Ross Nickerson, Prop.

Klamath Falls, Ore., Nov. 8, 1931.

To the People of Klamath Falls,
Who Work for A Living:

Do you think a dishwasher in a kitchen is worth $8.75 a day and meals, totaling $5.25 for 8 hours of work?

We offered $5 a day and board. How does this compare to the wages you are receiving?

Do you think a privileged class of help should receive higher wages than other classes?

We do not and we are standing by our guns trying to keep the cost of living down. We have reduced the prices on menu orders 10 to 25 per cent.

We want your co-operation. We are still doing business at the Rex Cafe.
