United States court officials and attaches who remain during the entire term. The Indians are good spenders, both men and women, and do considerable buying in the stores.

ENTIRE STAFF OF PLAYERS TO GO TO ASHLAND

Ashland can now prepare many yards of mourning bunting for Saturday night for their football team is doomed to meet a defeat on their home grounds and in the midst of their own supporters—and Klamath Falls is to be the team which will teach them that what little football they started out with this season was nothing more than a game of little girls "ball and jacks."

The reason for this feeling came yesterday when Coach "Hi" Wood announced on the football field that every man who had turned out this season for practice was to be taken along with the first team to Ashland. This favor was shown because of the conscientious effort made by the scrubs to absorb and play with the same zeal that the more experienced players do—and the coach hit upon this suitable reward to have them continue the season out, building up the machine which it is believed will have an opportunity to play a northern state winner at the close of the regular season, presumably at Eugene.

The news that the 22 men were all to be taken along created enthusiasm which showed up in the practice games and the first lineup had a difficult time holding back the second team members. Spectators say that the second team men wrestled the regulars with all the fierceness that they would an opposing out-of-town team. Such practice hardens the regulars up for their trials.

MIDLAND, Oct. 13.—Six carloads of cattle was delivered here Tuesday to Luke Walker to be shipped to San Francisco.

Chaley Drew is shipping one carload from here Tuesday.

L. P. Clayburg who represents J. G. Johnson of San Francisco has shipped three carloads of cattle to San Francisco Tuesday.

Geo. Watt from Klamath Falls is shipping eleven carloads of sheep to the Western Market company of San Francisco.

James O'Kieffe, stockman from Klamath Falls was a Midland visitor Tuesday.

C. O. Prentice, stockman from Klamath Falls was a Midland visitor Tuesday.

Chas. T. De Lap, stockman from Klamath Falls, was a Midland visitor Tuesday.

C. W. Warren and Geo. LeFevre, stockmen from Bly, were Midland visitors Tuesday.

W. W. Mooney from San Francisco was in Midland shipping cattle Tuesday. Mr. Mooney and L. P. Clayburg of Klamath Falls, represent the J. G. Johnson firm of San Francisco.

R. O. Roberts, stockman from Olene, was a Midland visitor Tuesday.

Fred Stukel, Merrill stockman, was in Midland shipping stock Tuesday.

R. S. Adams, stockman from Merrill, was a Midland visitor Tuesday.

B. N. Lervin, plumber for the S. P. was a Midland visitor today. Mr. Lervin sees that the stock is well provided with water.

The stockmen who ship from Midland have petitioned the railroad commission to place a station agent at Midland. Stockmen and business men of Midland are very much handicapped because there is no agent there to look after the stock shipments and to notify those interested when a shipment takes place so that the stock will receive the proper care. The citizens have also petitioned for a station agent as it seems so inconvenient to get along without one on account of the freight that is shipped in and out.

HEAVY RYE CROP.

The Midland Threshing company reports that the crop harvested on the William Worden rye land went as high as 60 bushels of rye to the acre. This is considered an unusually good crop as this was the first year the land was cultivated.

The crop of rye on the high land of William Shirrel place harvested 20 bushels to the acre. This is considered very good, as it was beardless rye. Charles Patten's rye straw stood 6 feet this year and harvested 16 bushels to the acre.

Thomas J. Lyons also has an unusually good crop of rye. It also averaged 16 bushels to the acre. G. G. Maxwell from Gazelle, Cal., is a Midland visitor today.

The Midland school will close Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, as Miss Lillian Knapp, local teacher is attending the county institute that is being held in Klamath Falls.

John Del Fatti was a Klamath Falls visitor Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hooper were Klamath Falls visitors Tuesday.

Wm. Tingly was a Klamath Falls visitor Tuesday.

CRIPPLE HIKES FAR
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 12.— Newark, N. J., to Los Angeles is a long hike, and Warren A. Hogle claims an unusual record, walking 2698 of the 3527 miles, and negotiating the distance in 59 days, on one leg. He made it on crutches, he said, and averaged 50 to 60 miles a day, with 829 miles of auto "lifts" included.

Brother Against Brother

With Yankees and the Giants opposed in the World Series it will be a case of brother against brother, as it was last year. Bob Meusel (right) is right fielder of the Yankees and Emil Mount is left fielder of the Giants. Last year Doc Johnston on the Cleveland team was pitted against Jimmie Johnston, his brother, on the Brooklyn team.
