

HUNTERS STALK WILD GEESE

Three Canadian, two white honkers and one brant constituted the bag of geese which a party of Klamath Falls people secured yesterday on the California side of the Tule Lake hunting grounds, without California hunting licenses or without violating the hunting laws of the sunny state. Better still, not one goose was shot by any member of the party, and not even a pocketknife was to be found on any person who constituted the party. No snares were used—the geese were simply walked out of California over to the Oregon side of the line and then run down!

People from both states were thick in the vicinity of the lake armed with every sort of weapon and their bags of geese were negligible while the "goose chasers" secured a nice bag without extra effort.

The party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kemp and Mr. and Mrs. F. Proytag, who drove to Malin to witness and photograph the wonderful flight of geese from Tule lake to the nearby wheatfields in the afternoon. As the party neared the lake, six geese were seen wandering about, having been shot by hunters earlier in the day or week. The party spread out fan-shape and drove the geese across the border line, then rounded them up. Four of the geese had no injuries, except feathers shot out of one wing, while two were so badly wounded that it was necessary to kill them. This morning, the living geese were fed and watered and did not seem to mind captivity. Food disappeared rapidly when placed before them and they will be kept for decoy.

OREGON BREVITIES

LA GRANDE.—With no hope of beer-making coming back to Oregon, the La Grande brewery has just been sold by Julius Roeb, its owner, to the Grand Ronde Meat company and is now being converted into a packing plant. The sale price was $45,000, and included the cold storage plant connected with the brewery, but not the beer-making machinery.

PORTLAND.—C. S. Knapp wouldn't have gone into the moonshining business if it hadn't been for Miss Lida O'Bryon, deputy district attorney. This was the tale told by Knapp when he was brought before District Judge Deich on a charge of violating the prohibition law.

"She caused my downfall," said Knapp. "She compelled me to pay $60 a month for the support of my two children. I couldn't get the money any other way so I started making moonshine. I made only six gallons a month, just enough to pay off the support money."

PRINEVILLE.—Drilling by the Blue Mountain Oil company began Monday on Hugh Lister's ranch near Paulina. Another well will be started on the Charles Bernard property near Suplee Thursday morning. Contract has been let for road building and hauling machinery for the third drill near the Otto Gray ranch at Post, which will be in operation soon.

FOSSIL.—The town of Mitchell, Wheeler county, has voted bonds to build a $30,000 school building. The vote was 56 to 41.

The building is to be a combined high school and elementary grades school built by Union high school district No. 2 and by school district No. 17. The high school district contributes $18,000 and the local school $12,000.

ESTACADA.—As a result of the game commission's action in setting aside a fund to aid in the extermination of predatory animals in Oregon, A. G. Ames will leave here this week for the headwaters of the Willamette and Umpqua rivers, there to renew hostilities against the cougar, the wolf, the coyote, and the bobcat. He will be assisted this winter by A. B. Addington, who has had experience in trapping.

PORTLAND.—An unidentified man committed suicide Tuesday by jumping into the Willamette river from the Morrison street bridge. He was visited over the railing, near the east end of the draw, a woman screamed and rushed to the gatehouse, where Stephen White, gatekeeper, seized a life-preserver and rushed to the rail.

Mr. White saw the man struggling and dropped the preserver within a few inches of his head, but he refused the proffered aid and sank.

Lumber Production 13% Below Normal

Lumber orders for coastwise, over-seas and intercoastal delivery continue to gain in volume; while business for rail delivery shows a falling off.

These features are particularly emphasized in the trade barometer of West Coast Lumbermen's association for the week ending October 29th, wherein, after four very active buying weeks, new business, at 104 mills, dropped back to 64, 223,559 feet, of which 27,203,559 feet, or 42 per cent, was taken for cargo delivery, with 17,841,059 ft., going coastwise and intercoastal, and 9,362,500 feet for export.

Production was 68,532,925 feet, or 13 per cent below normal. Shipments totaled 67,698,676 ft., which was 5 per cent above new business and about 1% below production.

Business for rail delivery totaled 1,234 cars, rail shipments 1,615 cars, leaving an unshipped balance in the rail trade of 3,195 cars, as against a normal unshipped balance of 12,000 cars. Shipments by rail for the week exceeded orders for rail delivery by 11,430,000 feet.

In the cargo trade coastwise and intercoastal clearances totaled 11,514,778 feet, while over-seas clearances totaled 7,738,998 feet, leaving an unshipped balance in the domestic trade of 92,141,516 feet, and in the export trade 68,575,452 feet.

Cars Smashed In Sunday Collision

At Ninth and Lincoln streets Sunday, an unfortunate automobile accident occurred when the cars owned by Dr. Craver and Mr. Schultz, with whom Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Griffin were riding, collided. The Schultz car was headed up Ninth street bound for Shippington and Dr. Craver was turning the corner on Lincoln to go up Ninth street when the crash came. Dr. Craver's car was overturned and the Schultz car ran into the curbing. Dr. Craver's car suffered broken spokes in the front wheels while the Griffin car had its fenders smashed.

Mrs. Griffin has been ill for the past six weeks and was being taken out for a ride while Dr. Craver was on his way to see a patient.

The phonograph that amazed Klamath Falls can be bought!

There is a rumor abroad that the instrument which triumphed in the dramatic comparison test, made last Friday at the Presbyterian Church, was a special exhibition model. That rumor is FALSE. The instrument was a regular Official Laboratory Model, out of our own stock.

Every Official Laboratory Model in our stock is guaranteed to sustain the same test.

If you were one of those in Friday's audience, who wistfully exclaimed: "Wouldn't it be wonderful if I could buy a phonograph like that"—know that you can. Know that it will perform this miracle every day for you in your own home.

THE NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph With a Soul"

Come in and hear for yourself the Official Laboratory Model's marvelous realism. Find out about our Budget Plan, which enables you to own an Official Laboratory Model for a small down payment, the balance on a gentleman's agreement to suit your convenience.

NOTE.—The test at the Presbyterian Church, was made by Helen Clark the world-famous contralto and Joseph Phillips, the eminent baritone. They compared their living art with its RE-CREATION by the New Edison. There was no difference between the living art and the RE-CREATED art.

The New Edison stands absolutely alone in this achievement; no other phonograph has ever sustained this test of comparison.
