Benedict Eludes Friendly Prankers

Justice Gaghen was routed out of bed early yesterday morning to perform a marriage ceremony for Ada Bunch and Oscar D. Mathews of this city, who were united in marriage at 7 o'clock. The couple left on the early morning stage for Ashland where a few days will be spent visiting friends.

It has been said that Mr. Mathews in the past has played many pranks upon friends who have been victims of Cupid's darts and fearing that he would be forced yesterday after the ceremony to undergo the pranks of those who desired revenge, hired a taxi cab at the postoffice and went three miles out of the city leaving his bride to follow him on the regular stage. Friends had planned to kidnap him and take him to the very spot where he met the stage but Mathews outdid the merry-makers at their own game.

IT'S A DISGRACE

To go through life a failure when you possess success qualities.

To be anything less than a real man or a real woman.

To fail to do your best and look your best.

To have only half tried to make good.

To put into work you are paid to do only half-hearted effort; to perform it carelessly or with indifference.

To do things that are not morally honest or honorable, even though you may act within the law.

To go about with a scowl on your face, when a smile can do so much good.

To be a pessimist, when there is so much that is promising and good in the world.

To be grasping and greedy, always looking out for yourself, trying to get every possible advantage for yourself, and never thinking of the man at the other end of the bargain.

OUR BIRTH RATE IS NORMAL

Census Bureau Statistics Show That Births Exceed Deaths by About One-Third.

The census bureau, on the strength of registered returns, gives figures to show that the birth rate in the United States exceeds the death rate by one-third, which is a gratifying fact. We are not one of the nations that need be anxious on this vital point as far as present conditions are concerned. One of the most serious troubles in France is the warning in its censuses that in some years more of its inhabitants die than are born. Some of its neighbors grow much faster in population. This disparity was somewhat noticed in the past, yet without fully realizing the terrible menace involved. The desolated towns and farms of France are a monument to the old census admonitions and the awful sacrifice of young French manhood is far more dreadful than the devastation. Often have the public men of France sounded an alarm on the defective birth rate. It is much discussed now by thoughtful French legislators and writers. A census always demands intelligent study.

The United States grows by immigration as well as birth, and our school system tends to Americanize the whole body of citizens. Our schools are a great melting pot for Americans of the future and to increase their proportionate number.

The welfare of children is a great national issue. The birth rate and death rate need continuous attention.

"Down East" Expressions.

When a South county farmer is tiring from laborious work, he announces that he is "most dead beat" or "bushed" and asks some one to "spell" him—to relieve him by taking a turn at the work. When perspiring he "sweats like a butcher" and when he "talks turkey" he says things to please his auditors.

When angry he may be said to be "mad as a hatter" or a "beaver" although the application is not apparent to the philologist. To go into a passion is to "fly off the handle" and his oaths vary in intensity from "Oats, foot, I swear, I vum, I swan, dog-gone-it," and "Blame it" to "Dad-fetchet."—Boston Globe.

TRIALS MANY FOR OFFICER

ALBANY, Oct. 15.—The trials of the peace officer and his wearied pursuits after the "bag" which sometimes includes him, has been augmented by a wild-goose chase on the part of Sheriff Kendall.

A chattering telephone conveyed information to the sheriff that moonshine, African golf, half-breed Indians, and hop pickers generally were trying to mix in a hopyard on the east side of the Willamette River near Corvallis.

When the sheriff arrived he found the stage and the players had removed to other scenes. He learned, however, that it had been pay day in the yards and that flowing opium was the ingredient by which the human mayonnaise had been curdled. All His Nibs found was the sign of a scuffle and a thin dime some craps-shooter had forgotten to gather from the last pot. The affair had been settled "out of court."

Calif. Prosecutor Says Klan Threats Will Be Probed

REDWOOD CITY, Oct. 17.—Threats of harm to District Attorney Swart and the members of the jury for their action in the William Hightower case, are included in a publication calling itself "The Clansman," which has come to Swart's attention. He said the publication would be investigated.

The publication was issued in Oakland, Swart said, and makes allusion to bombs. Hightower, who was convicted of first degree murder, in connection with the death of Father Patrick E. Heslin, a Coima (Cal.) Catholic priest, was sentenced Saturday by Judge Buck to life imprisonment.

SCORCHED MONEY IS GOOD

Government Will Redeem It If It Is Possible to Recognize It as Currency.

When the Chicago fire occurred and subsided many people scrambled through the embers to find the safes in which their money had been put away. With impatient hands these safes were opened to see the condition of the contents. In many instances this haste was expensive.

Flames were not able to penetrate these safes to consume the contents. Being airtight there was not enough oxygen in them to create a blaze. But in many of them there was still heat. When air was let into these safes they burst into flame and the contents were consumed. Had they not been opened their contents would have been intact.

By the time the Baltimore and San Francisco fires came such safe owners as banks had acquired more wisdom. Ample time was given for them to cool off. In most cases it was found that the paper money was dried and lifeless but still intact. Much of it went back into circulation. More of it was replaced by the government with new money.

Even when little but ashes is left the government will redeem burnt money if the bills are still recognizable. Such bills, carefully packed in cotton batting that they may not be ground into a powder, are still as good at the treasury as though they were in the original form. They will be identified and reissued.

When death stares a man in the face and he lives to tell the tale he reads a lot of time telling it.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.—Adv.

Booze Starts Bull On Mad Rampage

ADAIR, Iowa, Oct. 17.—Duke, a prize bull owned by a farmer near here, attacked an automobile belonging to Mail Carrier Clyde Edwards. It became known here.

The bull was declared to have been under the influence of fermented silo fodder and staggeringly planted himself in the center of the road. When the car came up he let drive with both horns and then weaved down the road leaving a badly battered "fiver."

STORM WARNINGS POSTED

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Warnings that a storm is approaching Oregon and Washington from the north Pacific were broadcast today from the local station. The Portland station predicts rain tonight and Tuesday.

Men Exonerated for the Low Birth Rate

PARIS, Oct. 15.—The Ministry of Hygiene has exonerated Frenchmen from responsibility for the constantly decreasing birth rate of France. They blame almost everything else except the men. The outstanding reasons are the war, the high cost of living and the fondness of French girls for foreign men.

An official of the Ministry explains as follows: "France is the marriages between French girls and foreigners, whereafter they leave France."

"But the main cause is economic. Each child represents an added expense and with the high cost of living and the difficulty of finding houses, large families become almost impossible."

WIRZ-GRIMM WEDDING

Elmer G. Wirz and Miss Margaret I. Grimm, who obtained a marriage license Friday of last week, were married here Saturday evening. Both are well known young people in this city. Mr. Wirz is a lineman with the California-Oregon Power company.
