PRINTER WAS PEEVED

Charles Harris, Ft. Worth, Texas, printer got slightly peeved at a letter from a doctor who wanted bids on several thousand letter-heads, different sizes, different grades and different colors and wanted the printing form held standing. So Charley wrote:

"Am in the market for bids on one operation for appendicitis. One, two or five-inch incision—with or without ether—also without or with a nurse. If appendix is found to be sound, want quotations to include putting same back and cancelling order. If removed successful bidder is expected to hold incision open for about sixty days, as I expect to be on the market for gallstones at that time and want to save the extra cost of cutting."
