TOM MIX in "The Heart of Texas Ryan"

A GREAT SELIG PRODUCTION. Of this picture Col. Selig says: "I consider 'The Heart of Texas Ryan' the greatest five-reel picture I ever produced"

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUM

TO BE—OR NOT TO BE.
Who wants to know who always knocks The girls with their turned down sock?
It is the folks who always sneeze When'er a breeze blows on their knees.
It is their architectural plan That causes them to place a ban On dimpled knee which often shows Above a much be-ribboned hose—In making folks the dear Lord found Not fat enough to go around;
So some poor girls, like you and me,
Have no nice dimples in each knee.
We're born to work and not to charm, Our "stockies" never cause alarm.
We pull them o'er our knees too thin And fix them with a safety pin.
No dinky bows are at the side,
To draw attention and misguide.
We know we're very proper, too,
To do as prim folks ought to do, But still, you know, in spite of that,
"Dear Lord, next time, please make us fat."

Why Wait?

As a special inducement to kick the bucket we find Yonkers undertakers advertising "Lady Embalm-er."

Merle West says even a little man can talk mighty big and sometimes a big man can act mighty small.

Maybe the young woman who walked down the street this morning in Klamath Falls attired in a market basket swinging on her arm was doing the best she could under the circumstances. Nearly everything is shipped in baskets instead of barrels nowadays.

Distance may lend enchantment to the view, but most men prefer closeups these days. They like to get all the details.

Mrs. Next Door Nabor asked her husband the other evening, if he thought there were any married folks in Heaven and the Mean Thing replied "I should say NOT—that's why they call it Heaven!"

Our Golden Rule.

If a pretty girl smacks you on one cheek, turnye the other cheek, also.

Fred Fleet says the heavy weight motion picture star is finding the primrose path a rocky road to travel.

The house shortage was made more acute when prohibition emptied the "jails"; but thank goodness people can still stay at the movies.

A woman should be able to give the man some good advice on fishing for she is an expert in playing the poor fish they go after.

Some girls' idea of being frank is to stand between you and the sun.

Pome.

When you feel you're going to tumble
And your head is in a whirl!
Don't hang on the hammock, But hang on to the best girl.

The income tax offers another way to reduce.

J. K. Alexander, a New England horticulturist, has raised a new yellow flower, which he proposes to name for President Harding. It is of the porch-climbing variety, no doubt.

Don't put any modern conveniences in your home—they might give your wife and daughters a little time in which to rest, read and think—and a woman hasn't any business resting, reading or thinking.

Even a movie picture of every move of Fat Arbuckle is being made, showing him in jail, being arraigned, and in fact every move he makes is being pictured. The little scene which got him into the trouble would be highly interesting and would no doubt draw a big crowd.

"Van" says: "You asked if the ears of corn could hear the whispering of the leaves?" They can, but they will be shocked just the same.

The greatest picture ever shown in Klamath Falls: "THE THREE MUSKETEERS," at the Strand tomorrow.

SHASTA VIEW NOTES

There was no school three days this week on account of the teacher's institute at Klamath Falls.

O. E. Hunt and wife were visitors at Clarence Hunt's home at Orindale Tuesday night. Mr. Hunt has purchased several head of dairy cows from his brother.

H. E. Wilson has purchased more dairy cows. Ranchers in this section are preparing to feed their hay and furnish milk for the new cheese factory.

J. L. Balley and wife were visitors at Levi Griffith's home in Poe Valley Sunday last.

Nels Fogle and wife are rejoicing over the birth of a fine son recently. Mrs. Mabel Fogle is caring for mother and babe.

The ladies of the Helping Hand society were entertained by Mrs.
Wm. Freer Wednesday of last week. A nice comfort was tied and some wool carded. The proceeds from this work is used to help the sufferers in foreign lands.
The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Nettie Hunt Wednesday, October 19.

Mr. E. Mecham of the Rogue valley visited at J. L. Balley's home Wednesday, Mr. Mecham was once a resident of Poe valley and still has a ranch there where he has been spending a few days.

Eight great docks stretch for miles along the Thames river to serve the port of London. Some idea of their size may be had from the statement that one of them—the Royal Victoria and Albert Dock—is so large that every man, woman and child in England could find standing room in it.
Almost as large is St. Katharine's Docks, to provide the site of which no fewer than 1,250 houses, which accommodated over 11,000 people, were swept away.

Sales Expert to Broaden Scope of His Operations

H. T. Lacelle, who for the past 12 years has been conducting the Yom Kippur sale, for K. Sugarman, has decided to expand his field of operations beyond the territory heretofore covered. Mr. Lacelle's specialty is conducting special sales in various cities throughout the Pacific coast. He has clients who annually employ his services just as Mr. Sugarman does. The success that has met his efforts has brought to him inquiries outside of his regular territory and he has decided to extend the field of his labors towards the east and with that end in view is going to build up a sales force that will follow his plans.
Here he not only made friends for the store but he made friends personally and the success of his sales proves that his methods are sound, indicating his expansion plans will not fail.

State Ready to Redeem Warrants

nounces readiness of the state treasury to redeem all state warrants presented but not paid for want of funds prior to September 3, 1921. All warrants, properly indorsed, will be paid on presentation at the state treasurer's office. Interest ceased on October 10.
