

The Office Cat

BY JUNIUS

NEWSPAPERMEN

Stressing the bright on it, Up from the ink of it, Clear to the brink of it, Always to think of it, Life is your game. Moving the pawns in it, Up with the dawns in it, Lions or fauns in it— Failure or fame. Such is your gift to it, Sensing the drift to it, Giving a lift to it, Hiding your name. Throwing the light on it, Stressing the bright on it, Writing the right on it, Always the same. Loving the thrill of it, Having your will of it, Drinking the fill of it, Liquid and flame. Riding the crest of it, Up with the best of it, Down with the rest of it, But— Playing the game.

—Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

DO YOU KNOW THAT

Love is like hash. You must have confidence to enjoy it. When you hold your girl's hand you're a Million miles from nowhere. We lost our spirit when they took away our booze. You should never steal a watch, because a lawyer will eventually get the case and you the works. The unlucky months for getting married are: January, February, March, April, May, June, July August, September, October, November and December. After man came woman and she has been after him ever since. Everything has gone down except paper and envelopes. They are stationery.

The home team that loses oftenest is mother and father, says Bill Wiest.

It may console the boys to know that the key to success fits the schoolhouse door.

The people of Peru are bitterly complaining of the money stringency in their land. Maybe the Peruvian bark is worse than the bite.

No woman's memory is as short as her skirt, these days, says Jim Driscoll.

SAME OLE WORLD

This time last year nobody was satisfied with what things cost. "You're right! And this time this year nobody's satisfied with what they bring."

THE JOY RIDER'S PLAIN

Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest are these, "I'm pinched again."

Bright boy—Say dad, I can do something you can't do! Father—What is it? Bright boy—Grow!

FOOL QUESTIONS

L. D. Asks: "When the door's ajar can you use it for canning?" E. K. Asks: "What kind of a key fits a lock of hair?"

An optimist is a man who goes to a dance without suspenders, suggests Dan Crump.

Now that the Ku Klux Klan has evoked public and official opposition its prominence if not its permanence is assured.

When a movie actor or actress receives an invitation to work in or around Hollywood, it might be termed "The Call of the Wild."

Of course the eyes may be the windows of the soul, but it is through the mouth that you learn there is nobody home.

Jno. McCall says some of the magazine covers should be barred from the males.

SOCIETY

A banquet held in the chamber of commerce rooms Monday evening marked the final launching of a university club in the city. The banquet was attended by 37 prospective charter members and the good wishes of almost as many more were sent in by men and women who were unable to attend. The delightful meal was served by the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church under the direction of Mrs. J. J. Keller. The decorative scheme, carried out with Autumn leaves and bright berries, was in charge of Misses Maybelle Leavitt and Margaret Worden. Present at the affair were: Misses Vera Houston, Elizabeth Houston Haines, Marjorie Diesell, Maybelle Leavitt, Clara Calkins, Marie Obenchain, Ruby Fenwick, Wanda Brown, Mrs. Blanch Warren Collier, Mrs. Rachael Solomon, Howard Wines, Charles Collier, Fred Payne, ed Twining, George Stevenson, Elmer Pendell, C. H. Medley, Max Schafer and John Houston, all of the University of Oregon; F. J. Flix, University of Washington; Kenneth Perry, Bob Elliott, Midred Thrasher, of O. A. C.; Miss Alice Blackford, university of Illinois; Mrs. Marie Jane O'Callaghan, U. of Chicago; Lyle Walthers, U. of Leland Stanford Jr.; Miss Margaret Worden, Washburn College; Fred Westerfield, Valparaiso; W. V. Marshall, U. of Michigan; C. E. Solomon, C. S. U. S.; Irene E. Conway, U. of Wisconsin; Frank S. Howard, Whitman; Ruth Wilson, Grennell college, and U. of Penn; R. S. Lieurance, Colorado School of Mines; Miss Mary E. Craig, U. of Missouri and Columbia University; Miss Grace Farrand, Berkeley college; Miss Elizabeth Keys, Marion college and U. of Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Enders celebrated on Tuesday their second wedding anniversary with a small dinner at their lovely home on Pine St. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hardenbrook and Glenn Jester.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church was entertained on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz on Ninth street. The ladies met and made plans for a rummage sale to be held a week from this Saturday. A delightful luncheon was served by the hostess at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. R. J. Sheets entertained Tuesday for the Happy Hour Sewing club at her home on South Riverside avenue. A number of guests were entertained besides the regular members of the club. They were: Mesdames R. S. Moore, J. F. Goeller, A. Frisbie, Mills, Miss Elizabeth McCurdy, and the children guests were Callie Hector, Lin Propst, Hazel Richardson, Helen Richardson, Members Mesdames R. A. Emmitt, W. P. John.

