House Moving Slows Main St. Traffic

Main Street was blocked all yesterday afternoon by the moving of the old George Humphrey home at Eighth and Main streets. The place was moved by Willard Smith and will be taken to Broad and Oak streets where it will undergo remodeling and be fitted up for apartments by the purchaser, John Shannon.

Much difficulty was experienced while taking the house down Main street from Eighth to Seventh owing to the electric wires coming in contact with both the roof and the chimney. Procedure was slow and trybys and autolists were bothered by the ropes attached to posts where leverage was secured to move the structure. Many autolists took chances of wrecking their ears by going over the taut ropes when tension was applied.

MERRILL ITEMS

Mrs. Geo. Wright has returned from Grants Pass where she has been with her sister who is seriously ill.

A number of cattle have been lost by the farmers from bloating recently.

C. E. Haley, who has had charge of the drilling of the Crater Oil & Gas Co., well, left Tuesday for his home in California to look after his business interests there. He was accompanied by Miss Fay Jenkins and Mrs. Standiff. Mr. Standiff, another employee of the company will remain for the present. Mr. Haley has been employed by the Standard Oil company for some years, having been sent to China in their interests. Mr. Haley was so well impressed with the possibilities for oil here that he will return in the spring in case operations are resumed.

Threshing is nearly completed and farmers are busy digging their potatoes.

The Ladies of the Catholic church are busy working for the fair to be held in Klamath Falls in November for the benefit of the academy.

The cafeteria of the public school is giving satisfaction under the management of Mrs. Walker. They serve an average of seventy meals a day.

Mr. Story is threshing in Dodd's Hollow.

Ducks and geese are being served frequently these days. Hunters say shooting is excellent.

The Hallowe'en spirit is prettily displayed in the decorations in the windows of the White House.

A number of bands of sheep have been dipped at Miles Moore's ranch the last week in the vat put in by Mr. Moore a year ago.

J. W. Taylor and family and Sumner Davis were in Klamath Falls Saturday trading with the merchants there.

Mr. Harwood is painting the G. H. Carleton house.

Horseshoe Artists to Compete at Fair

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 27. — Fruit men of the northwest states are planning a tournament in "barn yard golf," of horseshoe pitching, at the Pacific Northwest Fruit Exposition to be held here November 21-26.

Each section of the northwest will be represented, it is expected. A strong Seattle combination will represent the Seattle Port Commission, the president of which is Dr. W. T. Christensen, an expert horseshoe pitcher. Prizes will be given the winners.

Fifty-seven countries produce rubber and 3,300,000 acres of trees are under cultivation.

Oneida Indians will celebrate the centennial of their removal from New York to Wisconsin.

Your Contribution May Save Some Girl

If your girl had made the mistake which so many thousands of other girls experience each year, would it be worth anything to you to know that she would be taken care of, treated not as an outcast, but as you would treat her in your own home?

That is what the Salvation Army has been doing for years in the state of Oregon, working in behalf of the girls who have been shunted about and to whom others refused aid.

The Home Service Campaign, October 19 to 29, is for the purpose of obtaining funds with which to carry on this work. The Army is not asking for funds for itself, but for financial aid which will make possible the giving of aid and relief to the needy and unfortunate in the state of Oregon.

Will you do your share?

Fowlers and Deer Hunters in Field

Every man who could secure permission from his employer or who could take time away from his business shouldered any kind of a firearm that he could get and set off for the lake and rivers where the wild fowl could be found yesterday afternoon just after the sleet and snow flurries set in. Hardware stores were kept busy selling ammunition and camping supplies to eager sportsmen who desired to try their skill on the feathered tribe, and others who will make their final effort to bag a deer before November 1.

THE STRAND

Picture enthusiasts who see "The Sagebrusher," Benjamin B. Hampton's second Great Authors production from Emerson Hough's famous novel, at the Strand theatre tonight, will be treated to something that appeals to their romantic appetite, in a brace of charming love stories in the W. W. Hodgkinson special release, played by a widely differing quartet of lovers. Big, athletic, polished Dr. Barnes, played by Roy Stewart, presents no more contrasts to that quaint, bashful original son of the Montana soil, Wild Gardner, as portrayed by Arthur Morrison, than that between the two girls.

