OREGON BREVITIES

Debate Question Chosen
UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene.—The question upon which members of the Oregon High School Debate League will contest for the championship this year is: "Resolved, That a graduated income tax should be made a feature of the state system of taxation in Oregon."

Women Collect Dainties
HOOD RIVER.—The Women's Auxiliary of the local Legion post will aid in collecting delicacies to be sent to exservice men in Portland hospitals at Thanksgiving. Jellies, fruit and home-made candies will be assembled until November 19.

Ideal Days at Newport
NEWPORT.—Newport people, who usually go to California for the winter, have decided to stay at home this year owing to the ideal weather conditions. Little rain has fallen, and the temperature has ranged from 60 to 70. Flowers are beginning to bloom again and potatoes and other garden vegetables are coming up. Men are working in their shirtsleeves.

SALEM.—The Brooks-Scanlon Lumber company of Bend has stopped cutting timber along The Dalles Klamath highway near Bend, according to information received by Governor Olcott from Robert W. Snyder, Deschutes county judge. Its operations have been removed from those points.

HOOD RIVER.—L. M. Karstetter, rancher of the Summit district, will not be worried if the agitators for reform secure laws prohibiting the sale of tobacco. Mr. Karstetter grows his own. He has exhibited in the city the past week handsome specimens of Havana leaf. The tobacco has a fine aroma and Mr. Karstetter says he finds it satisfying either in the pipe or to chew.

Man Pays Fine by Mail
ROSEBURG.—Justice of the peace Jones received a check for $30 from A. B. Chance of Portland after Mr. Chance, over the telephone, had entered a plea of guilty to the charge of killing China pheasants out of season and was fined $25 and costs. Mr. Chance returned to his home in Portland and then the officers found that the gun he had been using was a borrowed one.

Fishing Good in Portland
The continuous good weather of last week made silverside salmon fishing exceptionally good in local streams and especially in and around the Tillamook. Many Portland hunters and anglers, disappointed at the rather poor season for ducks, took their poles and lines Sunday and made a day of it in fishing.

AT THE STRAND
The new World picture, "Forest Rivals," in which Dorothy Green and Arthur Ashley are starred, will be the attraction at the Strand Theatre tonight.

"Forest Rivals" is a story of life in the backwoods of old Quebec and is reported to be even better than "The Girl Alaska," which made a tremendous hit.

"Forest Rivals" tells of the desperate feud which raged between two brothers in the wilderness for the same girl. The fact that Julie the petite little French girl, had refused them both was not considered in the least. Each brother intended to make Julie marry him.

Into this little civil war comes Tom King, a civil surveyor. He at once falls victim to Julie's charms. Upon him the brothers turn, united, in an effort to clear the field of this formidable intruder.

Then followed a desperate struggle in which the brute cunning of the two French brothers is matched against the courage of the young surveyor.

In the end Julie and Tom win out and they leave the great forest behind.

Make that idle dollar work! Put it in the bank.

Got Game Limit But Couldn't Take It Home

A party of railroad men from the vicinity of Ashland, Grants Pass and Roseburg spent the week-end near Malin goose hunting and on their return to their homes, stopped one day in this city to visit local friends. Four of the party, Jack Allison, W. B. Sherman, George Humphrey, an ex-sheriff of this county, and Mr. Peyton were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Jenkins, 919 Lincoln street, last night.

The hunting party secured the limit of ducks and geese but met with adversity when they attempted to ship their game home on the train where they had passed to ride upon. Point blank, the local officials refused to accept the game owing to conflicting with interstate shipment. While the game was killed in California, yet it had been brought up here and could not be shipped back, the railroad agent informed the hunters. Photos were made of the kill and the birds were arranged in a manner which made the picture extremely attractive.

Or words to that effect

IT BEATS the band.
THE WAY this thing.
KEEPS POPPING up.
THE OTHER night.
I BROKE all rules.
AND READ a high-brow book.
AND HERE'S a hot one.
THAT IT handed me.
"MANY OF us find.
THAT TASTE affords,
ONE OF the fairly.
DEPENDABLE SATISFACTIONS,
OF EVERYDAY living.
AND IT seems.
UPON LONG reflection,
THAT SATISFACTION,
COMES CLOSE to being,
THE LONG sought.
"HIGHEST GOOD."
OF COURSE that isn't.
WRITTEN WITH the case,
AND POLISH to which,
WE ARE accustomed,
BUT IT'S a mouthful,
AS YOU'LL agree if you,
JUST PUT it into good,
UNITED STATES, like this.
"SON, YOU'LL be running.
ON FOUR fat times.
IF YOU don't hurry,
AND WRAP yourself around,
THE ONLY cigarette,
THAT SATISFIES."

"THEY Satisfy"—nothing else so well describes Chesterfield's mildness, their mellowness, their delicacy of aroma and smooth, even "body." It took the finest varieties of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos to do it—and the highest order of skill in blending them. Yes, the Chesterfield blend is a secret, as can't be copied.
