

WE Must HAVE MORE BUSINESS

THAT'S THE PLAIN SPOKEN TRUTH

PERSONAL MENTION

U. N. Brambell left this morning for Eugene on a ten day business trip.

Mrs. A. J. Warner is going to San Francisco to visit her father, A. J. McVillie who is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hart returned to Sacramento this morning after spending several days here combining business with pleasure. Mr. Hart is the owner of the Hart Building here, which is under construction.

Blanche and Roy Irwin left this morning for Bartlesville, Oklahoma to make their home.

W. O. Barba was a passenger on this morning's train for Weed.

Misses Idamat Brown and Constance Fisher are enroute to Portland this morning to spend Thanksgiving with friends.

Wm. G. Hagelstein of Dorris returned to that place this morning after spending several days on business here.

W. H. Mason, a local newspaper man, is journeying to Modesto, Cal., to spend Thanksgiving with his father, J. B. Mason. Mr. J. B. Mason was at one time mayor of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Clyde Deal and baby returned this morning to Dunsmuir after spending a few days visiting at the home of Mr. Deal's mother, Mrs. Jack Corkery.

T. J. Craig and H. C. Barker left this morning for their homes in San Francisco after a three days visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Cooks spent the day here yesterday on business matters and returned home today via Ashland.

Charles A. Giblin spent yesterday here, leaving this forenoon for a southern trip. Mr. Giblin resides in Seattle, Wash.

L. S. Henry was a Sacramento visitor here Tuesday and Wednesday.

W. T. Sensaff spent a week visiting in Bend, returning to this city last night. He left this morning for his home in Berkeley, California. The trip was made in the interest of his health.

H. C. Kimball, a prominent citizen of Lakeview, was a caller upon local friends yesterday.

C. A. Newman and Frank Tucker of Malin were here yesterday and today upon business connected with their ranches near Malin.

W. W. Fordney of Lorella was a business visitor here yesterday.

W. H. Gadden, proprietor of the Eagle Ridge tavern, was here yesterday upon a purchasing trip.

Michael Curtin, one of the prominent ranchers near Merrill, was an overnight visitor here, returning to his home this forenoon.

Leonard Hovington and J. W. Simpson, traveling men from San Francisco, were guests at the Arcade hotel last night.

H. Turpin and M. Atkins last night arrived from Medford with a truckload of produce for the public market. They reported that the snow encountered on the way here was light and did not interfere with their travel.

Roy Rickard spent yesterday in this city visiting with former Corvallis acquaintances.

Warren A. Cottle spent Tuesday and Wednesday in this city on business for his firm at San Jose, California, returning south this morning.

Harry Gamerson was called here yesterday upon personal business matters from his home at Malin, remaining over night and returning to Malin this morning.

E. J. Peyton and J. A. Allison of Roseburg left this morning for Malin where they will spend the balance of the week hunting.

William W. Strahan of Merrill was a visitor here yesterday.

Peter O'Connor of Lakeview was a business caller here yesterday.

Dan Bowman of Chiloquin spent Wednesday visiting friends here.

Mrs. M. Chase was a Bonanza visitor here yesterday on a shopping trip.

J. Olders and B. P. Bert of Portland spent the day here yesterday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Carlson and Lorrinda M. Sauber of the Agency were shoppers about the city yesterday.

Robert B. Warner, Harry Tomlinson, Frank Jordan and James O'Keefe, were a group of Ashland hunters who arrived last night for a day's sport in Klamath county hunting grounds.

The Kedron Club will hold a food sale in Johnstone's Furniture Store Saturday. The sale will begin at 9 a. m., and there will be many home-made delicacies to be disposed of.

Mrs. A. L. Madden and little daughter, Roberta Lee, of Sacramento, are in the city for a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fry, at 1205 Worden Ave.

Born, Friday, November 11, 1921 to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sear, of Pelican City, a daughter. Mr. Sear is jammer man for the Pelican Bay Lumber company.

T. L. Burlingham, of Portland, spent the fore part of the week here on business, returning home this morning.

W. H. Harrelson, vice president of the firm of Duncanson-Harrelson Co. contractors and engineers, of San Francisco, returned to that place after an inspection of the Oregon California dam on Lusk river.

GRIEF IN GRIND OF KLAMATH DIVORCE MILL

Decrees of divorce were granted the following by Judge Kaykendall this week, the orders being signed yesterday: William D. Bradshaw against Lois Irene Bradshaw; Charles H. Blackman against Mildred Blackman and Olive Boyd against Daniel Boyd, the court ordering the restoration of the plaintiff's maiden name, Olive Watson.

Petitions for divorce have been filed in the circuit court by Edna May Dietz against Lloyd Dietz, alleging desertion. The plaintiff asks custody of Dorothy Edna Dietz, a minor child. John M. Johnson filed a petition against Ruby L. Johnson, alleging desertion.

ON TRIAL FOR DRIVING AUTO WHILE INTOXICATED

Joe Garcia, charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated, is on trial in Justice Gaghagen's court this afternoon. The evidence presented was to effect that on November 4 at Chiloquin, he had three passengers in his Ford car and started doing pranks upon the main street of that place.

Leaving Chiloquin after an erratic exhibition, Garcia started for Klamath Falls. He ran into a ditch; the car was wrecked and one of the guests, Billy Huff, received a cracked rib.

LIBRARY CLUB MEETING

The Women's Library club will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Fricke will give a talk, assisted by eight little girls from Mrs. Belding's class. After the talk the same little girls will entertain the club with marches and dancing. The public is cordially invited and it is hoped there will be a large attendance.

No more out of town Piano or Phonograph deliveries soon. Earl Shepherd Music House.

Requests to President Harding for charity are so numerous that a special form letter is used in replying.

We are Here to Stay

We want you and all our friends to know that we are here to stay, and that we will hold on to our valuable established business with "bull dog tenacity."

That we are determined to fight out our proposition to a successful conclusion.

We are taking our medicine, that of making GREAT SACRIFICES for reasons stated before.

We have

No Other Remedy

with which to meet the situation of

Creditors' Demands

but by offering merchandise at SENSATIONAL INCOMPARABLE CUT PRICES!

Having accepted the ultimatum to take Quick and Decisive Losses, we are sure to accomplish our aim and thereby secure results we must have now and for the future.

New Arrivals of contracted merchandise are being placed on sale at same sensational cut prices as stock on hand as quickly as received and included in the Vortex of Creditor's Sacrifice Sale.

JERSEY SPORT COATS

In leading shades, heavy Schleiber's Jersey, choice ..... $4.50

NEW DRESSES

Large variety to choose from. Last-Minute styles, handsome materials, including Canton Crepe, Tricotines, Velours, Velvets and Satins. Splendid values up to $29.50; all offered at one price Your choice ..... $15.00

All Ready-To-Wear and Furs are included in the Creditors' Sale.

La Vogue
CALIF. STORES OREGON

YOUR Opportunity

A Place and Time to Suit Your Lean Purse

SCANDINAVIAN HALL, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Nov. 17, 18, 19

THANKSGIVING AND CHRISTMAS SUGGESTIONS

Home-made Aprons, Candy, Fancy Work

Farm Products, Meats, Vegetables, Turkeys almost given away! Dancing and delicious lunch each evening to top off

THE BIG AUTUMN FAIR

For the Benefit of Sacred Heart Academy

Doors Open at 2 p. m. Home Cooked Business Luncheons Served at Noon Each Day