

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

TRAPS SO, TOO

"The horse soon will be a thing of the past," said the Wise Guy; "it takes an automobile to take you where you are going these days."

"That may be so," replied the Old Timer, "but it has been my experience that when I was lost on a lonely country road on a dark night I could trust the old gray mare to lead her way home, but all I can trust my automobile to do is to find a ditch."

FEMALE PERVERSNESS

Oh, Woman, in your hours of ease, You always act as you darned please; And now on highways set the mode Of calmly hogging all the road!

Some persons troubled with insomnia might do worse than try this cure: Let them listen attentively to the man who likes to talk about himself.

After lamping the costumes, worn on the streets by some of the flappers, we are convinced Lady Godiva could make her dash through almost any of our thoroughfares without attracting any attention.

If your wife is sick, call in the veterinarian—he is used to doctoring work animals, says Fred Houston.

A Ohioan dropped dead just as he won two dollars on a horse race. His good fortune was too great a shock.

It generally is admitted that all women have a sense of humor, says Doc Winters.

Think you are out of debt? Well, if you consider yourself a part of this government you are not. You owe $23,995,564,776.

A Marion, Indiana, husband, broke a chair over his wife's head and afterward was very sorry. It was one of the best chairs they had in the house.

Scorchington — Hello, Clatterby, say—ha, ha!—have you heard the last Ford joke?
Clatterby—Well, I hope so.

AND SO IT GOES

A girl wearing a skirt that was so long it came below her shoe tops attracted more attention on the street yesterday than one who wore a skirt so short it barely came below her knees.

Dr. Dedson says the farmers need more education, but the farmers have an idea that what they want first is more credit at the bank.

Tillie Clinger says that when her new boss told her he wished she would try to get down a little earlier in the morning she told him she wished he would try to come down a little harder on pay day.

You may either "keep or allow to be kept any dogs, cats, parrots, graphophones or phonographs," according to the latest vague in apartment leases in Washington. Leaving the conversational field open to women absolutely without competition, it would seem.

Doc Powell says he has always imagined window shopping is about as unsatisfactory to a woman as drinking near beer is to a man.

Give your neighbor plenty of "cussin"—he's as big a fool as you are and he needs it. Besides it exercises your lungs.

FUR TO TOP THE ROLLS FOR WINTER WEAR

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—These rolled-down stockings that the young women have been wearing have been giving the orthodox quite a jolt. They got another the other day, when a New York girl returning from France exhibited some lace frills with which Parisians are crowning the rolls. It's getting a bit late for such summery frills, but a fur top for stockings is now under consideration for the coming winter.

$1,000 Cup for a Million Dollar Baby

This is the most expensive trophy ever offered for any class of livestock in the west, probably, and inside is seated one of the dearest little babies you can find anywhere.

The trophy is insured for $1000 and is of sterling silver. It stands 23 inches high and is 20 inches in width from handle to handle. The diameter of the bowl is 14 1/2 inches, and the depth of the bowl is 10 1/2 inches. It is the Matador Segis Walker Trophy, given by Carnation Stock Farms, Seattle, Wash., for the best breeder's young herd of registered Holsteins, and the Carnation Stock Farms will not compete.

The contents of the trophy in the picture bears the name of Doris-Ann Barnes, six months of age and weighing 20 pounds. She is the youngest granddaughter of O. M. Plummer, general manager of the Pacific International Live Stock Exposition, where the trophy will be awarded. It will be hard to fill the trophy cup with anything sweeter.

The trophy requirements are as follows: The herd must consist of one bull under two years of age, two heifers, one year and under two, two heifers, under one year, all except the bull to have been bred by the exhibitor, and two or more breeders must compete. The trophy must be won three times before it becomes the permanent property of any winner. It will be given during the exposition at Portland, November 5 to 12.

Mr. Plummer says emphatically that the trophy goes to the winner, but it goes empty—Doris-Ann does not go with it.

The Matador Segis Walker trophy stands for achievement in Holstein breeding and commemorates a very great sire and herd founder. It is of exquisite workmanship, the handles being reproductions of carnations and the bowl bearing a representation chased in the silver of the bull himself.

This is but one of the beautiful and valuable trophies, cups, medals and medals given at the Pacific International this year, presented by appreciative breeders, breed associations and institutions for various achievements in the line of producing livestock.

SIX MILE TRAMWAY

WILSON BETTER THAN IN YEARS

SAYS STOMACH TROUBLE WAS THE CURSE OF HIS LIFE—HAS GAINED IN WEIGHT.

"I eat better, sleep better, work better and feel better than I have in years, and from now on, Taniae is the only medicine for me," said J. O. Wilson, 106 North Seventeenth St., Portland, Ore., employed at the Independent Iron Foundry.

"Stomach trouble was the curse of my life and I couldn't eat anything but what would sour and ferment in my stomach. I had awful sick headaches and dizzy spells at times, and my back hurt me so right over my kidneys I couldn't sleep much at night.

"Taniae has made a new man out of me and I haven't a sign of my old trouble. I am twenty pounds heavier and never felt better in my life. My advice to people with stomach trouble is to lose no time in getting Taniae; it certainly does the work."

Taniae and Taniae Vegetable Pills are sold by Druggists everywhere. adv

THE HOUSE OF MERIT

A Message to the People of Oregon By Governor Olcott

IT IS with pleasure I take the opportunity thus afforded me to urge upon the people of the state the importance of rallying around Oregon industries by the purchase of Oregon products.

The prosperity of all of us is very closely linked with the prosperity of such industries. When Oregon people invest in Oregon industries by the simple method of buying their products, they are making an investment which cannot help but bring large returns to themselves.

I sincerely trust that this campaign to educate the people of the state into the knowledge that the purchase of Oregon products means a greater and better Oregon for each and every one of us will meet with success from the start.
