Employer—"Did you notice that ad in this morning's paper, 'Learn to earn $25 per week at stenography?'"

On account of the in wages at Gary, Ind., the lawyers there have reduced the fee for getting divorces from $100. to $50.

ARTISTIC CANDOR

From the Hillsdale, Mich., Daily News. Hillsdale St., I can give good satisfaction unless you are an old crank that God or Devil can't please.

A physician says the modern girl has learned not to wear tight clothes. Why drag in that word "Tight."

LIFE AS I SEE IT

Madame Curie, while studying science, washed dishes for a living. This is no joke, flappers, just a little lesson offered gratis with the joke column.

The man who looks on life as a joke has a queer sense of humor.

Society note—Mrs. Walter Laughman, while stopping pigs last Saturday, left the swill barrel lid fall on her broken toe and broke the toe.

Boys, take care of your eyes—the fall styles will soon be here.

Something not to worry about: Why peeping Toms do not have to hang around windows any more.

ANNUAL WEATHER FORECAST

It is going to be a long, cold, chilly, icy, snowy, blustery, stormy, blizzardy, sleety winter. This prediction is made only after all of the authorities have been carefully consulted, and we make it with full knowledge of the consequences should our prognostication be wrong.

Item 1. The caterpillars are at least three shades darker than usual. Dark caterpillars always mean cold weather.

Item 2. Squirrels are beginning their hoarding unusually early—a sure sign.

Item 3. A report from Long Lake says that the ground hogs are already starting their hibernation.

Item 4. Squirrels and all other wild creatures have exceptionally heavy coats.

Item 5. The first frost, as predicted by this column, came Monday, October 17, two weeks ahead of the usual time.

One million dollars reward has been offered for the man who finds prohibition.

Also why doesn't Mr. Edison or somebody else invent a noise that can be heard by those who appreciate it?

It hasn't no use to grumble and complain. It's just as cheap and easy to rejoice—James Whitcomb, Riley.

It is said there is a law in England requiring the drivers of an auto to keep both hands on the wheel. We suppose the girls will do the driving under this condition.

SUIT ON NOTE

Suit for the collection of an alleged unpaid note amounting to $1,485.71 with interest at 8 per cent and attorney fees amounting to $350, has been filed in the circuit court by William Tingley against W. E. Seehorn. The note was due on January 18, 1931.

HUMANE ASS'N IN CONVENTION

PHILADELPHIA, PA. Oct. 19.—Advocating recognition of the value and importance of humane work by the individual states as well as by the government, Dr. A. E. Fredericks of Madison, Wis., Wisconsin State Humane Agent, in addressing the American Humane Association here today told the delegates it was a fitting reward for the oft-times thankless men and women the world over.

"It is a mark of advancing civilization," continued Dr. Fredericks. "It is indicative of genuine education and finally it is the imprint of Christianity extending in its influence even unto the portals of our government whose thought and life it must influence and sway to the betterment of the world."

"The appointment of a humane officer by the state means more than financial support. It means that humane work has become a duty of the state. It constitutes a genuine recognition of the real worth of the entire humanitarian movement, not only as it applies to the protection of human beings but also as it applies to the protection of animals."

"In Wisconsin the duties of the humane agent, as outlined by law, are three fold: to enforce the humane laws, to promote humane education and to superintend and assist in the organization of humane societies. All of these duties which the state can and should assume."

"It is the distinct duty of the state to protect from cruelty its human and animal life. This duty cannot be denied nor rightfully shirked. This is a fundamental principle of government. The cause of humanity must live forever. In its final consummation lies the hope of peace and happiness for the world."

Montana Fir Seed To Reforest Britain

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., Oct. 19.—Seed from the cones will be extracted in a large factory now being erected for that purpose. The seeds will be used in a great reforestation scheme in the British Isles. The Dominion department of public works has erected a three-story building to house the plant and machinery is now being installed. Fir and hemlock cones will be gathered in all parts of British Columbia and threshed out at the plant here. The industry will be operated by the forest service.

Spokane Letter Carriers To Build Home for Old Age

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 19.—Spokane branch of the National Association of Letter Carriers may eventually have a home of its own under the terms of the will of Thomas R. Jones, a former carrier.

The will, which was admitted to probate this week, provides that at the death of the deceased's brother, W. E. Jones, of Cramel, N. Y., the estate shall revert to the letter carriers. The will provides that they may use a residence for a clubhouse. The estate includes about $8,000 in personal property and Spokane real estate valued at $12,000.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—In furtherance of his humanizing efforts in the postoffice department and in the postal service of the country, Postmaster General Hays has undertaken an ambitious program of personal letter writing. His latest effort in this direction is to write a message of appreciation to each and every employe going on the retired list.

On the Fence

Politicians are prone to sit "on the fence." Of course that isn't why Secretary of the Interior Fall is doing it here. He's watching the buffalo roundup in Yellowstone Park.

ULSTER MEN DRILLING

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Lloyd George volunteer force is being organized and numerous Ulster ex-service men are enrolling. "Why shouldn't they be, when the Sinn Fein are drilling even in Belfast," was the comment in official quarters.

LLOYD GEORGE WILL ATTEND CONFERENCE

BELFAST, Oct. 19.—An Ulster today announced to the House of Commons that he expects to go to the Washington armament and Far Eastern conference as soon as Parliament and the general situation renders it possible.

Even the worm will turn—perhaps into a butterfly.

The truest test of friendship is not in words, but in actions.

If you can't have what you like try to like what you have.

At the Horse Show

Many women prominent in eastern society attended the 25th Annual Horse Show at Bryn Mawr, Pa. This photograph of Mrs. John R. Cummings was taken there. She formerly was Miss Isabella Wannemaker.

THIRD ANNUAL CONFERENCE The Third Annual Conference for Older Boys of Southern Oregon will be held in Ashland, October 21, 22, and 23. The purpose of the conference is to bring together the older boys from the different communities and cities to discuss some of the vital questions pertaining to Boy Life today. The theme of the conference is "The Price of Leadership." There will be some fine addresses by strong speakers and leaders besides plenty of time given for discussion; and papers by older boys on other subjects.

These pictures are the first to reach America from the "death belt" of Russia into which the vanguard of the Hoover relief workers are now taking American aid. The pictures were rushed out of Russia in an airplane by Major Blake, an English aviator, and brought across the Atlantic by special courier. Above, a starving baby lying asleep along the roadside, its wasted body sheltered from the sun's rays by the wagon in which the family is moving in a frantic attempt to reach the edge of the famine belt. Below, the great trek of Russian famine belt sufferers encamped along the roadside in their march to more prosperous land.