Tonight is Country Store night. Among the merchandise to be distributed are four chickens, three hams, can of peanut butter, three pounds of cheese, two brooms, one-half pound of tobacco. Every lady attending tonight will be presented with a small can of coffee of a well known standard brand.

Arcade Hotel Will Place Big Sign, Weed

Chris. Blanas proprietor of the Hotel Arcade leaves Saturday morning for Weed where he will erect a 10 foot high by 30 foot long sign board advertising his place of business. The sign will be placed opposite the Southern Pacific depot.

The sign is a Klamath Falls made product and was painted by Fyiling Brothers. The board will be taken to Weed in a truck and erected within two hours as it is so made that the sections dovetail into place readily. Mr. Blanas said that he had much difficulty in securing permission to erect the sign "but where there is a will, there is a way" and he found the right way. Blanas said that small board signs were now placed on all roads leading into this city advertising his hotel.

Hallowe'en Dance Is Open to Everyone

"The Hallowe'en Masquerade dance is open to all the dancing public in this city and no invitations are required at the door," Manager McDonald of the McDonald hall said last night to his patrons, "the invitations I sent out were merely announcements and some people misunderstood their purpose."

Manager McDonald's attention was called to the fact that many people did not catch the meaning of the classy Hallowe'en announcement sent out and construed it to mean that only cards would admit patrons to the dance. Extra preparations are being made for an overflow crowd Monday night and also for the regular dance Saturday evening, when extra prize dances will be added features of the evening.

Mrs. McCormick

A new photo of Mrs. Harold McCormick, daughter of John D. Rockefeller. McCormick confirms the fact that they are living apart.

ONLY 1.3 PER CENT OF SHEEP PURE BLOODED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 27.—The Department of Commerce, through the Bureau of Census, announces the following figures from the 1920 census of agriculture for the United States.

The 463,504 pure-bred sheep in the United States on January 1, 1920, as reported at the Fourteenth Census, were distributed among the several breeds as follows: Cheviot, 2,969; Dorset Horn, 8,412; Hampshire Down, 51,813; Leicester, 743; Lincoln, 13,849; Merino, 59,876; Oxford, 16,589; Rambouillet, 106,819; Shropshire, 124,453; Southdown, 8,397; Suffolk, 723; and all other breeds, including animals reported as pure bred with breed not specified, 65,591.

The total number of Shropshire sheep reported was 124,453, this number constituting more than one-fourth of the total number of pure-bred sheep reported. Of pure-bred sheep of this breed 14,404 were reported from Iowa, 11,423 from Missouri, 8,503 from Illinois and 8,164 from Ohio.

Of the 106,819 Rambouillet sheep reported 25,094 were in Utah, 17,041 in Montana, 15,175 in California and 9,489 in Idaho.

Of the 59,876 Merinos reported 24,170 were in Ohio, 6,153 in Oregon, 5,010 in California, and 4,998 in Michigan.

A total of 51,813 pure-bred Hampshire Down sheep were reported. Of this number, 14,664 were in Idaho, 4,764 in Oregon, and 3,911 in Pennsylvania.

The reports of previous censuses did not show the numbers of pure-bred live stock, so it is not possible to make comparisons with earlier years. It is interesting to note, however, that the whole number of purebred sheep reported for 1920 (463,504) constituted only 1.3 per cent of the 35,933,516 sheep on farms in the United States on the census date.

HAYWARD FIELD WILL SEAT 15,000 PEOPLE

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 27. — Approximately 15,000 people can be handled at Hayward Field at the University of Oregon here when Oregon meets the Oregon Agricultural College Nov. 19 in their annual "big game" for the state intercollegiate championship. Bleachers intended to seat approximately 6,000 are being built on the north end of the field. When the game was played here two years ago, approximately 12,000 people attended.
