HOME NEWS ONMS Here lies the body of Bill Mc Pheetle. He tried to drive and kiss his sweetie. —Utility News. Stephen Jones died Easter morn. He drove his car while full of corn. —Dallas Lions Club. Here lies a man who worked and toiled Then drove to town and came back hollid. Keep on hoping that the 20th amendment gives us something instead of taking it away, says Jim Driscoll. History teacher—What was the Sherman act? Bright Pupil—Marching through Georgia. Marshall Hooper says it doesn't take a key to open a bank account. Why is it that the colder the audience may be the more probability there is of it melting away. Probably no member of the family except father, of course, is so studiously neglected as the family budget. The bashful petty officer was on leave and was having a hard time making conversation. "I suppose you've been in the navy so long you're accustomed thoroughly to sea legs," she suggested. "I wasn't looking at 'em at all," he blurted, blushing. Edison invented the phonograph by accident. And it should be a lesson to him to be more careful in the future. If a horse made half as much noise while getting under way as a flyover does it would be suppressed by the police before it got half a block. Old King Cotton and Old King Coal are hitting the high places. Fred Fleet says Arbuckle has discovered that there is some truth in the saying that nobody loves a fat man. A down-town drug store displays this sign: Failed States Postage Stamps For Sale Here I suppose they don't sell Chinese stamps. If you want a little study on relativity, just reflect that Babe Ruth gets more publicity from a strained tendon that you would get if you had your head cut off. They put a woman's head on money and it's been talking ever since. "Clothes do not make the man," observed the Sage. "Maybe not," commented the Fool. "But you'll notice how other men dodge you when you are looking sassy." Now and then you see a woman with a husband that is such a pitiful excuse for a man that he has "this was my last chance" written all over him. Louis Hoagland advances the thought that the School of Experience charges most for its night courses. Who'd make home brow if it wasn't against the law? Great Falls Will Honor Memory of Founder of City GREAT FALLS, Mont., Nov. 2.—Plans recently were adopted by the Gibson memorial committee of this city for conducting a campaign next year to raise $10,000 for the erection of a statue in bronze to the memory of the late Paris Gibson, former United States senator and founder of the city of Great Falls. It was announced that former Senator W. A. Clark has offered to supply the metal and cast the statue, and this offer has been accepted. The statue, according to present plans, will be erected on a granite base at the head of Central avenue.

Women are too emotional to make successful detectives, says the veteran head of the detective bureau of Baltimore.
