

SOCIETY

A large bridge party of the week was that given on Saturday afternoon in Pelican City by Mrs. H. W. Bridgford, Mrs. I. H. Hibbert and Mrs. E. H. Pike. Many bids to the affair were received by Klamath Falls society ladies, who were in attendance from here.

Miss Elizabeth Ramsay and Miss Donita Schaffer were hostesses for a group of their young friends at a dancing party at the former's home Friday night. When dancing was tired of, games were played, and late in the evening light refreshments were served at small tables. The guests were: Misses Waive Withrow, Joan McDonald, Ethelina O'Flaherty, Anna Katherine Garrett, Altha Humphrey, Clara Cornish, Ruth De Laiz, Nellie Elliott, Bertha Felts, Thirsa and Helen Anderson of Merrill, Messrs. Robert Cornish, Cecil Humphrey, Linn Ferguson, Harry Felts, Zed Barns, Robert Goets, Robert Hacklan, George Palmer, and the hostesses.

The Ladies Library club meeting was postponed from Friday afternoon of this week until Friday afternoon of next week, in deference to Armistice Day. At next week's meeting it is hoped there will be a large attendance as much important work will be gone over at that time.

The Annual Thank-Offering meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will be held Thursday night of next week in the parlors of the church. It will be a public affair. The camp-fire girls are arranging to present a pageant, and the ladies of the society will serve light refreshments.

An event of interest this week was the farewell dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thompson on Conger avenue, Friday night. A course dinner was served at seven o'clock, and covers were laid for the following: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ackley, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Currin, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Voge, Arthur Leavitt, Marshall Hooper, W. S. Wylie, Misses Minnie Walker, Nora Rinker and Agnes Lee.

Another event of Tuesday evening was the much planned for and talked of University club dance. A flattering number of ex-college students were present at the affair, and an unusually interesting dance was enjoyed by the forty couples in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Collier, Mr. and Mrs. John Boyle, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Epperson and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Geary were among those who sponsored the affair and acted as patrons and patronesses.

Two big peppy dances were managed on Armistice eve by the American Legion men, assisted by the Woman's auxiliary. Both the dance at the Moose hall and at the Scandinavian hall were well attended and a glorious time was enjoyed. Many prizes were given away to lucky dancers throughout the evening to the great excitement and enjoyment of the guests.

The Kedron club was entertained on Tuesday by Miss Fannie Virgil and Mrs. B. M. Palmer at the latter's home. The decorations for this occasion were in yellow. Present were: Mesdames Fred Wygant, Ray Telford, James Grimes, N. B. Drew, George Mallett, Herbert Mallett, A. L. Rice, W. S. Slough, R. C. Groesbeck, Misses Augusta Parker, Mary Walker, Alta Ralph, R. French, Olive Carlton and Eva Hanks.

Preparations for Armistice day concerned society to the exclusion of other social events this week and interfered to some extent with larger affairs that might have been planned. There were the usual bridge club meetings and the fraternal orders held a few early week banquets.

On Thursday Miss Marie McMillan was hostess to the Bridge club at a pleasant afternoon of cards. Those who enjoyed Miss McMillan's hospitality were: Mesdames W. O. Smith, H. D. Mortenson, Don J. Zumalt, Will Baldwin, C. F. Stone, C. H. Underwood and Miss Maud Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Pike entertained at dinner and an evening at bridge on Tuesday in their home at Pelican City. Their guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schallock, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Mortenson, Mrs. E. B. Hall and Miss Marie McMillan.

The Aloha Chapter of O. E. S. gave a banquet and musical entertainment honoring their past matrons and patrons, Tuesday night. The banquet room was decorated in pink and white and the desert carried the color scheme out further. At the beginning of the evening the officers of the chapter appeared in costume and executed a burlesque drill. Matrons and Patrons present were: Mesdames Wilbur Jones, Spiker, Morland, Frank Ward, Jennie Hurn, A. L. Leavitt, Frank Ankeny, Charles Martin, Minnie Henry, H. E. Momyer, Kip Van Riper and Miss Maud Baldwin, Messrs. William A. Delsell, O. Peyton and Fritour. Fred Baker was toastmaster.

Ask Some One Who Was There

On Oct. 28 at the Presbyterian Church, the New Edison proved that there is no difference between its RE-CREATION of music and the original music. It was proof that would be good in any court of law.

If you did not attend, take the trouble to find out exactly what happened. Investigate all the details of this drastic test. It was given particularly for the music-lovers of Klamath Falls—so that they might know, through their own personal experience, that there is a phonograph which can give them the exact performance of the living artist.

Helea Clark, famous contralto, made the test. She stood on the platform beside the New Edison. She sang. In the midst of her song, she stopped singing. The New Edison took up the song, and continued it alone. Thus, they alternated,—singer and phonograph.

The audience had to watch Miss Clark's lips, in order to be certain which was singing. The New Edison's triumph was complete and spectacular.

A similar test was made by Joseph Phillips with the RE-CREATIONS of his baritone solos. Again the same result—there was no difference between RE-CREATED voice and living voice.

Remember that no other phonograph can sustain this test! Remember that you want a phonograph which does! And remember that the New Edison did it,—right here in Klamath Falls.

THE NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

You can have, in your own home, the exact kind of instrument used in the test. This was an Official Laboratory Model,—out of our own stock. Select any Official Laboratory Model in our Store, and we will guarantee it to sustain the test of direct comparison, and to do everything that was done in the test at the Presbyterian Church.

Ask us about our Budget Plan. It brings you this New Edison for a small payment. Any man or woman, who loves music, can make a gentleman's agreement with us.