Now that we have national prohibition they are equipping school boxes with individual drinking cups. Sort of souvenir, or what is the idea?

Our idea of a girl without ambition is one who is contented to lie in a hammock while other girls ride by in automobiles.

LAW OF THE ROAD

"Hey, you! Don't stop your car near my horse! It skeers him." "Don't worry, I know the rules, 'Don't park near a plug.'" soon, Harry Richardson, George Humphrey, Jennie Hurn, William Steinmetz, L. Ruconich, O. M. Hector, and the hostess.

The Past Matrons Club of Aloaha chapter of Eastern Star met Friday afternoon at the Baldwin hotel for a social afternoon.

Aloaha chapter of O. E. S. gave a Halloween banquet Tuesday evening at their chapter rooms which was attended by a large number of visiting friends. Halloween decorations were used in adorning the rooms. The committee in charge was Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Henry, Mrs. W. P. McMullan, Mrs. Jennie Hurn, Mrs. H. E. Hauger, Miss Ida B. Momyer, and W. A. Delzell acted as toast master.

Lycium hall of Sacred Heart church, Tuesday evening, provided the setting for the first of a series of entertainments to be given during the winter months by the young people of the parish. Miss Cecelia McMahon was hostess on this occasion and was ably assisted by the young ladies of the C. Y. L. club. Five Hundred and Bridge Whist provided the entertainment for the guests, numbering about sixty, and costly prizes were given to those making the highest score. Mrs. Golden Lincoln was awarded the first prize for the ladies and Mr. C. F. Foster first prize for the men. The consolation prize fell to Mrs. Tom Lorrene. Misses Elizabeth Ramsby, Opal Cardwell and Florence Elliott, music pupils of Sacred Heart Academy, delighted the guests with several piano solos, rendered in their usual charming manner. All present voted the evening one of the most enjoyable and are anxiously awaiting the second of the series. Mrs. Roger Deweese will be hostess on this occasion.

Black cats and witches, yellow pumpkins and ghosts were scattered at random throughout the whole lower floor of the White Pelican hotel Friday night when the Masons and their ladies gathered there for a Halloween dance. The affair was given on an elaborate scale and interesting was the scene presented as the merry-makers whirled and danced under the cleverly shaded lamps.

Announcements have been received here by friends of Miss Lois Myers telling of her marriage to F. R. Swinden in Portland on October 21. Miss Myers has a host of friends in and around town who remember her as a teacher in the public schools of the city.

ROSEBURG—"A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized in Portland last Saturday, when Miss Gladys Lenox became the bride of Charles W. Springer. The wedding came as a complete surprise to their many friends in this city. The bride is the daughter of Dave Lenox, and is a recent graduate of O. A. C. where she was most popular in campus activities. She was a member of the Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Springer is located near Yoncalla, where he is engineering highway work. The young couple will make their home in that vicinity at the present." Miss Lenox is well known in Klamath Falls having spent several summers with her father during the time he was

Player Piano Rolls, Shepherd Piano Depot

The Rex Cafe $1.00 Special Sunday Dinner $1.00 Heinz Dill Pickles Large Ripe Olives Shrimp Cocktail Cream of Chicken Soup Combination Vegetable Salad Choice of Entrees: Chicken Fricassee, Egg Dumplings Fried Spring Chicken, Garden Peas Breaded Veal Cutlets, Cream Gravy Sweet Entree: Orange Fritters—Vanilla Sauce Vegetables: Snow Flake Potatoes Stewed Sugar Corn Golden Phez Punch Desert: Rice Custard Pudding, Custard Sauce Drinks: Tea, Coffee, Milk or Chocolate proprietor of the old Shasta confectionery store, and last year she taught in the commercial department of the high school here.

