BY JUNIOR

A DOLEFUL DITTY

As I walked blithe and full of spunk I chirruped gayly to my soul Bue then I saw a fallen chunk—Coal!

My anxious heart spoke up in fright You better order some or you'll Be shivering shortly, Autumn night Cool!

So I went on in painful doubt And felt most timorous and pale; For how can it be bought without Kale?

—New York Post.

THE HAPPY TIP

Minister—"I made seven hearts happy today."
Parishoner—"How was that?"
"Married three couples."
"That makes only six."
"Well, do you think I did it for nothing?"

Tom Elde says even if he does not enjoy taking moonlight walks with his wife as he did before they were married, a man still may enjoy the moonshine.

Probably if the facts were known it would be seen that prices are actually lower than the average—subnormal, so to speak. People have always complained of the cost of living, and doubtless they always will.
In one of Benjamin Franklin's letters he tells of staying over night at a tavern. For his bed and breakfast and for the entertainment, as he puts it, of his beast, he was charged a shilling, and he denounces the landlord as a profiteer. Samuel Pepys carefully noted the cost of everything he bought and generally complained of it. He entertained the William Penns "to a fowl or two, and anchovies, and a noble dish of carp, and sweets brought this day from town, and better wine than Sir W. ever had in his cellar. A fine feast, all very noble, and my rich plate showing to very great advantage, and Sir W. jealous as a man ever was to see the great state to which I have come. It all costs me 148, 9d, a round sum."

Friend on our right arises to inquire where all the booze seized by the cops goes. That's easy. It goes to the booze-fighters.

The tax board has decided at Atlantic City that an unobstructed ocean view is worth $170,000. Unobstructed by hostility, that is to say.

Speaking of one thing and another:
"The rolling stone gathers no moss."—but it's a good thing for sharpening a dull axe.

A LIGHT LUNCH

(From story in Boston Transcript) He eagerly swallowed every word she bestowed upon him; he fed upon her every look, he lived upon the smiles she gave him.

to explain why so many films have a kick in them.

YES! STUDY HOW NOT TO FALL!
(From the New York Herald) An aviator must shudder when his motor stalls at a height of seven and three-quarters miles. At such an altitude, however, he has a good deal of time to study the book of instructions.

Nothing so unsettles a man's mind as a lot of unsettled debts.

"What do you weigh?" a friend asked Harvey Brown. "Meat, of course," answered the butcher.

UNCLE SAM'S MINIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18. — A custom raid on an army transport was made today for the first time in the history of the port, according to customs officials who gathered in 134 bottles of liquor concealed in double walks of the engineers' quarters on the transport Logan and two Standard Oil company tankers netted more than $11,000 worth of liquor, the customs officials said.

ARE OPPOSED TO CRATER LAKE EXTENSION

PORTLAND, Nov. 17. — The Portland chamber of commerce has placed itself on record as being unalterably opposed to the proposition to extend the boundaries of Crater Lake National Park so as to include the Diamond Lake country and has passed the following resolution:

WHEREAS a bill to extend the boundaries of Crater Lake National Park so as to include Diamond Lake and vicinity within said National Park is now before Congress; and

WHEREAS said Diamond Lake Country is now under the supervision of the Forestry Service and, being under this service, is open to the public with fewer restrictions than it would be under the National Park Service; and

WHEREAS the Forestry Service is not restricted by appropriations for any particular project, and, therefore, has more freedom in developing sections of the country most needing development; and

WHEREAS under the control of this service the natural resources of this section, such as the cutting of ripe timber, the acquisition of power sites, etc., would continue to be open to the public; and WHEREAS Diamond Lake is a natural reservoir for storing and regulating the flow of the North Umpqua River, the power of which river will at some future time be developed to supply electric energy for that part of the state; and

WHEREAS the inclusion of this territory in the Crater Lake National Park would preclude this power development for all time; and

WHEREAS in general it is believed best to have this section remain under the Forestry Service as it now is; therefore leaving it more free for future development both as to recreation purposes and the development of its natural resources; therefore be it

RESOLVED by the Portland Chamber of Commerce that this body is against the inclusion of Diamond Lake and contiguous country in Crater Lake National Park; and be it further

RESOLVED that copies of these resolutions be sent to the Chambers directly interested, and to the Oregon Delegation in Congress.

CAN TAKE A BATH NOW WITHOUT PAYING WAR TAX

L. Flynn here to discontinue collecting war tax on the admission fee to

STARTLING CONSUMPTION OF TOBACCO BY AMERICANS

Cigars and cigarettes consumed every single day in the year, if placed end to end, would reach from the Atlantic to the Pacific and back again. 80,777 cigarettes and 13,835 cigars are burned to ashes for every minute of the 24 hours.

The combined total lengths of cigars and cigarettes smoked annually in the United States aggregate almost 2,275,000 miles—over six times the total mileage of the nation's railroads.

A bird like this makes a model husband

HER NICE new husband, STEPS OUT of the house, WHISTLING LIKE a bird,
WHICH ALARMED young wife, ESPECIALLY WHEN,
SHE FOUND she'd picked
THE WRONG package,
AND INSTEAD of oatmeal, HAD GIVEN him birdseed, BUT DON'T think from this,
THAT EVERY guy,
YOU HEAR whistling, HAS NECESSARILY,
BEEN ROBBING the canary, OTHER THINGS inspire,
THE ALMOST human male,
TO BLOW through his lips,
AND MAKE shrill noises, A RAISE, for example,
OR A day off when,
A DOUBLE header is on,
OR AN everyday thing,
LIKE A good drag,
ON ONE of those smokes,
THAT SATISFY, WHICH CERTAINLY are,
THE REAL birdseed,
FOR MAKING men,
TRILL THEIR pipes for joy,
SO LADIES, if hubby, GOES AWAY whistling,
YOU NEEDN'T worry,
ALL'S SWELL.

WHEN you say that Ches-terfields "satisfy," you're whistling. You know—the instant you light one—that the tobacco in it are of prime selection, both Turkish and Domestic. And the blend—well, you never tasted such smoothness and full-flavored body! No wonder the "satisfy-blend" is kept secret. It can't be copied.