The annual high school reception held away with the young folk of the city last night when they all gathered in the high school building as the guests of the sophomores and had a jolly time with Halloween games and eats. Last night saw one of the largest parties of its kind ever held in the old building, and those in attendance insist that they had the finest time ever.

The Leisure Hour bridge club will be entertained on Tuesday afternoon at 2:15 by Mrs. E. B. Hall in the Hall hotel Annex.

The Women's club of the B. P. O. E. will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in the Temple on Main street for a social afternoon, and the hostesses, Mrs. R. E. Deweese and Mrs. John E. Enders, wish it to be known that bridge and fancy work will be the order of the afternoon.

One of the largest Halloween card parties of the week was that given on Thursday by Mrs. Carey Ramsby and Mrs. Fred Houston at the formers home. "500" was the diversion of the evening for the many guests, who appeared in costume. Many elaborate disguises were worn by the ladies as well as many that were funny or clever. The rooms were decorated with Halloween symbols which lent to the gaiety of the occasion. The refreshments, too, carried out the spirit of the decorations. The guests were: Mesdames W. O. Smith, C. I. Roberts, Oscar Shive, J. J. Parker, F. U. Patrick, G. B. Cozad, Charles L. Moore, Hardin Carter, L. O. Mills, Dorothy Luce, Charles J. Martin, G. A. Belman, Earl Whitlock, Byron Hardenbrook, Fred Schallock, G. W. Houston, Leo Houston, L. G. Van Bellen, E. B. Hall, Golden Lincoln, Leslie Rogers, E. L. Hosley, Leslie Terwilliger, Fred Dunbar, E. B. Henry, Ora Coffee, C. H. Underwood, Will Baldwin, John Enders, Bert Withrow, O. W. Robertson, Joe Brett, John Martin, A. J. Voye, Fred Mills, R. H. Anderson, Lester Kirkpatrick, of Merrill, Misses Maud Baldwin, Agnes Lee, and Alice McCourt. Mrs. Cozad was the winner of the first prize and Mrs. Bellman received the consolation gift.

Mrs. A. J. Voye, Harry Borrell, and Miss Ina Graham will present a group of beginners in vocal, piano and violin at a private recital this evening from 7:45 until 8:45 in the chamber of commerce rooms. Miss Esther Calkins, a young lady who has developed wonderful ability in voice within the short time she has been studying under Mrs. Voye, will be presented in the vocal recital. Miss

Queen Quality SHOES Value! QUEEN QUALITY shoes offer so much more than ordinary footwear at the same prices that season after season they grow stronger in favor. Our grandmothers knew and still know—Queen Quality means the best, and today three generations are wearing shoes stamped with this famous name. There are Queen Quality styles for the varied needs of womanhood, from youth to age. Your style, in the right fitting, at the right price, awaits your selection. THE BOOTERY CHAS. P. MAGUIRE KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

Katherine Walton, whom many Klamath Falls folk have heard with pleasure, will appear as the violinist, and Miss Elizabeth Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Graham, will be presented in the piano recital. Miss Constance Fisher will act as accompanist. Mrs. Voye, Mr. Borrell and Miss Graham expect to continue these recitals throughout the winter as their pupils advance from stage to stage in the study of their chosen art. (Continued on Page 6) Some members spare the rod and spoil the slipper.

CHRISTMAS is Less than Two Months Away A portion set aside and deposited each week will give ample money for Christmas gifts. Deposit at First State & Savings Bank Klamath Falls, Oregon